The Hidden Human Image:

The Hidden Human Image Maurice S. Friedman, 1974 These 25 tracks by clarinetist Acker Bilk includes Evergreen The Way We Were Raining in my Heart and many more The Human Image in Helmuth Plessner, Pierre Bourdieu, and Psychocentric Culture Isaac E. Catt, 2023-02-06 In The Human Image in Helmuth Plessner Pierre Bourdieu and Psychocentric Culture Isaac E Catt offers a unique criticism of naturalistic reductions of humans to animals to neuro substrates and to DNA Catt explores a new interpretation of Plessner and Bourdieu revealing the combinatory logic of semiotic phenomenology in both and their common problematic of communication Through an emergent synthesis of philosophical anthropology and communicology this book provides a basis for criticism of the failed mechanistic medical model in psychiatry a fresh argument for reconceptualizing psychiatry as a human science and for construction of a new ecological image of communicative being Throughout the book alternative attempts to transcend dualisms such as cybernetics anti anthropocentrism and biosemiotics are revealed to risk reification of the very objects of their analysis Scholars of communication semiotics philosophy psychiatry cultural studies mental distress and psychology will find this book of particular interest

Hidden Human Image Maurice Friedman, 1975-03 Dialogically Speaking Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2011-01-01 What makes us authentically human According to Maurice Friedman world renowned Martin Buber scholar translator and biographer it is genuine dialogue When there s a willingness for dialogue Friedman says then one must navigate moment by moment It s a listening process Friedman addresses our humanity in ever unique ways through his dialogue with philosophy literature religion and psychotherapy At least two things make this book new Friedman presents his wide ranging thought directly in five original essays forming an intertextual compass which is then elaborated upon by colleagues familiar with his work Second a special feature of this book is found at the end of each part which invites readers to engage with questions drawn from and pointing toward Friedman s writing The book s intended audience includes teachers scholars and students interested in dialogical approaches to any of the human sciences In a time when we are in danger of losing our human birthright Friedman s interdisciplinary insights point us again to the touch of the other

Abraham Joshua Heschel--Philosopher of Wonder Maurice Friedman, 2012-11-05 Most studies of Abraham Joshua Heschel approach him as a theologian whereas this book peers behind the theologian and honors Heschel as the original philosopher that he was So it unearths Heschel s epistemology his aesthetic and his social philosophy all reinforced by the thirty years of friendship and dialogue that Maurice Friedman shared with him This book raises significantly critical questions concerning Heschel s philosophy of Judaism while remaining greatly appreciative of the sweep and command of his philosophy that Friedman believes were not sufficiently worked through Dialogic Civility in a Cynical Age Ronald C. Arnett, Pat Arneson, 1999-09-30 Dialogic Civility in a Cynical Age offers a philosophical and pragmatic response to unreflective cynicism Considering that each of us has faced inappropriate cynical communication in families educational institutions and the workplace this book offers insight and practical guidance for people interested in improving their interpersonal relationships in an age of rampant cynicism

Cognition and Psychotherapy M.J. Mahoney, 2013-11-11 For almost three millennia philosophy and its more pragmatic offspring psychology and the cognitive sciences have struggled to understand the complex principles reflected in the patterned operations of the human mind What is knowledge How does it relate to what we feel and do What are the fundamental processes underlying attention perception intention learning memory and consciousness How are thought feeling and action related and what are the practical implications of our current knowledge for the everyday priorities of parenting education and counseling Such meaningful and fascinating questions lie at the heart of contemporary attempts to build a stronger working alliance among the fields of epistemology theories of knowledge the cognitive sciences and psychotherapy The proliferation and pervasiveness of what some have called cognitivism throughout all quarters of modern psychology represent a phenomenon of paradigmatic proportions The reemergence of cognitive concepts and perspectives whether portrayed as revolutionary reactive or evolutionary developmental in nature marks what may well be the single most formative theme in late twentieth century psychology Skeptics of the cognitive movement if it may be so called can readily note the necessary limits and liabilities of naive forms of metaphysics and mentalism The history of human ideas is writ large in the polarities of in here and out there from Plato Pythagoras and Kant to Locke Bacon and Watson

Communication and Community Ronald C. Arnett, 1986 Martin Buber's work suggests that real life begins with two individuals engaged in dialogue not just taking care of one's own needs as described in social Darwinism Arnett argues that the end of the age of abundance demands that we give up the communicative strategies of the past and seek to work together in the midst of limited resources and an uncertain future Today's situation calls for an unwavering commitment to Buber's narrow ridge concern for both self and community Arnett illustrates the narrow ridge definition of interpersonal communication with rich examples His vignettes demonstrate effective and ineffective approaches to human community An effective approach he makes clear incorporates not only openness to others points of view but also a willingness to be persuaded

