The Higher Public Service Of The Commonwealth Of Australia:

Social Policy and Its Administration Joanna Monie, Adrienne Wise, 2013-10-22 Social Policy and Its Administration contains an index of literature that defines the output created by social scientists for the welfare of human beings This literary survey originates out of the need to present a comprehensive bibliographic work The book covers areas that encompass the concept social policy Topics such as the standards in social welfare services are also the focus of the book The book traces the beginning of social science and the major proponents of the subject The improvements made on the field are also enumerated and the countries that contributed to the progress of society are named in the book Social revolutions such as the liberation of women and the abolishment of servitude as well as the transition from colonial status to political independence are discussed in the book The text will be a useful tool for sociologists historians students and researchers in the field of political science

Leadership and Culture Montgomery Van Wart, A. Hondeghem, E. Schwella, Vivien E. Nice, 2014-11-11 This collection examines the leadership training of public administration in 19 countries and provides information on where what and how the training occurs as well as the up to date cultural political economic background for each Factors affecting perceived importance quality and robustness of top civil servant training are examined

Dilemmas in Public Management in Greater China and Australia Andrew Podger, Hon S. Chan, Tsai-tsu Su, John Wanna, 2023-07-12 This book draws on more than a decade of workshops organised by the Greater China Australia Dialogue on Public Administration involving scholars and practitioners from Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Australia Although these workshops recognised the major differences in the institutional frameworks of these jurisdictions until recently they focused largely on the shared challenges and the diffusion of ideas and approaches As rising international tensions inevitably draw attention to areas where interests and philosophies diverge it is the differences that must now be highlighted Yet despite the tensions this book reveals that these jurisdictions continue to address shared challenges in public administration The book's contributors focus in detail on these four areas 1 intergovernmental relations including the shifting balance between centralisation and decentralisation 2 budgeting and financial management including during and after the COVID 19 pandemic 3 the civil service its capability and its relationship with government and the public 4 service delivery particularly in health and aged care This book is aimed at a wide readership not only at those within the jurisdictions it explores It emphasises the importance of continued engagement in understanding different approaches to public administration confirming fundamental philosophical differences where necessary but also looking for common ground and opportunities for shared learning
