The Plague Court Murders John Dickson Carr, 2021-02-02 When a spiritual medium is murdered in a locked hut on a haunted estate Sir Henry Merrivale seeks a logical solution to a ghostly crime Plague Court is old and crumbling long neglected after its lord hangman s assistant Louis Playge fell victim to the black death hundreds of years before Famously haunted by Playge s ghost the property finally has a new owner and banishing the spirit is the first order of business And when the medium employed with this task is found stabbed to death in a locked stone hut on the grounds surrounded by an untouched circle of mud the other guests at Plague Court have every reason to fear an act of supernatural violence for who among them would be diabolical and calculating enough to orchestrate such an impossible execution Enter Sir Henry Merrivale an amateur sleuth of many talents with deductive powers strong enough to unspool even the most baffling crimes But in the creepy atmospheric setting of Plague Court where every indication suggests intervention from the afterlife he encounters a seemingly illogical murder scene unlike anything he s ever encountered before Reissued for the first time in years The Plague Court Murders is the first novel in the Sir Henry Merrivale series Originally published under the name Carter Dickson it is a masterful example of the impossible crime novel for which John Dickson Carr is known Very few detective stories baffle me nowadays but Mr Carr s always do Agatha Christie Murder Most Murderous Howard of Warwick,2021-11-24 From Best Selling Howard of Warwick stumbles yet more medieval mystery that doesn t know when to stop Warning If you like your medieval detectives sombre and serious this is not the place for you It is Murder Most Murderous Aha on page 1 This can t be right When Brother Hermitage starts the latest investigation by working out who did it you know that things are bound to be going wrong by page 2 nothing in Hermitage s life is that easy And surely William the Conqueror hasn t dragged Hermitage Wat the Weaver and Cwen across the country just to idle away the passing moments There s a dead Norman noble to be considered and quickly because William hasn t got all day But what Hugues d Auffay owner of the body in question was up to is a mystery in its own right His father behaved strangely enough he fought in the battle near Hastings conquered the country and then went home again Why would any self respecting Norman conqueror do that Hugues himself had plans but no one is talking Perhaps the servants can be persuaded to spill the turnips But they ve got their own world to organise entirely to their advantage and so will need some persuasion The Saxon servants are keeping a dark secret in a locked trunk one that the Normans are very keen to get their hands on Is there a bargain to be made Is the curse on the d Auffay family to be believed Can Brother Hermitage really use questionable methods to get information And why do people keep dying All of life is here tapestries that dare not show their faces a curse from an old wise ish woman a physick who is surprised at the number of dead bodies one investigation can produce Read the 23rd Chronicle of Brother Hermitage and you ll wonder why the King s Investigator still hasn t got the hang of it Chronicle No 22 garnered comment aplenty 5 Outright Laughter 5 Laughed till my sides ached The Funny Book Company cannot accept responsibility for injured sides 5 If you re into history crime thrillers or humour this is the series for you 5 What fun Murder in the Moat Veronica Parsons,2012 Alwyston is a quaint and picturesque village in southern England It is away from the main thoroughfares and is accessed by one road that leads into and out of the town This is a narrow road lined with hedgerows and dry stone walls behind which lie ordered gardens stone cottages and gentle fields The local landscape also hides a rich archaeology The expectation of uncovering something of historical value brings many hopeful amateur archaeologists to the village each year A number of these are aging retired or semi retired and spend half the year in Alwyston and half the year in their native

