Rediscovering Travel: A Guide for the Globally Curious Seth Kugel, 2018-11-13 A revolutionary philosophy for rookie and veteran travelers alike Rediscovering Travel gets to the heart of why we travel. Matt Kepnes Nomadic Matt Having captivated millions during his tenure as the New York Times's Frugal Traveler Seth Kugel is one of our most internationally beloved travel writers. With the initial publication of Rediscovering Travel he took the corporate modern travel industry to task determined to reignite an age old sense of adventure that has virtually been vanquished by the spontaneity obliterating likes of Google Maps TripAdvisor and Starwood points. Now in travel friendly paperback this funny inspiring and well crafted companion Associated Press reveals how to make the most of new apps and other digital technologies without being shackled to them. Writing for the tight belted tourists and the first class flyer the eager student and the comfort seeking retiree Kugel shows all readers not only where to look but how. Samantha Brown and promises that we too can rediscover the joy of discovery. Travel is not about the destination but the experience. That's what makes it so appealing so addictive and that's what makes Rediscovering Travel so necessary.

Peter Greenberg Post-Colonial Trajectories in the Caribbean Rosemarijn Hoeffte, Matthew L. Bishop, Peter

Clegg, 2016-11-18 This book compares and contrasts the contemporary development experience of neighbouring geographically similar countries with an analogous history of exploitation but by three different European colonisers. Studying the so called Three Guianas Guyana Suriname and French Guiana offers a unique opportunity to look for similarities and differences in their contemporary patterns of development particularly as they grapple with new and complex shifts in the regional hemispheric and global context. Shaped decisively by their respective historical experiences Guyana in tandem with the laissez faire approach of Britain toward its Caribbean colonies was decolonised relatively early in 1966 and has maintained a significant degree of distance from London. The hold of The Hague over Suriname however endured well after independence in 1975. French Guiana by contrast was decolonised much sooner than both of its neighbours in 1946 but this was through full integration thus cementing its place within the political economy and administrative structures of France itself. Traditionally isolated from the Caribbean the wider Latin American continent and from each other today a range of similar issues such as migration resource extraction infrastructure development and energy security are coming to bear on their societies and provoking deep and complex changes.

Pocket Activity Guide for Wiley Geography Textbooks and Microsoft Encarta Virtual Globe Gripshover, 1999 Caribbean Studies, 1969 Smithsonian Plant Collections, the Guianas 1991-1993 and 1995-2000, Bruce Hoffman Sara Nazanin Alexander, Bruce Hoffman, Carol Lynn Kelloff, Vicki Ann Funk, 2014 The Encyclopedia Americana, 1976 The Guidebook Experiment David Bockino, 2015-08-11 Our modern day multimedia information obsessed culture has fundamentally altered much of what we do day to day. The way we shop and pay bills. The way we communicate. The way we research study and learn. In the realm of travel we have more tools than ever telling us where to go how to get there what it will look like what to do and why we should go in the first place. This proliferation of constantly updated data has changed the way we go about our journeys. But how? By tracing the evolution of the guidebook from pilgrim manuals and Baedeker's books to Yelp reviews and Google Maps David Bockino explores the effects this information growth has had on the state of travel and adventure. Inspired by some of the world's greatest explorers he sets out guidebook less to a destination he knows little about launching an experiment to determine just how the guidebook and its digital descendants have transformed the nature of travel. The Guidebook Experiment is a call to action to conduct our own guidebook experiments to disconnect from the ceaseless barrage of information in modern life and explore an unknown neighborhood or unfamiliar country and discover the joy of travel on our own.
