KING LEAR

GENRE:	SETTING:	YEAR FIRST PERFORMED:	AUTHOR:
Tragedy	Ancient Britain	1606	William Shakespeare

King Lear probes the depths of human suffering and despair in its story of a king who divides his realm between his three daughters. Once Cordelia refuses to flatter him and he divides his kingdom between Goneril and Regan, Lear gains insight into his own nature and realizes his shortcomings. Tragically, this self-knowledge comes too late, at a point when Lear has forfeited all his power.

Plot Overview

Climax: King Lear is denied shelter by Goneril and Regan and forced to wander in the storm, driving him mad; Regan and her husband, Cornwall, discover Gloucester helping Lear, accuse him of treason, and blind him.

Rising Action: King Lear cannot understand that Cordelia loves him when she refuses to publicly flatter him. Goneril and Regan actively thwart their father and treat him as a powerless old man. Meanwhile, Edmund schemes to banish Edgar and take his place as Gloucester's heir.

Falling Action: Cordelia tries to save her father, but Lear and Cordelia are captured by the English. Edgar duels with and kills Edmund; Gloucester dies; Goneril poisons Regan and then kills herself; Edmund's betrayal of Cordelia leads to her needless execution in prison; and Lear finally dies out of grief. Albany, Edgar, and the elderly Kent are left to take care of the country.
