Soy Chicano; I Am Mexican-American Bob Fitch, Robert Fitch, Lynne Fitch, 1971 A thirteen year old Mexican American girl describes her home family school and daily experiences in a California grape growing community Latin American Films, 1932-1994 Ronald Schwartz, 2005-07-15 In 1931 Antonio Moreno completed Santa Mexico s first true sound film In it he established one of the foremost genres of Latin American cinema the popular melodrama which continues to this day Latin American filmmakers came to the fore in the fifties and sixties and as 1992 s Como agua para chocolate Like Water for Chocolate showed Latin American films continue to be a major part of the international film scene In this work over 300 of the most significant films from Argentina Brazil Cuba Mexico Bolivia Colombia Ecuador Peru and other Latin American countries are covered Each entry includes the English title director year of release running time language country and a detailed plot synopsis Notes about the production and the filmmakers are also provided for many entries Language, Culture, Identity and Citizenship in College Classrooms and Communities Juan C. Guerra, 2015-10-05 Language Culture Identity and Citizenship in College Classrooms and Communities examines what takes place in writing classrooms beyond academic analytical and argumentative writing to include forms that engage students in navigating the civic political social and cultural spheres they inhabit It presents a conceptual framework for imagining how writing instructors can institute campus wide initiatives such as Writing Across Communities that attempt to connect the classroom and the campus to the students various communities of belonging especially students who have been historically underserved This framework reflects an emerging perspective writing across difference that challenges the argument that the best writing instructors can do is develop the skills and knowledge students need to make a successful transition from their home discourses to academic discourses Instead the value inherent in the full repertoire of linguistic cultural and semiotic resources students use in their varied communities of belonging needs to be acknowledged and students need to be encouraged to call on these to the fullest extent possible in the course of learning what they are being taught in the writing classroom Pedagogically this book provides educators with the rhetorical discursive and literacy tools needed to implement this approach Lalo Lalo Guerrero, Sherilyn Montes, 2002-02 He has been called the father of Chicano music and the original Chicano hepcat Now Lalo s autobiography takes readers on a musical rollercoaster from his earliest enjoyment of Latino and black sounds in Tucson to his burgeoning career in Los Angeles singing with Los Carlistas the quartet with which he began his recording career in 1938 Redreaming America Debra A. Castillo, 2012-02-01 What would American literature look like in languages other than English and what would Latin American literature look like if we understood the United States to be a Latin American country and took seriously the work by U S Latinos as in Spanish Debra A Castillo explores these questions by highlighting the contributions of Latinos as writing in Spanish and Spanglish Beginning with the anonymously published 1826 novel Jicotncal and ending with fiction published at the turn of the twenty first century the book details both the characters and authors struggles with how to define an American self Writers from Cuba Puerto Rico and Mexico are featured prominently alongside a sampling of those writers from other Latin American heritages Peru Colombia Chile Castillo concludes by offering some thoughts on U S curricular practice     The Oxford Handbook of American Documentary Joshua Glick, Visiting Associate Professor of Film & Electronic Arts Joshua Glick, Patricia Aufderheide, University Professor in the School of Communication Patricia Aufderheide, 2025 Joshua Glick and Patricia Aufderheide Over the past twenty years documentaries have taken on an increasingly central place in American public life One measure of their importance is their commercial value Major media companies have moved aggressively to monetize documentary exploiting the form s relatively low budgets compared to fiction     New Latin American Cinema Michael T. Martin, 1997 This volume comprises essays on the development of the New Latin American Cinema as a comparative national project     Mexico and the United States Lee Stacy, 2002-10 Examines the history and culture of Mexico and its relations with its neighbors to the north and east from the Spanish Conquest to the current presidency of Vicente Fox     Marching Students Margarita Berta-Avila, Anita Tijerina-Revilla, Julie Figueroa, 2011-02-28 In 1968 over 10 000 Chicana o high school students in East Los Angeles walked out of their schools in the first major protest against racism and educational inequality staged by Mexican Americans in the United States They ignited the Mexican American civil rights movement which opened the doors to higher education and equal opportunity in employment for Mexican Americans and other Latinos previously excluded Marching Students is a collaborative effort by Chicana o scholars in several fields to place the 1968 walkouts and Chicana and Chicano Civil Rights Movement in historical context highlighting the contribution of Chicana o educators students and community activists to minority education Contributors Alejandro Covarrubias Xico Gonz lez Eracleo Guevara Adriana Katzew Lilia R De Katzew Rita Kohli Edward M Olivos Alejo Padilla Carmen E Quintana Evelyn M Rangel Medina Marianna Rivera Daniel G Sol rzano Carlos Tejeda     The Making of Chicana/o Studies Rodolfo F. Acuña, 2011-10-02 The Making of Chicana o Studies traces the philosophy and historical development of the field of Chicana o studies from precursor movements to the Civil Rights era to today focusing its lens on the political machinations in higher education that sought to destroy the discipline As a renowned leader activist scholar and founding member of the movement to establish this curriculum in the California State University system which serves as a model for the rest of the country Rodolfo F Acu a has for more than forty years battled the trend in academia to deprive this group of its academic presence The book assesses the development of Chicana o studies an area of studies that has even more value today than at its inception myths about its epistemological foundations have remained uncontested Acu a sets the record straight challenging those in the academy who would fold the discipline into Latino studies shadow it under the dubious umbrella of ethnic studies or eliminate it altogether Building the largest Chicana o studies program in the nation was no easy feat especially in an atmosphere of academic contention In this remarkable account Acu a reveals how California State University Northridge was instrumental in developing an area of study that offers more than 166 sections per semester taught by 26 tenured and 45 part time instructors He provides vignettes of successful programs across the country and offers contemporary educators and students a game plan the mechanics for creating a successful Chicana o studies discipline and a comprehensive index of current Chicana o studies programs nationwide Latinas os of which Mexican Americans are nearly seventy percent comprise a complex sector of society projected to be just shy of thirty percent of the nation s population by 2050 The Making of Chicana o Studies identifies what went wrong in the history of Chicana o studies and offers tangible solutions for the future

