transmission to future generations while engaging new audiences today Structured in four thematic parts Preservation and Digitisation Data Structuring and Connectivity Promotion and Showcasing and Community Engagement it captures the diversity of approaches and shared ambitions in the cultural heritage sector A timely and practical resource for professionals and academics alike this volume sheds light on the dynamic intersection of heritage preservation digital innovation and public engagement

Shards of Love María Rosa Menocal,1994 With the Spanish conquest of Islamic Granada and the expulsion of the Jews from Spain the year 1492 marks the exile from Europe of crucial strands of medieval culture It also becomes a symbolic marker for the expulsion of a diversity in language and grammar that was disturbing to the Renaissance sensibility of purity and stability In rewriting Columbus s narrative of his voyage of that year Renaissance historians rewrote history as was often their practice to purge it of an offending vulgarity The cultural fragments left behind following this exile form the core of Shards of Love as Mar a Rosa Menocal confronts the difficulty of writing their history It is in exile that Menocal locates the founding conditions for philology as a discipline that loves origins and for the genre of love songs that philology reveres She crosses the boundaries both temporal and geographical of 1492 to recover the original medieval culture with its Mediterranean mix of European Arabic and Hebrew poetics The result is a form of literary history more lyrical than narrative and Menocal persuasively demonstrates more appropriate to the Middle Ages than to the revisionary legacy of the Renaissance In discussions ranging from Eric Clapton s adaption of Nizami s Layla and Majnun to the uncanny ties between Jim Morrison and Petrarch Shards of Love deepens our sense of how the Middle Ages is tied to our own age as it expands the history and meaning of what we call Romance philology

American Heritage History of the Indian Wars Robert M. Utley,Wilcomb E. Washburn,2015-09-02 Here from American Heritage is the dramatic story of the violent conflicts between Native Americans and white settlers that lasted more than 300 years the effects of which still resonate today Acclaimed historians Robert M Utley and Wilcomb E Washburn examine both small battles and major wars from the Native rebellion of 1492 to Crazy Horse and the Sioux War to the massacre at Wounded Knee

In the Doorway of All Worlds Robin M Bower,2024-05-01 The thirteenth century poet Gonzalo de Berceo is the first named author of Old Spanish letters and the most prolific contributor to the emergence of the body of learned vernacular verse known as the mester de clerec a In the Doorway of All Worlds focuses on the four hagiographies Berceo produced as a unified body of poetic expression and world building Robin M Bower traces the poet s intricate juxtaposition of contraries to shed light on a poetic world that will innovate a deceptively simple poetic vernacular and elevate its capacity to express nuance power and mystery The book examines the entanglements that bind formal and lexical choices the inscription of performance sites and audiences and problematic source authority It argues that Berceo s elaboration of a poetic vernacular was wholly enmeshed in the immediate human experiential world and the diverse cultural religious linguistic and literary contexts that framed it The book also highlights how Berceo invented a literary vernacular that befits the spoken idiom not only for the crafting of learned fictions but for giving linguistic shape to the ineffable In the Doorway of All Worlds ultimately reveals how Berceo freed the meanings trapped in relics shrines and the impenetrable texts from which he translated the saints to circulate in a new time
