Chinese Cookbook Mary Sia, 2012-12-31 Mary Sia's Chinese Cookbook has been a classic of Chinese cookery since it was first published in 1956. This fourth edition features all 300 of the original recipes ranging from simple everyday fare to more elaborate dishes for entertaining as well as essays by Mary Sia. An all new food glossary provides up to date names for ingredients along with advice on appropriate substitutions and sources for 21st century cooks. The work also includes an introduction by Rachel Laudan, renowned food historian and author of The Food of Paradise Exploring Hawai'i's Culinary Heritage. The YWCA where Mary Sia had taught for so many years named its kitchen after her. Her cookbooks sold steadily some twenty thousand copies having left the shelves by the 1980s and doubtless many more by now. Jacqueline Newman, founder and editor of Flavor and Fortune, a magazine dedicated to Chinese cooking who assembled the premier collection of English language Chinese cookbooks commented that Mary Sia's Chinese Cookbook remains one of the finest introductions to home style Cantonese cooking all these years after Mary Sia first created the recipes. Dr Newman commented to me: She was years ahead of her time, a better cook with a better set of taste buds than most folk I know as well as a better writer. From the Introduction.

The Plantation in the Postslavery Imagination Elizabeth Christine Russ,2009-11-05 In a provocative new approach toward understanding transnational literary cultures this study examines the specter of the plantation that physical place most vividly associated with slavery in the Americas For Elizabeth Russ the plantation is not merely a literal location but also a vexing rhetorical ideological and psychological trope through which intersecting histories of the New World are told Through a series of precise in depth readings Russ analyzes the discourse of the plantation through a number of suggestive pairings male and female perspectives U S and Spanish American traditions and continental alongside island societies To chart comparative elements in the development of the postslavery imagination in the Northern and Southern hemispheres Russ distinguishes between a modern and a postmodern imaginary The former privileges a familiar plot of modernity the traumatic transition from a local largely agrarian order to an increasingly anonymous industrialized society The latter abandoning nostalgia toward the past suggests a new history using the strategies of performance such as witnessing reticency and traversal Authors examined include The Twelve Southerners Fernando Ortiz Teresa de la Parra Eudora Welty Antonio Ben tez Rojo Gayl Jones Toni Morrison and Mayra Santos Febres among others Applying sharp analyses across a broad range of texts Russ reveals how the language used to imagine communities influenced by the plantation has been gendered racialized and eroticized in ways that oppose the domination of an ever shifting North while often reproducing the fundamental power divide Her work moves beyond the North South dichotomy that has often stymied scholarly work in Latin American studies and importantly provides a model for future hemispheric approaches
