and resolves to destroy the wall However when he emerges from his castle all the children run away except for one boy who was trying to climb a tree The giant helps this boy into the tree and announces It is your garden now little children and knocks down the wall The Devoted Friend Hans is a gardener the devoted friend of a rich miller On the basis of this friendship the miller helps himself to flowers from Hans garden and promises to give Hans an old broken wheelbarrow to replace one that Hans was forced to sell so that he could buy food Against this promise the miller compels Hans to run a series of arduous errands for him One stormy night the miller asks Hans to fetch a doctor for his sick son Returning from the doctor Hans is lost on the moors in the storm and drowns in a pool of water The Remarkable Rocket This story concerns a firework who is one of many to be let off at the wedding of a prince and princess The rocket is extremely pompous and self important and denigrates all the other fireworks eventually bursting into tears to demonstrate his sensitivity As this makes him wet he fails to ignite and the next day is thrown away into a ditch The happy prince, and other fairy stories O.

Xurt'an Suzanne Cook, 2019-11-15 Xurt'an the end of the world showcases the rich storytelling traditions of the northern Lacandonese of Naha through a collection of traditional narratives songs and ritual speech Formerly isolated in the dense tropical rainforest of Chiapas Mexico the Lacandon Maya constitute one of the smallest language groups in the world Although their language remains active and alive their traditional culture was abandoned after the death of their religious and civic leader in 1996 Lacking the traditional contexts in which the culture was transmitted the oral traditions are quickly being forgotten This collection includes creation myths that describe the cycle of destruction and renewal of the world the structure of the universe the realms of the gods and their intercessions in the affairs of their mortals and the journey of the souls after death Other traditional stories are non-mythic and fictive accounts involving talking animals supernatural beings and malevolent beings that stalk and devour hapless victims In addition to traditional narratives Xurt'an presents many songs that are claimed to have been received from the Lord of Maize magical charms that invoke the forces of the natural world invocations to the gods to heal and protect and work songs of Lacandon women whose contribution to Lacandon culture has been hitherto overlooked by scholars Women s songs offer a rare glimpse into the other half of Lacandon society and the arduous distaff work that sustained the religion The compilation concludes with descriptions of rainbows the Milky Way as the white road of Our Lord and an account of the solstices Transcribed and translated by a foremost linguist of the northern Lacandon language the literary traditions of the Lacandones are finally accessible to English readers The result is a masterful and authoritative collection of oral literature that will both entertain and provoke while vividly testifying to the power of Lacandon Maya aesthetic expression
