Spatial Practices Critical Exploration In Social Spatial Theory:

Spatial Practices Helen Liggett, David C. Perry, 1995-01-23 This is a collection of essays by leading scholars in political science geography urban studies and planning The contributors take a postmodern critical approach to representations of the city and space spatial practices and analysis Chapters address such issues as the history and strategy of planning walled cities and modern development theories of capitalist development and modes of production and urban planning Spatial Practices Helen Liggett, David C. Perry, 1995-01-23 Spatial Practices makes a timely and significant contribution to the growing literature on social spatial theory In it the notion of spacial practice takes on a rich and layered meaning for some of America s leading scholars as they critically link the theoretical practices of the space of their disciplines to the practical social space of everyday political and economic urban life Original essays provide compelling insights into the space of racial politics the unavoidability of recognizing a radical planning practice and the imagistic face of the contemporary figured city The reader will find rich conceptual tools presented in discussions that grapple with issues raised by the production of reduced public space in common interest developments and the ubiquitous mall the ideologies of economic restructuring the rhetorical politics of urban revitalization and the analytic potential of the photo text Students and scholars interested in how spatial theory has enriched and renewed urban theory will find Spatial Practices invaluable It will be useful in a wide range of classes across disciplines including urban studies urban planning architecture political science sociology geography economics and policy studies This collection explores the exciting analytical edge where investigations of urban political economy converge with cultural studies In their exploration of theory and practice as they relate to the production of space the authors cover a dazzling range of topics Yet despite their varying preoccupations the essays merge into a unified inquiry that reveals the functions and meanings of contemporary spatial forms All those who are interested in the forces shaping urban and regional development as well as in the impact of space on social relations must read this book The Routledge Companion to Critical Approaches to Contemporary Architecture Swati Chattopadhyay, Jeremy White, 2019-08-01 The Routledge Companion to Critical Approaches to Contemporary Architecture convenes a wide array of critical voices from architecture art history urbanism geography anthropology media and performance studies computer science bio engineering environmental studies and sociology that help us understand the meaning and significance of global architecture of the twenty first century New chapters by 36 contributors illustrated with over 140 black and white images are assembled in six parts concerning both real and virtual spaces design materiality alterity technologies cityscapes and practice Whose Public Space? Ali Madanipour, 2010-01-21 Public spaces mirror the complexities of urban societies as historic social bonds have weakened and cities have become collections of individuals public open spaces have also changed from being embedded in the social fabric of the city to being a part of more impersonal and fragmented urban environments Can making public spaces help overcome this fragmentation where accessible spaces are created through inclusive processes This book offers some answers to this question through analysing the process of urban design and development in international case studies in which the changing character level of accessibility and the tensions of making public spaces are explored The book uses a coherent theoretical outlook to investigate a series of case studies crossing the cultural divides to examine the similarities and differences of public space in different urban contexts and its critical analysis of the process of development management and use of public space with all its tensions and conflicts While each case study investigates the specificities of a particular city the book outlines some general themes in global urban processes It shows how public spaces are a key theme in urban design and development everywhere how they are appreciated and used by the people of these cities but also being contested by and under pressure from different stakeholders

Emotions, Technology, and Design Sharon Tettegah, Safiya Noble, 2015-12-28 Emotional design explicitly addresses the emotional relationship between the objects and the subjects of design in this book the objects are technologies and the subjects are technology users The first section delves into the philosophy and theory of emotional design to provide a foundation for the rest of the book which goes on to discuss emotional design principles the design and use of emoticons and then intelligent agents in a variety of settings A conclusion chapter covers future research and directions Emotions Technology and Design provides a thorough look at how technology design affects emotions and how to use that understanding to in practical applications Discusses the role of culture trust and identity in empathetic technology Presents a framework for using sound to elicit positive emotional responses Details the emotional use of color in design Explores the use of emoticons earcons and tactons Addresses the emotional design specific to agent based environments

Architecture and Space Re-imagined Richard Bower, 2016-06-10 As with so many facets of contemporary western life architecture and space are often experienced and understood as a commodity or product The premise of this book is to offer alternatives to the practices and values of such westernised space and Architecture with a capital A by exploring the participatory and grass roots practices used in alternative development models in the Global South This process re contextualises the spaces values and relationships produced by such alternative methods of development and social agency It asks whether such spatial practices provide concrete realisations of some key concepts of Western spatial theory questioning whether we might challenge the space and architectures of capitalist development by learning from the places and practices of others Exploring these themes offers a critical examination of alternative development practices methods in the Global South re contextualising them as architectural engagements with socio political space The comparison of such interdisciplinary contexts and discourses reveals the political social and economic resonances inherent between these previously unconnected spatial protagonists The interdependence of spatial issues of choice value and identity are revealed through a comparative study of the discourses of Henri Lefebvre John Turner Doreen Massey and Nabeel Hamdi These key protagonists offer a critical framework of discourses from which further connections to socio spatial discourses and concepts are made including post marxist theory orientalism post structural pluralism development anthropology post colonial theory hybridity difference and subalterneity By looking to the spaces and practices of alternative development in the Global South this book offers a critical reflection upon the working practices of Westernised architecture and other spatial and political practices In exploring the methodologies implications and values of such participatory development practices this book ultimately seeks to articulate the positive potential and political of learning from the difference multiplicity and otherness of development practice in order to re imagine architecture and space