Digital TV and Wireless Multimedia Communications Guangtao Zhai, Jun Zhou, Hua Yang, Ping An, Xiaokang Yang, 2022-04-16 This book presents revised selected papers from the 18th International Forum on Digital TV and Wireless Multimedia Communication IFTC 2021 held in Shanghai China in December 2021 The 41 papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 110 submissions They were organized in topical sections on image analysis quality assessment target detection video processing big data

Backdoor Attacks against Learning-Based Algorithms Shaofeng Li, Haojin Zhu, Wen Wu, Xuemin (Sherman) Shen, 2024-05-29 This book introduces a new type of data poisoning attack dubbed backdoor attack In backdoor attacks an attacker can train the model with poisoned data to obtain a model that performs well on a normal input but behaves wrongly with crafted triggers Backdoor attacks can occur in many scenarios where the training process is not entirely controlled such as using third party datasets third party platforms for training or directly calling models provided by third parties Due to the enormous threat that backdoor attacks pose to model supply chain security they have received widespread attention from academia and industry This book focuses on exploiting backdoor attacks in the three types of DNN applications which are image classification natural language processing and federated learning Based on the observation that DNN models are vulnerable to small perturbations this book demonstrates that steganography and regularization can be adopted to enhance the invisibility of backdoor triggers Based on image similarity measurement this book presents two metrics to quantitatively measure the invisibility of backdoor triggers The invisible trigger design scheme introduced in this book achieves a balance between the invisibility and the effectiveness of backdoor attacks In the natural language processing domain it is difficult to design and insert a general backdoor in a manner imperceptible to humans Any corruption to the textual data e g misspelled words or randomly inserted trigger words sentences must retain context awareness and readability to human inspectors This book introduces two novel hidden backdoor attacks targeting three major natural language processing tasks including toxic comment detection neural machine translation and question answering depending on whether the targeted NLP platform accepts raw Unicode characters The emerged distributed training framework i e federated learning has advantages in preserving users privacy It has been widely used in electronic medical applications however it also faced threats derived from backdoor attacks This book presents a novel backdoor detection framework in FL based e Health systems We hope this book can provide insightful lights on understanding the backdoor attacks in different types of learning based algorithms including computer vision natural language processing and federated learning The systematic principle in this book also offers valuable guidance on the defense of backdoor attacks against future learning based algorithms

Beyond the Therapeutic Relationship Frederic J. Leger, 2014-07-16 Seeking to transfer knowledge across ideological boundaries within a theoretically valid scientific framework Beyond the Therapeutic Relationship draws upon and relates existing research from psychotherapy and the allied fields of human behavior Author Frederic J Leger has successfully cut across multifarious therapies to create an integrated high order theory that unites psychotherapy's disparate forces In the process he addresses the theoretical underpinnings of the field of psychotherapy the paradigm of the therapeutic relationship and its centrality to therapeutic change the difficulties of creating a scientific discipline from the study of the psyche and the factionalization of psychology into different competing schools By exploring universal variables and how they fit into a causal nexus Beyond the Therapeutic Relationship identifies transtheoretical processes of change that cut across diverse therapies It also offers heuristic research direction and guidance in eclectic and integrative practice as it broadens the perspective on the psychotherapeutic encounter Combining physiological social and psychological research into a transtheoretical psychodynamic theory this important text discusses why the need for paradigmatic direction is urgent bringing nonverbal variables to the therapist's working awareness or focus how a small range of conceptual possibilities limits knowledge of human behavior the lack of efficacy in psychotherapy the psychobiological significance of intensive experiential exploration formation of the self through language and discourse integrative eclecticism within transtheoretical and common factors integration Psychologists psychiatrists mental health therapists and academics and students in psychology psychiatry and educational psychology now have a text that cuts across the multitude of therapeutic approaches to provide a theory that is empirically supported and grounded in the author's 25 years of clinical practice As you will see Beyond the Therapeutic Relationship discusses the current position of the field of psychotherapy where it needs to go specific strategies for getting there as well as alternative interventions beyond empathy and the therapeutic relationship Dialogic Confession , In this landmark volume of contemporary communication theory Ronald C Arnett applies the metaphor of dialogic confession which enables historical moments to be addressed from a confessed standpoint and through a communicative lens to the works of German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer who pointed to an era of postmodern difference with his notion of a world come of age Arnett's interpretations of Bonhoeffer's life and scholarship in contention with Nazi dominance offer implications for a dialogic confession that engages the complexity of postmodern narrative contention Rooted in classical theory the field of communication ethics is abstract and arguably outmoded In Dialogic Confession Bonhoeffer's Rhetoric of Responsibility Arnett locates cross cultural and comparative anchors that not only bring legitimacy and relevance to the field but also develop a conceptual framework that will advance and inspire future scholarship Confronting Omnicide Daniel Landes, 1991-02-01 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com

