Taming Cannabis David Alan Guba Jr, 2020-09-23 Despite having the highest rates of cannabis use in the continent France enforces the most repressive laws against the drug in all of Europe Perhaps surprisingly France was once the epicentre of a global movement to medicalize cannabis specifically hashish in the treatment of disease In Taming Cannabis David Guba examines how nineteenth century French authorities routinely blamed hashish consumption especially among Muslim North Africans for behaviour deemed violent and threatening to the social order This association of hashish with violence became the primary impetus for French pharmacists and physicians to tame the drug and deploy it in the homeopathic treatment of mental illness and epidemic disease during the 1830s and 1840s Initially heralded as a wonder drug capable of curing insanity cholera and the plague hashish was deemed ineffective against these diseases and fell out of repute by the middle 1850s The association between hashish and Muslim violence however remained and became codified in French colonial medicine and law by the 1860s authorities framed hashish as a significant cause of mental illness violence and anti state resistance among indigenous Algerians As the French government looks to reform the nation's drug laws to address the rise in drug related incarceration and the growing popular demand for cannabis legalization Taming Cannabis provides a timely and fascinating exploration of the largely untold and living history of cannabis in colonial France

"Off the Straight Path" Elyse Semerdjian, 2008-12-08 The legal treatment of sexual behavior is a subject that receives little scholarly attention in the field of Middle East women's studies Important questions about the relationship between sexuality and the law and about the societies enforcing that relationship are rarely addressed in the current literature Elyse Semerdjian's Off the Straight Path takes a bold step toward filling that gap by offering a fascinating look at the historical progression of the treatment of illicit sex under Islamic law Semerdjian provides a comprehensive review of the concept of zina i.e sexual indiscretion by exploring the diverse interpretation of zina crime as presented in a variety of sources from the Qur'an and hadith to legal literature She then delves into the history of legal responses to zina within the specific community of Aleppo Syria Drawing on a wealth of shari'a court records Semerdjian provides a realistic view of Syrian society during the Ottoman period With vivid detail she describes specific women's lives and experiences as their cases are presented before the court Semerdjian argues that the actual treatment of zina crimes in the courts differs substantially from sentences prescribed by codified Islamic jurisprudence In contrast to the violent corporal punishments dictated in the Islamic legal code the courts often punished crimes of sexual indiscretion with nonviolent sentences such as removal from the community Employing exceptional insight Off the Straight Path presents a powerful challenge to the traditional view of Islamic law enabling a richer understanding of Islamic society The Occult World Christopher Partridge, 2014-12-05 This volume presents students and scholars with a comprehensive overview of the fascinating world of the occult It explores the history of Western occultism from ancient and medieval sources via the Renaissance right up to the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and contemporary occultism Written by a distinguished team of contributors the essays consider key figures beliefs and practices as well as popular culture Consuming Habits Jordan Goodman, Andrew Sherratt, Paul E.