Inside Culture Nick Couldry,2000-05-03 Inside Culture offers a fresh and stimulating reassessment of the direction of cultural studies Nick Couldry argues without apology for cultural studies as a discipline centred around the interrelations of culture and power with a clear focus on accountable empirical research that deals with the real complexities of contemporary lives inside culture Chapters discuss the broad conceptual issues around cultures texts the self and the individual There are detailed discussions of a range of cultural studies authors which demystify the elaborate language of contemporary cultural studies with suggestions for further thinking at the end of chapters

Diversity among Architects Craig Wilkins,2016-03-10 Diversity among Architects presents a series of essays questioning the homogeneity of architecture practitioners who remain overwhelmingly male and Caucasian to help you create a field more representative of the population you serve The book is the collected work of author Craig L Wilkins an African American scholar and practitioner and discusses music education urban geography social justice community design centers race space identity shared landscape and many more topics

Sounding Places Karolina Doughty,Michelle Duffy,Theresa Harada,2019 This edited collection examines the more than representational registers of sound It asks how sound comes to be a meaningful ingredient in the microgeographies of place making through the workings of affect emotion and atmosphere how sound contributes to shaping a variety of embodied and spatially situated experiences and how such aspects can be harnessed methodologically These topics contribute to broader debates on the relations between representation and the non or more than representational that are taking place across the social sciences and humanities in the wake of the cultural turn More specifically the book contributes to the fertile theoretical intersections of sound affect emotion and atmosphere

Filming the Modern Middle East Lina Khatib,2006-09-29 Filming the Modern Middle East is the first comparative investigation of how modern American cinema and the cinemas of the Arab world represent Middle Eastern politics to their audiences Lina Khatib examines the cinematic depictions of major political issues from the Arab Israeli conflict to the Gulf War to Islamic fundamentalism and covers films made in the USA in Egypt Tunisia Morocco Lebanon Syria and Palestine She explores cinema s role as a tool of nationalism in the USA and the Arab world and the challenges the Arab cinemas present to Hollywood s dominant representations of Middle Eastern politics But she also reveals similarities between supposed contradictory cinemas and importantly not only how the Orient is constructed by the Occident but also how the Orient itself in these cinemas represents Self and Others and how it is consumed by internal as well as external struggles This is a fascinating original contribution to the burgeoning interest in world cinemas which also offers a fresh way of seeing Middle East politics through cinematic lenses Planning Power Ambe Njoh, 2007-01-24 With an unusually nuanced view of African planning systems in a time of upheaval and political change Planning Power examines British and French colonial town and country planning efforts in Africa to provide valuable reading for researchers and students in a wide range of disciplines Youth-full Productions Nancy Ares, 2010 The grounding concept of this book is that youth are active agents in creating cultural practices and social spaces Drawing from disciplines including anthropology sociology education and cultural studies the chapters examine practices that youth who are members of traditionally marginalized groups develop through engagement in the varied contexts of their everyday lives Each chapter treats communities language communication and interaction patterns and culturally derived practices as valuable resources youth bring to the tasks and situations they negotiate across time and space The combination of chapters that fall within traditions of social and cultural foundations with those that fall within disciplinary learning focused approaches sets this book apart Across the chapters notions of youth as active agents in the production of knowledge selves and practice are illuminated by focusing on how youth participate in construction of assemblages of historically derived practices evolving relations of power discourses and new social cultural forms and practices The book also includes the editor's responses to the two main sections of the work a conversation in writing aimed at making explicit both what ties the chapters within the sections together and the broader implications of the combined and unique contributions Negotiating Conflict in Lebanon Mohamad Hafeda, 2019-08-22 Drawing on innovative research into sectarian political struggle in Beirut Mohamad Hafeda shows how boundaries in a divided city are much more than simple physical divisions and reveals the ways in which city dwellers both experience them and subvert them in unexpected ways Through research based on interviews documentation of various media representations such as maps visual imagery and gallery installations Negotiating Conflict in Lebanon exposes the methods through which sectarian narratives are constructed arguing for the need to question deconstruct and transform these constructions Hafeda expands upon the definition of bordering practice by considering artistic research as a critical spatial practice which allows self reflection and transformation of border positions This study offers an alternative view to the mainstream narratives of what is meant by a border and provides insights methods and lessons that may be applied to other cities around the world affected by conflict and political sectarian segregation The Town Planning Review Patrick Abercrombie, 1996 Critical Practices in Architecture Jonathan Bean, Susannah Dickinson, Aletheia Ida, 2020-01-06 This book embraces the idea that in today's complex world multiple emerging perspectives are critical to the design fields the environment and society It also brings authors into conversation to focus on the built environment from the perspective of critical practice The authors take as a starting point Jane Rendell's ground breaking work which defines critical spatial practice as self reflective modes of thought that seek to change the world In opposition to conventional conceptions of architectural education and work this book reflects how socially engaged architects landscape architects designers urbanists and artists take up critical spatial practice Bridging ideas from multiple countries and approaches to design scholarship each chapter seeks to find places of convergence for the multiple strands that form around themes of practice equality methods theory ethics pedagogy and representation Rendell s foreword and postscript provide context for these themes and suggest a way forward in today s challenging changing times Critical Qualitative Research and Social Justice Penny A.