Australia As well as its archaeological attractions Alwyton holds the dubious record for having the highest murder rate in the country Conveniently for some these murders only occur in the warmer months the summer murdering season as the villagers say Accompanied by the requisite constabulary and an assortment of local identities the part time denizens of the village and their friends have solved both archaeological and homicidal mysteries in the past They fully and enthusiastically intend to do so again in spite of their advancing years and other impediments Madgery Ashfield a retired psychologist from Australia arrives in Alwyton in early spring to find her close friend Winnie already ensconced in the village Winnie is staying in the local pub owned by Madgery's good friend Cedric Drury She is there for the summer to explore her ancestry in the area As well as owning the pub Cedric has been an art importer exporter and an employee of the FBI Because of this experience detectives from Scotland Yard and Interpol often rely on him to help them to solve the seasonal murders On the evening of her arrival Madgery is surprised to hear from Cedric and Montegrew Plum the local doctor that the first murder of the summer has occurred just that morning A young man has been brutally slain in the dried moat of a nearby ruined Norman castle The circumstances of the murder intrigue the police and university archaeologists headed by Professor Charles Upton because the body lies over the exposed skeleton of a Saxon woman Subsequently with the help of Cedric Madgery and their friends they discover that the murder is associated with the recovery of jewels and other valuable artefacts from the moat This provides sufficient motive for the crime and a possible means of tracing the perpetrator However on the eve of the arrival of another friend from Australia the intrepid Oliver Stillov Cedric's housekeeper Doris is murdered in his newly restored Georgian mansion Doris had interrupted someone removing plaster from the walls of Cedric's library This murder is deeply felt by the villagers who attend Doris funeral conducted by Bartholemew Pettigrew the vicar Monte who undertakes autopsies of Doris and the young man in the moat is also treating a number of tourists to Alwyton who have been poisoned by eating sweets purchased in the village The poison was introduced to the sweets through honey provided by Cedric who keeps hives in the field behind his pub Two of the sick tourists succumb to the poison It becomes more complicated when another but antipathetic refugee from Australia Helga van Reich stalks the friends Darren Thompson her friend often accompanies her Helga has chosen a grotesque disguise to achieve her objectives and has settled in an unsavoury guesthouse just outside Alwyton run by the obsequious Steven Swineton A famous television team of archaeologists with the help of the friends and local university academics exposes the archaeology in the moat This requires some division of time for Cedric Oliver Madgery and their friends between solving the murders and undertaking the archaeological work Fortunately Detective Inspector Bill Strangman arrives from New Scotland Yard

Town Journal ,1922 An End To Murder Colin Wilson,Damon Wilson,2015-09-24 Creatively and intellectually there is no other species that has ever come close to equalling humanity s achievements but nor is any other species as suicidally prone to internecine conflict We are the only species on the planet whose ingrained habit of conflict constitutes the chief threat to our own survival Human history can be seen as a catalogue of cold hearted murders mindless blood feuds appalling massacres and devastating wars but with developments in forensic science and modern psychology and with raised education levels throughout the world might it soon be possible to reign in humanity s homicidal habits Falling violent crime statistics in every part of the world seem to indicate that something along those lines might indeed be happening Colin and Damon Wilson who between them have been covering the field of criminology for over fifty years offer an analysis of the overall spectrum of human violence They consider whether human beings are in reality as cruel and violent as is generally believed and they explore the possibility that humankind is on the verge of a fundamental change that we are about to become truly civilised As well as offering an overview of violence throughout our history from the first hominids to the twenty first century touching on key moments of change and also indicating where things have not changed since the Stone Age they explore the latest psychological forensic and social attempts to understand and curb modern human violence To begin with they examine questions such as Were the first humans cannibalistic Did the birth of civilisation also lead to the invention of war and slavery

Priests and kings brought social stability but were they also the instigators of the first mass murders Is it in fact wealth that is the ultimate weapon They look at slavery and ancient Roman sadism but also the possibility that our own distaste for pain and cruelty is no more than a social construct They show how the humanitarian ideas of the great religious innovators all too quickly became distorted by organised religious structures The book ranges widely from fifteenth century Baron Gilles de Rais Bluebeard the first known and possibly most prolific serial killer in history to Victorian domestic murder and the invention of psychiatry and Sherlock Holmes and the invention of forensic science from the fifteenth century Taiping Rebellion in China in which up to 36 million died to the First and Second World Wars and more recent genocides and instances of ethnic cleansing and contemporary terrorism They conclude by assessing the very real possibility that the internet and the greater freedom of information it has brought is leading gradually to a profoundly more civilised world than at any time in the past
