Space And Place The Perspective Of Experience:

Space and Place Yi-Fu Tuan, 1977 In the 25 years since its original publication Space and Place has not only established the discipline of human geography but it has proven influential in such diverse fields as theater literature anthropology psychology and theology Eminent geographer Yi Fu Tuan considers the ways in which people feel and think about space how they form attachments to home neighborhood and nation and how feelings about space and place are affected by the sense of time He suggests that place is security and space is freedom we are attached to the one and long for the other Whether he is considering sacred versus biased space mythical space and place time in experiential space or cultural attachments to space Tuan's analysis is thoughtful and insightful Space and Place, 2001 Re-Imagining Spaces and Places Stefano

Rozzoni, Beitske Boonstra, Teresa Cutler-Broyles, 2022-03-29 The contributors in this edited collection scrutinize the changing dynamics of space and place in relation to current political social and environmental urgencies across the globe The discussions provide a cohesive study for disclosing latent understandings of multiple phenomena characterizing the world in which we live The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music, Space and Place Geoff Stahl, J. Mark

Percival, 2022-01-13 Popular music scholars have long been interested in the connection between place and music This collection brings together a number of key scholars in order to introduce readers to concepts and theories used to explore the relationships between place and music An interdisciplinary volume drawing from sociology geography ethnomusicology media cultural and communication studies this book covers a wide range of topics germane to the production and consumption of place in popular music Through considerations of changes in technology and the mediascape that have shaped the experience of popular music vinyl iPods social media the role of social difference and how it shapes sociomusical encounters queer spaces gendered and racialised spaces as well as the construction and representations of place musical tourism city branding urban mythologies this is an up to the moment overview of central discussions about place and music The contributors explore a range of contexts moving from the studio to the stage the city to the suburb the bedroom to festival from nightclub to museum with each entry highlighting the diverse and complex ways in which music and place are mutually constitutive Real and Imaginary Spaces in Tom Stoppard's Plays Nevin Gürbüz-Blaich, 2025-06-02 This study benefits from the terminology of geocriticism a literary criticism that suggests an interdisciplinary approach to the exploration of literature in relation to space and place and refers to the spatial theories of Lefebvre Foucault Bakhtin Aug and Certeau as well as to Issacharoff's study of dramatic space Proposing a multidisciplinary perspective the book analyzes the mimetic and diegetic spaces in four of Tom Stoppard's plays Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead 1966 Travesties 1974 Arcadia 1993 and Indian Ink 1995 Stoppard's plays from the 1960s to the 2000s portray different spaces including urban spaces cities landscapes rooms and fictional sites thus serving as exceptional textual sources in spatial literary studies

Imagining Spaces and Places Saija Isomaa, Kirsi Saarikangas, 2014-07-18 Imagining Spaces and Places seeks to produce an interdisciplinary dialogue between art history and literature studies and other fields of cultural analysis that work with the concepts of space place and various scapes such as cityscapes bodyscapes mindscapes and memoryscapes as well as the more familiar landscapes The volume was inspired by new lines of study that underline the experiential and multidimensional aspects of spaces We explore how art literature or urban spaces forge scapes by imposing or suggesting aesthetic evaluative or ideological orderings and perceptual as well as emotive perspectives on the raw material or on previous ways of spatial worldmaking We look at the role of cultural and artistic renderings of space in relation to everyday experiences of spaces We examine how the experiences of places are mediated in various art forms and other cultural discourses or practices and how these discourses contribute to the understanding of particular places and also to understanding space in more general terms Imagining Spaces and Places is addressed to scholars and teachers working at the intersection of cultural and spatial analyses as well as to their undergraduate and postgraduate students A Study of

Place in Short Fiction by James Joyce, William Faulkner and Sherwood Anderson Abd Alkareem Atteh, 2021-04-15 This book sheds light on the modernist short story cycle and its pivotal role in representing and depicting place With an ever changing attitude towards place and what it means modernist writers found in the short story cycle a suitable form to depict this sense of change Drawing from a range of recent theories of the short story cycle and theories of place this book highlights in a comparative way the role of the emergent short story genre and its seminal role in grasping and capturing a fragmented world through the various short and interconnected narratives and narrative strategies a short story cycle can accommodate As such this text contributes to the study of the modernist short story cycle American literature Irish literature comparative literature and theories and studies of place Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research John