Pasque,2025-06-23 Critical Qualitative Research and Social Justice is an encyclopedia esque book that is a must have for any researcher interested in critical and social justice qualitative research It helps readers understand and navigate the labyrinthine of critical and social justice concepts available for qualitative research studies The book focuses on critical decolonial transformative critical interpretivist participatory or related approaches that disrupt dominant paradigms unapologetically name issues of power identify and overturn oppressive policies and engage with communities in meaningful ways There are 28 chapters that take up a different critical and or social justice research concept and define it for readers The chapters are not mutually exclusive but overlap and connect with each other As such readers can draw from different chapters as they create their own critical and or social justice research designs This book will be of interest to researchers faculty institutional researchers graduate students nonprofit research or assessment people etc across fields and disciplines who are interested in crafting quality research designs and making a concerted difference with their research Design Research in Architecture Murray Fraser,2021-07-28 What is the role of design research in the types of insight and knowledge that architects create That is the central question raised by this book It acts as the introductory overview for Ashgate s major new series Design Research in Architecture which has been created in order to establish a firm basis for this emerging field of investigation within architecture While there have been numerous architects scholars since the Renaissance who have relied upon the interplay of drawings models textual analysis intellectual ideas and cultural insights to scrutinise the discipline nonetheless until recently there has been a reluctance within architectural culture to acknowledge and accept the role of design research as part of the discourse However in many countries around the world one of the key changes in architecture and architectural education over the last decade has been the acceptance of design as a legitimate research area in its own right and this new series provides a forum where the best proponents of architectural design research can publish their work This volume provides a broad overview on design research that supports and amplifies the different volumes coming out in the book series It brings together leading architects and academics to discuss the more general issues involved in design research At the end there is an Indicative Bibliography which alludes to a long history of architectural books which can be seen as being in the spirit of design research Transdisciplinary Urbanism and Culture Quazi Mahtab Zaman,Igea Troiani,2017-07-07 This book presents a collection of critical multi disciplinary essays on urban research by established and early career researchers who participated in the 9th Annual AHRA Architectural Humanities Research Association Research Student Symposium The symposium was held at the Scott Sutherland School of Architecture and Built

Environment Robert Gordon University in Aberdeen from Saturday 19th May to Sunday 20th May 2012 The authors highlight contemporary research issues in urban development in search of new and fresh approaches that reflect the changing principles and praxis of urban conditions The common ambition is to create new lines of knowledge in urban research Due to socio economic political and technological changes to urban production and patterns of consumption and a drive for inter cross multi and transdisciplinary practice the essays also reflect the ideological shift currently underway in academic faculties and external research organisations

Gender Space Architecture Iain Borden, Barbara Penner, Jane Rendell, 2002-09-11 This significant reader brings together for the first time the most important essays concerning the intersecting subjects of gender space and architecture Carefully structured and with numerous introductory essays it guides the reader through theoretical and multi disciplinary texts to direct considerations of gender in relation to particular architectural sites projects and ideas This collection marks a seminal point in gender and architecture both summarizing core debates and pointing toward new directions and discussions for the future

Spatializing Literacy Research and Practice Kevin M. Leander, Margaret Sheehy, 2004 Current research on literacy often conceives space as a container within which social practice occurs In sharp contrast this edited collection argues that literary practice and social space are produced in relation to one another Contributors to this collection consider how a spacial analysis provides entirely new information for the interpretation of literary practice Traversing geography and literacy studies drawing on Bakhtin Deleuze and Guattari Lefebvre Soja and a range of other theorists contributors analyze space literacy relations in diverse settings including classrooms prisons streets institutional programs homes and the popular media