Mr. G's Battle Cry! La Causa De La Raza Wants You Javier Gomez,2018-07-17 A wave of revolution swept across the United States in the sixties and the seventies And across California Cesar Chavez sparked the Chicano civil rights movement in the barrio giving prominence to new leaders new voices and new demands for freedom from injustice and oppression For young Javier Gomez this battle cry would be the beginning of a fight to stand up to injustice in his home of East LA In Mr Gs Battle Cry author and civil rights activist Javier Gomez chronicles his march into the streets of East LA and beyond as he and his Chicano and Chicana brothers and sisters take up the cause of the civil rights movement and create hope for a better future against great odds Gomez also explores the history of his people showing how their culture and their spirit was renewed during this historic era of equality and justice Javier Gomez was inspired by the Chicano civil rights movement and today his battle cry endures Mr Gs Battle Cry gives voice to the enlightened individuals who fought side by side at protests and in the streets against the institutions of injustice that sought to keep the people silent And today this cultural revolution has left a living legacy of change progress and hope

Race and Identity in Hispanic America Patricia Reid-Merritt, Michael S. Rodriguez, 2020-04-03 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States

Testimonios: Stories of Latinx and Hispanic Mathematicians Pamela E. Harris, 2021-08-16 Testimonios brings together first person narratives from the vibrant diverse and complex Latinx and Hispanic mathematical community Starting with childhood and family the authors recount their own individual stories highlighting their upbringing education and career paths Their particular stories told in their own voices from their own perspectives give visibility to some of the experiences of Latinx Hispanic mathematicians Testimonios seeks to inspire the next generation of Latinx and Hispanic mathematicians by featuring the stories of people like them holding a mirror up to our own community It also aims to provide a window for mathematicians and aspiring mathematicians from all ethnicities with the hope of inspiring a better understanding of the diversity of the mathematical community