Literature and Culture Kate Gilhuly, Nancy Worman, 2014-09-22 This book brings together a collection of original essays that engage with cultural geography and landscape studies to produce new ways of understanding place space and landscape in Greek literature from the fifth and fourth centuries BCE The authors draw on an eclectic collection of contemporary approaches to bring the study of ancient Greek literature into dialogue with the burgeoning discussion of spatial theory in the humanities The essays in this volume treat a variety of textual spaces from the intimate to the expansive the bedroom ritual space the law courts theatrical space the poetics of the city and the landscape of war And yet all of the contributions are united by an interest in recuperating some of the many ways in which the ancient Greeks in the archaic and classical periods invested places with meaning and in how the representation of place links texts to social practices

Solarizing the Moon: Essays in honour of Lionel Sims Fabio Silva, Liz Henty, 2022-07-21 Lionel Sims has produced an influential body of work that has challenged existing narratives about British prehistoric monuments and provided innovative ways to approach and think about skylines This book in his honour is divided into three parts Anthropology and Human Origins Prehistory and Megalithic Monuments and Theory

Locating the Kingdom of God Karen J. Wenell, 2024-08-22 This book offers a new multidisciplinary way of thinking about the Kingdom of God which fully recognises its sociological and spatial significance in performing boundaries of the sacred Though spatial critical perspectives have been increasingly recognised as important across many disciplines the significance of non physical religious spaces and their correspondence to boundaries of the sacred has not been explored fully and never using the specific example of the Kingdom of God Wenell considers the diverse and sometimes contradictory articulation of the Kingdom in the gospels as well as the ways that Kingdom language frames contemporary ethical debates Her study of the Kingdom is located within the wider study of religion affording the opportunity to investigate connections between space belonging and the sacred Wenell structures her investigation in four key areas that engage with the Kingdom in different but theoretically interconnected ways She begins by setting out a theory of sacred space that is capable of including the Kingdom and establishing key concepts such as boundary performance physical non physical spatiality spokespersons and controversy Wenell then focuses on the synoptic gospels and the origins of the Kingdom noting aspects of uncertainty as well as areas of agreement and controversy over boundaries of the sacred in these uniquely interrelated texts The third and fourth areas of investigation move into cultural reception considering instances where the Kingdom is formative for identity and ethical relationships both in individual and wider group belonging terms Specific reference is made to issues of ethical consuming and displacement placing the Kingdom in dialogue with Bauman's discussion of a society of consumers and Arendt's notion of equitable co habitation of the earth

The Spatiotemporal Eschatology of Hebrews Luke Woo, 2024-07-11 There are two coexisting realities classified under New Testament eschatology the temporal and spatial While much scholarly attention has focused on the temporal Luke Woo argues that the spatial aspect is either neglected or relegated to Platonic or cosmological categories Woo thus seeks to provide a holistic understanding by investigating these realities for believers under the heavenly tabernacle motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews Woo posits that the author of Hebrews presents the heavenly tabernacle and all its high priestly activity in order to eschatologically situate orient and ground believers thus enabling believers to actualize their heavenly priestly identity by serving as priests on earth Woo uses Edward Soja's Tripartite Critical Spatiality to analyze the heavenly tabernacle's Firstspace Secondspace and

Thirdspace features found in Hebrews 4 14 8 1 5 9 1 14 He suggests that Christ in his resurrection and ascension enters an actualized heavenly tabernacle which allows believers to spiritually occupy that sanctuary space in the presence of God establishing a spatial orientation for believers who can identify as heavenly priests and be motivated to serve as such as they live on earth

