Burton, 2025-01-21T00:00:00Z First published by the Mystery League Inc New York 1930 On a night of fog Pussy Herridge stole the Hardway diamonds and on the same night they were re stolen It was a grim trail that Dick Penhampton followed which led him to discover one of them on a dead man in the marshes Who was the Funny Toff the terror alike of police and criminals the unknown man with such amazing resource and ingenuity a devilish perverted sense of humour and a lunatic laugh that few heard twice Death was the answer meted out to all who tried to solve the riddle to all except Penhampton Why was he spared so often by his unknown adversary in that ghastly game of cat and mouse played out in the dark Was Inspector Pollard entirely deluded when he turned his attention to trailing the trailer Or was Alison Weatherleigh's faith in her lover justified In The Hardway Diamonds Mystery we get a story packed with legitimate thrills quick moving and logical which proves yet again that ultimately the criminal cannot win against the law

Masters of the "Humdrum" Mystery Curtis Evans, 2014-01-10 In 1972 in an attempt to elevate the stature of the crime novel influential crime writer and critic Julian Symons cast numerous Golden Age detective fiction writers into literary perdition as Humdrums condemning their focus on puzzle plots over stylish writing and explorations of character setting and theme This volume explores the works of three prominent British Humdrums Cecil John Charles Street Freeman Wills Crofts and Alfred Walter Stewart revealing their work to be more complex as puzzles and as social documents than Symons allowed By championing the intrinsic merit of these mystery writers the study demonstrates that reintegrating the Humdrums into mystery genre studies provides a fuller understanding of the Golden Age of detective fiction and its aftermath

The Secret of High Eldersham Miles Burton, 2025-09-03 In a lonely East Anglian parish the village pub becomes a crime scene after closing time The victim is a newcomer with few friends and fewer allies among tight knit locals who distrust outsiders A Yard inspector is sent to sort fact from old stories only to find doors closed tales practiced and a run of bad luck that seems to follow anyone not born there When odd traces suggest a carefully planned entry and exit the case turns from a simple stabbing to a problem of timing access and motive Clues point to river landings night roads and gatherings best not seen A civilian expert is asked to follow threads the police cannot pull testing stories customs and loyalties As signs mount garden paths trodden at strange hours tools out of place a blade no kitchen should hold the pattern hints at a hidden circle linking farm church and manor Rival answers emerge smuggling routes masked by legend or older practices revived under cover of darkness Before the showdown they must decide how much is superstition and how much is design and whether the truth lies in modern vice or in rites kept alive by silence In a place where the river narrows and gossip travels faster than law exposing the bond behind the crime may prove more dangerous than the crime itself
