The Lamoille Stories Bill Schubart,2008 Every year on the Fourth of July Jeeters wife Lou struts in the town parade wearing suspenders made of jumper cables with a tow chain around her waist Those in the know which means everyone in town chuckle at Lous silent commentary on her husbands skill as an automotive mechanic But Jeeter has a different perspective Thats my wife right there he tells a stranger She knows cars Author Bill Schubart brings to life the friends and characters of his native Lamoille County where in the late 1950s and early 1960s life was lived close to the earth and often against the grain Schubarts collection of twenty two stories captures Vermont in its transition from an enclave of hill farms and small towns where everyone knew your grandfather to a place where vehicles bearing license plates from away mix with hippie vans filled with born again Vermonsters getting back to the land until snowfall Its a time and place where the Jeeters of The Lamoille Stories rub elbows with the ladies of the Uplift Club all to the fiddle accompaniment of Qubcois music played by people whose conversations often weave French and English together in a single sentence Schubarts full hearted and compassionate evocation of this Vermont is by turns poignant funny and savory The stories give readers a good excuse to stay up too late to discover how Wyvis will circumvent the new Vermont prohibition on having more than three junk cars in your yard or how Charlie is going to get Edgar to pay him for his new chimney Schubarts thoroughly enjoyable short story collection is as finely etched as the frost crystals on your winter window Amusez vous bien Bill Schubarts Vermont stories of a mostly forgotten time and place are fresh authentic funny in places and sad in others He knows his corner of the Green Mountains inside out and writes with honesty and grace about its people Howard Frank Mosher author of Disappearances Mary Blythe and On Kingdom Mountain

Clever Girls and the Literature of Women's Upward Mobility Mary Eagleton,2018-02-15 This book follows the figure of the clever girl from the post war to the present and focuses on the fiction plays and memoirs of contemporary British women writers Spurred on by an ethic of meritocracy the clever girl is now facing austerity and declining social mobility Though suggesting optimism a public discourse of opportunity aspiration and choice is often experienced as an anxious and chancy process In a wide ranging study the book explores the struggle to move away from home and traditional notions of femininity the persistent problems associated with women s embodiment the pressures of class and racial divisions the new subjectivities of the neoliberal era and the generational conflict underpinning austerity The book ends with a consideration of feminism s place as a phantom presence in this history of clever girls This study will appeal to readers of contemporary women s writing and to those interested in what has been one of the dominant social narratives of the post war period from upward to declining mobility
