Small Science:
Baracktrema Obamai And Other Stories Of A Life In Parasitology & Higher Education Thomas Reid Platt, 2021-06-10 Long thin and cool as hell was how parasitologist Thomas Platt described the new genus and species of trematode Baracktrema obamai he named in honor of the 44th USA president and his 5th cousin Barack Obama The story of Baracktrema was picked up by over 200 news outlets worldwide providing a fitting swansong to an illustrious career revisited in this part personal and part scientific memoir Platt's road to success was not initially smooth. Faced with a brutal tenure rejection at the start of his career, he was told that "You are not the type of person we want to invest in for the next 30 years." After a brief stint in the business world, Platt bounced back in spectacular fashion by embarking on a successful 28-year career at Saint Mary's College in South Bend, Indiana. He traveled extensively in search of new species of parasitic worms from neighboring Costa Rica to the far-flung reaches of Australia and Malaysia. His love of turtles and their parasites led to the discovery of 30 new species, 11 new genera, and international recognition. He provides perspectives on the places and people encountered along the way, details of interactions with wildlife, as well as interesting and accessible insights into parasite behavior in the external environment and with their hosts. SMALL SCIENCE is an inspiring story of an unexceptional high school student's path through college, graduate school, the academy, and a successful research career in small science: the science of parasites and the science of work accomplished in the margins, in the time carved out from a heavy teaching load, committee assignments, and mentoring dedicated undergraduate women in the joy of scientific discovery. Cat Came Back and Other Stories Doug Downie, 2011-08-29 A collection of short short stories and a novella about everyday life and the search for meaning. Influences are Charles Bukowski, John Fante, Knut Hamsun, Louis Ferdinand Celine, Ernest Hemingway.

Sleepy Hollow and Other Stories Washington Irving, 2015-10-01 There is a sequestered glen off the east coast of the Hudson, New York state, which has long continued under the sway of some witching power. The neighbourhood abounds with tales, haunted spots, and twilight superstitions. But as hapless schoolmaster Ichabod Crane will discover, the wildest of all stories in this region of shadows relate to one particularly dreadful spectre: the Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow. Washington Irving's comic horror story is the best known of this collection of stories, observations, and sketches written on his travels around Britain and America in the eighteenth century. Also includes Rip Van Winkle and Little Britain. Billy Budd & Other Stories Herman Melville, 1998 Stung by the critical reception and lack of commercial success of his previous two works Moby Dick and Pierre, Herman Melville became obsessed with the difficulties of communicating his vision to readers. His sense of isolation lies at the heart of these later works. Billy Budd, sailor, a classic confrontation between good and evil, is the story of an innocent young man unable to defend himself against a wrongful accusation. The other selections here: Bartleby, The Encantadas, Benito Cereno, and The Piazza, also illuminate in varying guises the way fictions are created and shared with a wider society. In his introduction, Frederick Busch discusses Melville's preoccupation with his correspondence with the world, his quarrel with silence, and why fiction was for Melville a matter of life and death. Book jacket. The Wild Body. A Soldier of Humour and Other Stories Wyndham Lewis, 2022-08-01 Wyndham Lewis's The Wild Body: A Soldier of Humour and Other Stories is a profound exploration of the absurdities of modern existence, rendered through his distinctive blend of sharp wit and incisive social commentary. This collection showcases Lewis's masterful command of literary language, characterized by a modernist sensibility that interrogates the complexities of identity and the human condition in the