Examining Creativity in the Workplace Nahanni Freeman, Bren Slusser, 2024-08-26 This scholarly book explores the intersection of social cognition with a democratic philosophy of human resource management to advance a theory of workplace function that maximizes creativity It examines how the work of Polanyi on tacit knowledge provides a useful theoretical structure for understanding person perception and self fulfilling prophecy effects in the workplace with a focus on gender culture and race as diversity variables Based on a broad range of interdisciplinary empirical evidence and theories this book provides a foundational set of concepts to build new applied intervention strategies The authors create new testable theories based on a synthesis of several major areas of research in social psychology and human resource management moving beyond the narrow confines of trends in a particular subdomain Part 1 offers a literature review of the field ranging from theoretical historical and philosophical psychology to social psychology and neurocognition Each chapter in this section offers a novel theory that is pertinent to workplace innovation synthesized from existing evidence Part 2 reveals applications of tacit knowledge to the field of human resource management with a focus on cross cultural applications for low and high power distance settings This insightful text presents the authors original qualitative research around workplace creativity and tacit knowledge and is valuable reading for scholars and advanced students in industrial organizational psychology and human resource management Healing Through Communication Carol Leppanen

Montgomery,1993-05-05 Montgomery offers a theory of caring grounded in both clinical practice and theory that advances caring as an intrinsic part of nursing Demonstrating the depth and complexity of caring communication she describes the qualities and behavioral manifestations needed to communicate caring to the patient while admitting the emotional risks facing caregivers A model is presented which describes the support necessary within the health care system to sustain this level of communication and to help caregivers cope with these emotional demands

Genuine Dialogue and Real Partnership Maurice Friedman,2011-03-30 Building Genuine Community emphasizes a notion of a community in which people are bound together by a common life situation and a common purpose without using that common purpose as an exclusionary factor that distinguishes between those who belong and those who do not belong to the community Without being scholarly technical or obscure Building Genuine Community lays the foundation for true community which is the seeking need of the age True community is difficult to define What makes some communities thrive and others fail True community is not an ideal or a specific goal Rather it is a twofold direction of movementa movement within each particular structure of family community and society to discover the maximum possibilities of the confirmation of individuals as true others within that structure as well as a movement from structure to structure toward more genuine community Building Genuine Community proposes nothing less than to do away with the old and tired polarities of the individual versus society individualism versus collectivism competition versus cooperation and free enterprise versus socialism In place of all these ideals this treatise confirms that otherness is the only meaningful direction of movement for friendship marriage family community and society within a democracy

Legacy of Night Ellen S. Fine,2012-02-01 Ellen Fine s book is full of original insights beautifully written and structured I could not put it down It is a very important study Rosette Lamont Queens College and Graduate School City University of New York By treating Wiesel s novels as literary spiritual stages in the development of Wiesel s larger experience as a survivor witness writer Dr Fine's book takes on an inherently dramatic character which makes it alive and exciting as well as instructive Terrence Des Pres Colgate University Fine clarifies Wiesel's intentions especially illuminating the complex variations on the themes of speech and silence fathers and sons escape and return in short the ideas around which Wiesel organizes his literary universe No one has done this before so thoroughly Lawrence Langer Simmons College

Martin Buber's Life and Work Maurice S. Friedman, 1988 Martin Buber's Life and Work is a complete reprint of Maurice Friedman's monumental three volume biography Friedman covers Buber's life from his work on I and Thou to the challenges of Nazi Germany and prewar Palestine He charts Buber's activities on behalf of Jewish Arab rapprochement his dialogue with Dag Hammarskjöld and comments on the philosopher's last years his death and his legacy to world Jewry

Grammatology of Images Sigrid Weigel, 2022-08-16 Grammatology of Images radically alters how we approach images Instead of asking for the history power or essence of images Sigrid Weigel addresses imaging as such The book considers how something a visible gets transformed into an image Weigel scrutinizes the moment of mise en apparence of making an appearance and the process of concealment that accompanies any imaging Weigel reinterprets Derrida's and Freud's concept of the trace as that which must be thought before something exists In doing so she illuminates the threshold between traces and iconic images between something immaterial and its pictorial representation Chapters alternate between general accounts of the line the index the effigy and the cult image and case studies from the history of science art politics and religion involving faces as indicators of emotion caricatures as effigies of defamation and angels as embodiments of transcendental ideas Weigel's approach to images illuminates fascinating unexpected correspondences between premodern and contemporary image practices between the history of religion and the modern sciences and between things that are and are not understood as art
