Secularisation in the Christian World

Michael Snape, 2016-04-01 The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia The chapters tackle different strands themes comparisons and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach thinking and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies [Catalog of Copyright Entries. Naggi and Edward Hastings      Saints in the World Jesus Urteaga, 2002      Therapy Thieves Francis A. Martin, 2020-03-13

Why are we practicing counselors and psychotherapists committed to failure This is the question that has haunted Dr Francis Martin as he has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct psychotherapy approaches advertised on the websites of licensed mental health professionals No doubt some of these are harmful most of them ineffective and many simply made up but the sheer volume of such techniques and practices advertised by licensed professionals holding advanced degrees whose services are billed to clients and insurance companies calls the credibility of the entire mental health profession into question Based on significant original research that joins research from others this book describes a near universal crisis in mental health care and recommends ways to rescue the field from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services The book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms      Counseling Techniques Zondervan, 2018-10-16 consciousness of church as the Body of Christ Music then is much more than just a component of liturgy it is in Harmon s view absolutely constitutive both of liturgy s deepest essence and its fullest realization Professional music scholars graduate students music directors and anyone else seeking a sophisticated analysis of liturgical music will find this volume a rich sourcebook of new ideas Kathleen Harmon SNDdeN is the music director for programs of the Institute for Liturgical Ministry in Dayton Ohio and contributor to Living Liturgy Spirituality Celebration and Catechesis for Sundays and Solemnities an annual resource published by Liturgical Press She is also a columnist for Liturgical Ministry and serves as director of music for St Paul Parish in Englewood Ohio
