Spaces Of Masculinities:

Spaces of Masculinities Kathrin Hörschelmann, Bettina van Hoven, 2013-03-07 Changing circumstances in Western and global societies have introduced new constraints and opportunities for men and the formation of male identities Meanwhile the emerging diversity of atypical identities atypical when compared with traditional conceptions of middle class white heterosexual men poses new challenges for the production and use of spaces Spaces of Masculinities provides a comprehensive introduction to the innovative and diverse research on spaces of masculinity Drawing on a variety of geographical research projects the central concern of the book is to highlight the significance of research on masculinity in sociological and geographical work dealing with constructions of gender Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies Lucas Gottzén, Ulf Mellström, Tamara Shefer, 2019-11-20 The Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies provides a contemporary critical and scholarly overview of theorizing and research on masculinities as well as emerging ideas and areas of study that are likely to shape research and understanding of gender and men in the future The forty eight chapters of the handbook take an interdisciplinary approach to a range of topics on men and masculinities related to identity sex sexuality culture aesthetics technology and pressing social issues The handbook's transnational lens acknowledges both the localities and global character of masculinity A clear message in the book is the need for intersectional theorizing in dialogue with feminist queer and sexuality studies in making sense of men and masculinities Written in a clear and direct style the handbook will appeal to students teachers and researchers in the social sciences and humanities as well as professionals practitioners and activists Constructing Sexualities and Gendered Bodies in School Spaces Jón Ingvar Kjarnar, 2017-02-20 This book sheds light on how sexuality and gender intersect in producing heteronormativity within the school system in Iceland In spite of recent support for progressive policies regarding sexual and gender equality in the country there remains a discrepancy between policy and practice with respect to LGBTQ rights and attitudes within the school system This book draws on ethnographic data and interviews with LGBTQ students in high schools across the country and reveals that although Nordic countries are sometimes portrayed as queer utopias the school system in Iceland has a long road ahead in making schools more inclusive for all students Feminist Spaces Ann Oberhauser, Jennifer Fluri, Risa Whitson, Sharlene Mollett, 2017-09-27 Feminist Spaces introduces students and academic researchers to major themes and empirical studies in feminist geography It examines new areas of feminist research including embodiment sexuality masculinity intersectional analysis and environment and development In addition to considering gender as a primary subject this book provides a comprehensive overview of feminist geography by highlighting contemporary research conducted from a feminist framework which goes beyond the theme of gender to include issues such as social justice activism disability and critical pedagogy Through case studies this book challenges the construction of dichotomies that tend to oversimplify categories such as developed and developing urban and rural and the Global North and

South without accounting for the fluid and intersecting aspects of gender space and place The chapters weave theoretical and empirical material together to meet the needs of students new to feminism as well as those with a feminist background but new to geography through attention to basic geographical concepts in the opening chapter The text encourages readers to think of feminist geography as addressing not only gender but a set of methodological and theoretical perspectives applied to a range of topics and issues A number of interactive exercises activities and boxes or case studies illustrate concepts and supplement the text These prompts encourage students to explore and analyze their own positionality as well as motivate them to change and impact their surroundings Feminist Spaces emphasizes activism and critical engagement with diverse communities to recognize this tradition in the field of feminism as well as within the discipline of geography Combining theory and practice as a central theme this text will serve graduate level students as an introduction to the field of feminist geography and will be of interest to students in related fields such as environmental studies development and women s and gender studies

Boys, Bodies, and Physical Education Göran Gerdin, 2017-01-12 Using visual ethnography this book explores the many forms of pleasures that boys derive in and through the spaces and their bodies in physical education Employing the works of Michel Foucault and Judith Butler Gerdin examines how pleasure is connected to identity schooling and power relations and demonstrates how discourses of sport fitness health and masculinity work together to produce a variety of pleasurable experiences At the same time the book provides a critique of such pleasurable experiences within physical education by illustrating how these pleasures can still for some boys quickly turn into displeasures and can be associated with exclusion humiliation bullying and homophobia Boys Bodies and Physical Education argues that pleasure can both be seen as an educational and productive practice in physical education but also a constraint that both engenders and privileges some boys over others as well as re producing narrow and limited conceptions of masculinity and pleasures for all boys This book works to problematize these pleasures and their articulations with gender bodies and spaces

Handbook of the Geographies of Religion Lily Kong, Orlando Woods, Justin K.H. Tse, 2024-12-02 This international and interdisciplinary handbook offers a comprehensive and an in depth overview of contemporary research theory and practice in the geographies of religion in various parts of the world and with different populations The book showcases the major theoretical interventions in the field and the debates about the existential constitution of sacred space and what this means for secularization It outlines the most significant geographical themes related to these new developments with their implications for how to think about landscapes space bodies and worlds The book also discusses the future of the field especially in the realms of encounters and ethics economies and markets institutions and organisations movements and migrations and media and mediums It also offers views from disciplines outside of geography including from sociology anthropology religious studies and media and communications which demonstrates the contributions of geographers of religion to wider intellectual conversations and debates

Male Survivors of Wartime Sexual Violence Philipp

Schulz,2020-11-24 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Although wartime sexual violence against men occurs more frequently than is commonly assumed its dynamics are remarkably underexplored and male survivors experiences remain particularly overlooked This reality is poignant in northern Uganda where sexual violence against men during the early stages of the conflict was geographically widespread yet now accounts of those incidents are not just silenced and neglected locally but also widely absent from analyses of the war Based on rare empirical data this book seeks to remedy this marginalization and to illuminate the seldom heard voices of male sexual violence survivors in northern Uganda bringing to light their experiences of gendered harms agency and justice Café