Space, Place and Territory Fabio Duarte, 2017-01-12 Space place and territory are concepts that lie at the core of geography and urban planning environmental studies and sociology Although space place and territory are indeed polysemic and polemic they have particular characteristics that distinguish them from each other They are interdependent but not interchangeable and the differences between them explain how we simultaneously perceive conceive and design multiple spatialities After drawing the conceptual framework of space place and territory the book initially explores how we sense space in the most visceral ways and how the overlay of meanings attached to the sensorial characteristics of space change the way we perceive it smell spatial experiences using electroencephalography and the changing meaning of darkness are discussed The book continues exploring cartographic mapping not as a final outcome but rather as an epistemological tool an instrument of inquiry It follows on how particular ideas of space place and territory are embedded in specific urban proposals from Brasília to the Berlin Wall airports and infiltration of digital technologies in our daily life The book concludes by focusing on spatial practices that challenge the status quo of how we perceive and understand urban spaces from famous artists to anonymous interventions by traceurs and hackers of urban technologies Combining space place and territory as distinctive but interdependent concepts into an epistemological matrix may help us to understand contemporary phenomena and live them critically

Critical Spatiality in Genesis 1-11 Zhenshuai Jiang, 2018-09-10 Space in the Hebrew Bible is increasingly studied from the perspective of critical spatiality emphasizing the social and cultural dimension of space how people experience space and their creativity in constructing space Zhenshuai Jiang investigates the discourses on space in Gen 1 11 and discusses the connection between social space and spatial narrative He deals with various questions in different spatial terms with a detailed textual analysis of Gen 1 11 How is space constructed in Gen 1 11 To what extent and how is this construction influenced by social and cultural elements The author describes specifically how space in Gen 1 11 is constructed rhetorically taking into account historical and social circumstances in which the texts were written Spaces of Interaction, Places for Experience David Benyon, 2022-06-01 Spaces of Interaction Places for Experience is a book about Human Computer Interaction HCI interaction design ID and user experience UX in the age of ubiquitous computing The book explores interaction and experience through the different spaces that contribute to interaction until it arrives at an understanding of the rich and complex places for experience that will be the focus of the next period for interaction design The book begins by looking at the multilayered nature of interaction and UX not just with new technologies but with technologies that are embedded in the world People inhabit a medium or rather many media which allow them to extend themselves physically mentally and emotionally in many directions The medium that people inhabit includes physical and semiotic material that combine to create user experiences People feel more or less present in these media and more or less engaged with the content of the media From this understanding of people in media the book explores some philosophical and practical issues about designing interactions The book journeys through the design of physical space digital space information space conceptual space and social space It explores concepts of space and place digital ecologies information architecture conceptual blending and technology spaces at work and in the home It discusses navigation of spaces and how people explore and find their way through environments Finally the book arrives at the concept of a blended space where the physical and digital are tightly interwoven and people experience the blended space as a whole The design of blended spaces needs to be driven by an understanding of the correspondences between the physical and the digital by an understanding of conceptual blending and by the desire to design at a human scale There is no doubt that HCI and ID are changing The design of microinteractions remains important but there is a bigger picture to consider UX is spread across devices over time and across physical spaces The commingling of the physical and the digital in blended spaces leads to new social spaces and new conceptual spaces UX concerns the navigation of these spaces as much as it concerns the design of buttons and screens for apps By taking a spatial perspective on interaction the book provides new insights into the evolving nature of interaction design Mediated Identities in the Futures of Place: Emerging Practices and Spatial Cultures Lakshmi Priya Rajendran, NezHapi Dellé Odeleye, 2020-01-02 This book examines the emerging problems and opportunities that are posed by media innovations spatial typologies and cultural trends in re shaping identities within the fast changing milieus of the early 21st Century Addressing a range of social and spatial scales and using a phenomenological frame of reference the book draws on the works of Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Don Hide to bridge the seemingly disparate yet related theoretical perspectives across a number of disciplines Various perspectives are put forward from media human geography cultural studies technologies urban design and architecture etc and looked at thematically from networked culture and digital interface and other perspectives The book probes the ways in which new digital media trends affect how and what we communicate and how they drive and reshape our everyday practices This mediatization of space with fast evolving communication platforms and applications of digital representations offers challenges to our notions of space identity and culture and the book explores the diverse yet connected levels of technology and people interaction
