Space On Earth The Story Of Urban Moun:

Space on Earth Joel H. Rosenblatt,1996-01-01 The Housing Bomb M. Nils Peterson,Tarla Peterson,Jianguo Liu,2013-10-29 How our thirst for more and larger houses is undermining society and what we can do about it Have we built our way to ruin Is your desire for that beach house or cabin in the woods part of the environmental crisis Do you really need a bigger home Why don't multiple generations still live under one roof In The Housing Bomb leading environmental researchers M Nils Peterson Tarla Rai Peterson and Jianguo Liu sound the alarm explaining how and why our growing addiction to houses has taken the humble American dream and twisted it into an environmental and societal nightmare Without realizing how much a contemporary home already contributes to environmental destruction most of us want bigger and bigger houses and dream of the day when we own not just one dwelling but at least the two our neighbor does We push our children to get out on their own long before they need to creating a second household where previously one existed We pave and build demolishing habitat needed by threatened and endangered species adding to the mounting burden of global climate change and sucking away resources much better applied to pressing societal needs Reduce reuse recycle is seldom evoked in the housing world where economists predict financial disasters when new housing starts decline and the idea of renovating inner city residences is regarded as merely a good cause Presenting irrefutable evidence this book cries out for America and the world to intervene by making simple changes in our household energy and water usage and by supporting municipal state national and international policies to counter this devastation and overuse of resources It offers a way out of the mess we are creating and envisions a future where we all live comfortable nondestructive lives The housing bomb is ticking and our choice is clear change our approach or feel the blast Urban Mountain Beings Kathleen S. Fine-Dare,2019-12-04 Urban Mountain Beings is an ethnographic and historically grounded study of recognition strategies and ethnogenesis carried out on the flanks of Mt Pichincha in Quito Ecuador Kathleen S Fine Dare employs feminist geographical and Indigenous pedagogical frameworks to illustrate how histories of exclusion have created attitudes and policies that treat Native peoples as out of place and time in cities Fine Dare concentrates on two overlapping contexts for Indigenous vindication the Yumbada of Cotacollao an ancestral performance through which mountain and other spirits are called into the urban plaza and Casa Kinde Hummingbird House a cultural organization that engages in workshops filmmaking photography commerce community education and the formation of alliances with anthropologists activists filmmakers engineers and teachers Outer Space and Popular Culture Annette Froehlich,2023-03-01 This book provides detailed insights into how space and popular culture intersect across a broad spectrum of examples including cinema music art arcade games cartoons comics and advertisements This is a pertinent topic since the use of space themes differs in different cultural contexts and these themes can be used to explore various aspects of the human condition and provide a context for social commentary on politically sensitive issues With the use of space imagery evolving over the past sixty years of the space age this is a topic ripe for in depth exploration The book also discusses the contrasting visions of space from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and the reality of today and analyzes space vehicles and habitats in popular depictions of space from an engineering perspective exploring how many of those ideas have actually been implemented in practice and why or why not a case of life imitating art and vice versa As such it covers a wide array of relevant and timely topics examining intersections between space and popular culture and offering accounts of space and its effect on culture language and storytelling from the southern regions of the world The Chinese City in Space and Time Yinong

Xu,2000-01-01 Drawing on a wealth of primary materials detailing the city s history customs and urban construction as well as on recent work in Chinese history culture and religion Yinong Xu examines characteristics of building and transformation in pre modern Suzhou characteristics that while particular to the city s own historical development reflect or were determined by factors representative of China s urban history in general Poetics of Underground Space Antonello

Boschi,2021-11-04 This book investigates the relationship architecture has with the underground It provides a broad ranging historical and theoretical survey of and critical reflection on ideas pertaining to the creation and occupation of underground space It overturns the classic dictates of construction on the surface and through numerous examples explores recoveries of existing voids excavations caves quarries grottos and burrows The exploitation of land especially in areas of particular value has given rise to the need to reformulate the usual approach to building If the development of urban sprawl its infrastructure and its networks generates increasingly compromised landscapes what are the possible strategies to transform expand and change the usual relationship between abuse of soil and unused subsoil Psychological philosophical literary and cinematographic legacies of underground architecture are mixed with the compositional typological and constructive expedients to produce a rich diverse and compelling argument for these spaces As such the book will appeal to architecture students scholars and academics as well as those with an interest in literary theory cinema and cultural studies The Independent Agencies,2002 Book catalog of the Library and Information Services Division Environmental Science Information Center. Library and Information Services Division,1977 Charter Schools, Race, and Urban Space Kristen L. Buras,2014-07-17 Charter schools have been promoted as an equitable and innovative solution to the problems plaguing urban schools Advocates claim that charter schools benefit working class students of color by offering them access to a portfolio of school choices In Charter Schools Race and Urban Space Kristen Buras presents a very different account Her case study of New Orleans where veteran teachers were fired en masse and the nation s first all charter school district was developed shows that such reform is less about the needs of racially oppressed communities and more about the production of an urban space economy in which white entrepreneurs capitalize on black children and neighborhoods In this revealing book Buras draws on critical theories of race political economy and space as well as a decade of research on the ground to expose the criminal dispossession of black teachers and students who have contributed to New Orleans culture and history Mapping federal state and local policy networks she shows how the city s landscape has been reshaped by a strategic venture to privatize public education She likewise chronicles grassroots efforts to defend historic schools and neighborhoods against this assault revealing a commitment to equity and place and articulating a vision of change that is sure to inspire heated debate among communities nationwide Book Catalog of the Library and Information Services Division: Subject index Environmental Science Information Center. Library and Information Services Division,1977 Urban Imagination in Biblical Prophecy Mary E. Mills,2012-10-26 This volume brings together aspects of contemporary study of cultural geography and selected passages from prophetic texts of the Hebrew Bible Old Testament The aim is to identify how the image of the city helps to construct meaning inside the biblical material In order to carry out this task relevant textual narratives are analysed and then read from the viewpoint of space place and urban studies This latter category includes the works of Lefebvre Bachelard Soja Massey Amin and Thrift and Pile among others A major finding is that urban imagination is a tool by which the texts manage the experience of political and social events in a time of radical change Physical Geography Joseph A. Mason,Peter O. Muller,Harm J. De Blij,2016 H J de Blij is listed as the first author of the fourth edition Cities around the World Jing Luo,2019-07-10 This two volume set offers a comprehensive overview of major challenges faced by cities worldwide in the 21st century and how cities in different geographic economic and political conditions are finding solutions to them This two volume encyclopedia examines ten critical issues that face cities across the globe today environmental and societal struggles that affect the daily lives of city dwellers Readers will gain a better understanding of our global neighbors and will be able to use this book in order to compare and contrast different approaches to critical issues in our world Volume One examines employment and jobs energy and sustainability green spaces housing and infrastructure and migration and demographic changes Volume Two discusses pollution schools traffic and transportation violence corruption and organized crime and waste management Each issue begins with an introduction providing an overview of the issue from a global perspective Following the introduction are ten alphabetically arranged world city profiles of cities that are struggling with the issue and cities that have found innovative solutions to deal with the crisis The profiles explain how the problem came to be consequences inhabitants face such as compromised health limited access to education and high taxes with low wages and failed and successful initiatives taken by city management
