Space and Irish Lesbian Fiction Amy Jeffrey, 2022-06-15 Space and Irish Lesbian Fiction offers an original and much needed study of Irish Lesbian fiction Evaluating a wide body of Irish lesbian fiction ranging from the Victorian era to the contemporary age this book advocates for women writers who have been largely ignored in Irish literary history and criticism This volume examines the use and applications of space in Irish lesbian fiction In recent years it can be argued that Irish society has created a new space for LGBT or queer people The concept of space is thus important both symbolically and physically for lesbian literature In asking if Irish women writers have moved out of the shadows so to speak what space is open to the Irish lesbian author How is spatiality reflected in lesbian representation throughout Irish literary history Space and Irish Lesbian Fiction examines a diverse range of writers from the nineteenth century to the contemporary age evaluating the contributions of largely unknown authors who have been overlooked alongside more established voices within Irish literature The concept of liminality that this volume takes as its theme and focus engage with notions of intersectionality thresholds crossings and transitions In suggesting the overlap between the indeterminate threshold of the liminal space and its ambiguously queer potentiality to examine the dynamics of space and its relationship to lesbianism this ground breaking project both locates and charts spaces of queer liminality in Irish lesbian fiction
