infrastructures bodies and materialities The book utilizes urban viewpoints in order to highlight the nature of sovereignty in Lebanon and how it is inscribed on the urban landscape War and the City presents a view of geopolitics as not only shaping narratives of international relations but as crucially reshaping the space of cities Contested Spaces in Contemporary Turkey Fatma Müge Göçek, 2017-06-30 The most significant political development of the post Cold War era was arguably the diffusion of neoliberalism across the globe Yet behind the illusion of abundance and development the rule of the market can be violent and destructive exploiting the environment dismissing cultural or historical conservation and ignoring individual rights This book now examines the emergence and consequences of neoliberalism in Turkey Of particular importance to the study are the contested spaces those sites of struggle and protest where the impact of this economic system is challenged or negotiated The contributors look beyond the neoliberal cities of the West Istanbul and Ankara to take into account the rest of the country and the groups that are most negatively affected such as the Kurds women and migrants Chapters consider the complexity of neoliberalism in Turkey where the power of the market the agenda of the state and significantly the country's past are shown to have shaped current economic practices and policies Contested Spaces in Contemporary Turkey sheds new light on the societal processes that are re shaping modern Turkey a subject which is of increasing importance considering Erdogan's new model for an Islam based state and in the aftermath of the July 2016 military coup attempt It is at the cutting edge of research on urban history and social space and will be a significant resource for scholars of Turkish Studies and Kurdish Studies The Notion of Space within Diverse Fields of Cognizance Driss Bouyahya, 2021-07-28 This volume provides a multifaceted approach to how meanings of space are created and how they impact individuals' perceptions sense of belonging identity actions and ideologies It brings together various contributions that shed light on the multiplicity of voices and narratives on space on their co existence and forms of interactions and on the ways in which they emerged from and reshaped relations of power An Introduction to the Geopolitics of Conflict, Nationalism, and Reconciliation in Ireland Kara E. Dempsey, 2022-07-29 This book examines ethnoterritorial conflict and reconciliation in Ireland from the 1916 Rising to Brexit 2021 including the production and consequences of the island's two distinct political units Highlighting key geographic themes of bordering unity division and national narratives it explores how geopolitical space has been employed over time to re define divided national allegiances throughout Ireland and within Irish British relations The analysis draws from in depth interviews and archival research and spans supranational state municipal neighborhood and individual scales The book pays particular attention to uneven power structures statecraft perceived truths lived experiences reconciliation efforts and renegotiations of national narratives in the production of symbolic landscapes divided cities and shared space An Introduction to the Geopolitics of Conflict Nationalism and Reconciliation in Ireland provides readers with an analysis of geopolitical power relations and different spatial productions of conflict and peacebuilding in Ireland Offering deeper understanding of these historic and contemporary geopolitical intersections this book makes a valuable contribution to the fields of Political Geography Border Studies Irish Studies European Studies International Relations Cultural Geography and Regional Studies      Reports and Documents United States. Congress,      Introduction to Housing Katrin B.

Anacker, Andrew T. Carswell, Sarah D. Kirby, Kenneth R. Tremblay, 2018-06-01 This foundational text for understanding housing housing design homeownership housing policy special topics in housing and housing in a global context has been comprehensively revised to reflect the changed housing situation in the United States during and after the Great Recession and its subsequent movements toward recovery The book focuses on the complexities of housing and housing related issues engendering an understanding of housing its relationship to national economic factors and housing policies It comprises individual chapters written by housing experts who have specialization within the discipline or field offering commentary on the physical social psychological economic and policy issues that affect the current housing landscape in the United States and abroad while proposing solutions to its challenges      The Rebirth of Territory Gail Lythgoe, 2024-03-14 The concept of territory is central in international law but a detailed analysis of how the concept is used in both discourse and practice has been lacking until now Rather than reproducing the established understanding of territoriality within the international legal order this study suggests that the discipline of international law relies on an outmoded spatial paradigm Gail Lythgoe argues for a complete update and overhaul of our understanding of territory and space to engage more effectively with key processes structures and actors relevant to contemporary global governance In this new theoretical account of an essential aspect of public international law she argues that territory is a dynamic social reality created by the exercise of power Territories are constituted by the practices of a more diverse array of actors than is acknowledged As a result functions are re assembling in territories constituted by state and non state actors alike      Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht Classen, 2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field The handbook consists of four parts The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together      Monthly Catalog of United States

Government Publications , 1984-05      Space and Spatialization in Contemporary Music: History and Analysis, Ideas and Implementations Maria Anna Harley, 2016-06-08 This dissertation presents the history of space in the musical thought of the 20th century from Kurth to Clifton from Varese to Xenakis and outlines the development of spatialization in the theory and practice of contemporary music after 1950 The text emphasizes perceptual and temporal aspects of musical spatiality thus reflecting the close connection of space and time in human experience A new definition of spatialization draws from Ingarden's notion of the musical work a typology of spatial designs embraces music for different acoustic environments movements of performers and audiences various positions of musicians in space etc The study of spatialization includes a survey of the composers's writings Ives Boulez Stockhausen Cage etc and an examination of their works The final part presents three unique approaches to spatialization Brant's simultaneity of sound layers Xenakis's movement of sound and Schafer's music of ritual and soundscape
