Dartnell,2006-01-01 In Insurgency Online Michael Dartnell focuses on a new form of conflict made possible by global communications The Internet Dartnell argues is affecting extensive changes to the way politics are carried out by inserting a range of non state actors onto the global political stage He demonstrates that Web activism raises issues about the organization of societies and the distribution of power and contends that the development of online activism has far reaching social and political implications with parallels to the influence of the invention of the printing press the telegraph and the radio Dartnell concentrates on Web activists who use the Net as a media tool distinguishing this use from information terrorism which threatens or harasses through hacking or electronic sabotage Using the examples of the Revolutionary

Association of the Women of Afghanistan RAWA which opposed the Taliban the Peruvian Movimiento Revolucionario Tupac

Amaru MRTA and its campaign against the Fujimori government and the Irish Republican Socialist Movement IRSM Dartnell evaluates the political implications and general character of Web activism among non state actors Insurgency Online shows that online activism is a ripe new territory for non governmental actors to raise awareness and develop support around the