Materials and Human Resources for Teaching Ethnic Studies Francesco Cordasco, 1978 Latino History and Culture David J. Leonard, Carmen R. Lugo-Lugo, 2015-03-17 Latinos are the fastest growing population in America today This two volume encyclopedia traces the history of Latinos in the United States from colonial times to the present focusing on their impact on the nation in its historical development and current culture Latino History and Culture covers the myriad ethnic groups that make up the Latino population It explores issues such as labor legal and illegal immigration traditional and immigrant culture health education political activism art literature and family as well as historical events and developments A Z entries cover eras individuals organizations and institutions critical events in U S history and the impact of the Latino population communities and ethnic groups and key cities and regions Each entry includes cross references and bibliographic citations and a comprehensive index and illustrations augment the text

Latino Image Makers in Hollywood Frank Javier Garcia Berumen,2016-04-14 Latinos have been part of the Hollywood film industry for more than 100 years yet beyond the remarkable success of a few their visibility and clout have generally not reflected their significance in American society Worse the Latino image has suffered from widespread stereotyping in film and performers face unjustified constraints in the kinds of roles available to them Decade by decade from 1960 onward this book analyzes important films made by or about Latinos details the careers of Latino performers and filmmakers of the time and analyzes how film portrayals of Latino characters and subjects connect with political and social trends of each decade It discusses the role of gender social class and ethnicity in film portrayals and provides an overview of the diverse and dynamic Latino community in the United States while celebrating a substantial and enduring contribution to Hollywood film history

The Bronze Screen Rosa Linda Fregoso,1993 Explores Chicana and Chicano popular culture through contemporary representations in both Hollywood commercial and independent cinema Rosa Linda Fregoso s The Bronze Screen opens the way for international debate on the new critical field of Chicano a cinema Fregoso provides an incisive articulation of the ways in which narrative codes in film can telescope complex versions of Mexican and American culture and history The often violent impact of first U S and third Mexico world cultures and geographies is channeled through the very term Chicano a as well as its cinematic representation Fregoso s masterful critique brings out with great clarity the irony paradox and contradictions of such historical collisions Norma Alarc n University of California Berkeley     Language as Cultural Practice Sandra R. Schecter,Robert J. Bayley,2005-04-11 Language as Cultural Practice Mexicanos en el Norte offers a vivid ethnographic account of language socialization practices within Mexican background families residing in California and Texas This account illustrates a variety of cases where language is used by speakers to choose between alternative self definitions and where language interacts differentially with other defining categories such as ethnicity gender and class It shows that language socialization instantiated in language choices and patterns of use in sociocultural and sociohistorical contexts characterized by ambiguity and flux is both a dynamic and a fluid process The study emphasizes the links between familial patterns of language use and language socialization practices on the one hand and children s development of bilingual and biliterate identities on the other Using a framework emerging from their selection of two geographically distinct localities with differing demographic features Schecter and Bayley compare patterns of meaning suggested by the use of Spanish and English in speech and literacy activities as well as by the symbolic importance ascribed by families and societal institutions such as schools to the maintenance and use of the two languages Language as Cultural Practice provides a detailed account of the diversity of language practices and patterns of use in language minority homes offers educators detailed information on the language ecology of Latino homes in two geographically diverse communities San Antonio Texas and the San Francisco Bay Area California shows the diversity within Mexican American communities in the United States families profiled range from rural families in south Texas to upper middle class professional families in northern California provides data to correct the prevalent misconception that maintenance of Spanish interferes with the acquisition of English and contributes to the study of language socialization by showing that the process extends throughout the lifetime and that it is an interactive rather than a one way process This book will particularly interest researchers and professionals in linguistics anthropology applied linguistics and education and will be useful as a text in graduate courses in these areas that address language socialization and learning