Society A. Tjora,G. Scambler,2013-11-07 While tracing the historical emergence of the caf as a social institution and noting its multiple faces and functions in the modernity of the occident three themes run like threads of varying texture through the chapters the social connectivity and inclusion of caf s caf as surrogate office and caf as site of exchange for news and views

Gender, Space and City Bankers Helen Longlands,2019-07-26 Gendered processes of globalisation transnationalisation and urbanisation are increasing local and global inequalities and widening the gap between the rich and the poor The global finance industry plays a key role in these processes directing its operations from local command points in global cities such as London Drawing on empirical data collected after the 2008 financial crisis in depth interviews with male City of London bankers who are also fathers in depth interviews with the bankers wives observational data of work and family spaces and banks promotional online material this book explores the day to day individual and institutional social practices of wealthy City bankers and banks The book s analysis offers insight into how the spaces of work and home are integrally linked in ways that mutually shape support and sustain the gendered dominance of the industry and its highly paid workers This book will appeal to postgraduate students researchers and academics interested in the fields of gender studies critical studies of men and masculinities urban and metropolitan studies sociology studies of globalisation and transnationalisation anthropology cultural studies and business management It will also be interesting for those concerned about the role of the finance industry and neoliberal capitalist ideologies values and practices in ever widening local and global inequalities The

Cultural Politics of Lifestyle Sports Belinda Wheaton,2013-07-23 Drawing on a series of in depth empirical case studies this book offers a re evaluation of theoretical frameworks with which lifestyle sports have been understood and focuses on aspects of their cultural politics that have received little attention particularly the racialization of lifestyle sporting spaces Casting new light on the significance of sport and sporting subcultures within contemporary society this book is essential reading for students or researcher working in the sociology of sport leisure studies or cultural studies The Palgrave

Abelson, 2019-03-19 Daring new theories of masculinity built from a large and geographically diverse interview study of transgender men American masculinity is being critiqued questioned and reinterpreted for a new era In Men in Place Miriam J Abelson makes an original contribution to this conversation through in depth interviews with trans men in the U S West Southeast and Midwest showing how the places and spaces men inhabit are fundamental to their experiences of race sexuality and gender Men in Place explores the shifting meanings of being a man across cities and in rural areas Here Abelson develops the insight that individual men do not have one way to be masculine rather their ways of being men shift between different spaces and places She reveals a widespread version of masculinity that might be summed up as strong when I need to be soft when I need to be using the experiences of trans men to highlight the fundamental construction of manhood for all men With an eye to how societal institutions promote homophobia transphobia and racism Men in Place argues that race and sexuality fundamentally shape safety for men particularly in rural spaces and helps us to better understand the ways that gender is created and enforced      Lady Astronauts, Lady Engineers, and Naked Ladies Karin Hilck, 2019-07-08 The book Lady Astronauts Lady Engineers and Naked Ladies is a gender history of the American space community and by extension a social history of American society in the twentieth century during the Cold War In order to expand and differentiate the prevalent postwar narrative about gender relations and cultural structures in the United States the book analyzes several different groups of women interacting in different social spaces within the space community. It therewith grants insight into the several layers of female participation and agency in the community and the gender and race based obstacles and hurdles the female prospective astronauts, scientists, engineers, artists, administrators, writers, hostesses, secretaries, and wives were faced with at NASA and in the space industry. In each chapter a different social space within the space community is analyzed. The spaces where the women lived and worked are researched from a media, individual, and institutional angle, ultimately revealing the differing gender philosophies communicated in the public sphere and the space community workplaces by government and space community officials. While women were publicly encouraged to participate in the American space effort to beat the Soviet Union in the race to the moon, women had to deal with gender based barriers which were integral to the structures of the space community just as they were an intrinsic component of all societal structures in the United States in the 1960s. The female space workers who were often perceived as disrupters of the prevalent social order in the space community and discriminated by some of their male colleagues and bosses on a personal basis still managed to assert themselves. They molded pockets of agency in the space community workspaces without the facilitation of regulations on the part of NASA that might have provided them with easier access or more agency. Thus the space community, a place of technological innovation, was not necessarily also a place of social innovation but a community with a government agency at its center that mainly mirrored the current changing social order, conventions, and policies in the 1960s as well as in the 1970s and 1980s. Nevertheless, the women presented in this book were instrumental in advancing and consolidating the social transformation that happened within the space community and the United States and therefore make intriguing subjects of research. Thus this systematic analysis of the connection between gender, space, and the Cold War adds a new dimension to space history as well as expands the discourse in American history about gender relations and the opportunities of women in the twentieth century.

The Cultural Geography Reader Timothy Oakes, Patricia L. Price, 2008-03-03

The Cultural Geography Reader draws together fifty-two classic and contemporary abridged readings that represent the scope of the discipline and its key concepts. Readings have been selected based on their originality, accessibility, and empirical focus, allowing students to grasp the conceptual and theoretical tools of cultural geography through the grounded research of leading scholars in the field. Each of the eight sections begins with an introduction that discusses the key concepts, its history, and relation to cultural geography and connections to other disciplines and practices. Six to seven abridged book chapters and journal articles, each with their own focused introductions, are also included in each section. The readability, broad scope, and coverage of both classic and contemporary pieces from the US and UK makes The Cultural Geography Reader relevant and accessible for a broad audience of undergraduate students and graduate students alike. It bridges the different national traditions in the US and UK as well as introducing the span of classic and contemporary cultural geography. In doing so, it provides the instructor and student with a versatile yet enduring benchmark text.
