Spatializing International Politics Analysing Ngos Use Of The Internet:

Spatializing International Politics Jayne Rodgers, 2004-06-01 How does the concept of space impact upon International Relations This book examines this interesting subject with reference to the ideas of French sociologist Henri Levebre and applies his theories to the use by NGOs of advances in information communications technologies particularly the internet

Meaning and International Relations Peter Mandaville, Andrew Williams, 2015-04-15 This innovative volume brings together specialists in international relations to tackle a set of difficult questions about what it means to live in a globalized world where the purpose and direction of world politics are no longer clear cut What emerges from these essays is a very clear sense that while we may be living in an era that lacks a single universal purpose ours is still a world replete with meaning The authors in this volume stress the need for a pluralistic conception of meaning in a globalized world and demonstrate how increased communication and interaction in transnational spaces work to produce complex tapestries of culture and politics Meaning and International Relations also makes an original and convincing case for the relevance of hermeneutic approaches to understanding contemporary international relations

Insurgency Online Michael York Dartnell, 2006-01-01 In Insurgency Online Michael Dartnell focuses on a new form of conflict made possible by global communications The Internet Dartnell argues is affecting extensive changes to the way politics are carried out by inserting a range of non state actors onto the global political stage He demonstrates that Web activism raises issues about the organization of societies and the distribution of power and contends that the development of online activism has far reaching social and political implications with parallels to the influence of the invention of the printing press the telegraph and the radio Dartnell concentrates on Web activists who use the Net as a media tool distinguishing this use from information terrorism which threatens or harasses through hacking or electronic sabotage Using the examples of the Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan RAWA which opposed the Taliban the Peruvian Movimiento Revolucionario Tupac Amaru MRTA and its campaign against the Fujimori government and the Irish Republican Socialist Movement IRSM Dartnell evaluates the political implications and general character of Web activism among non state actors Insurgency Online shows that online activism is a ripe new territory for non governmental actors to raise awareness and develop support around the world

Ethnonationalism in the Contemporary World Daniele Conversi, 2003-08-29 In Ethnonationalism in the Contemporary World world renowned scholars employ various aspects of Connor s work to explicate the recent upsurge of nationalism on a global scale In keeping with the growing awareness that the study of ethnonationalism requires an interdisciplinary approach the contributors represent a number of academic disciplines including anthropology geography history linguistics social psychology sociology and world politics The book discusses issues such as identity ethnicity and nationalism primordialism social constructionism ethnic conflict separatism and federalism It also features case studies on the Basque country South Africa and Canada

consideration of the meaning of transnational cultural interactions today In an era of increasing globalization the cultural and the international have borders as permeable as most nations and an understanding of one requires making sense of the other Foregrounding the role of mediation understood here as a site of representation transformation and pluralization the authors engage two specific questions How might we make theoretical and practical sense of transnational cultural interactions And how are we to understand the ways in which the sites of mediation represent transform and remediate internationals Accordingly the authors consider international issues like security development political activism and the war against terrorism through the lens of cultural practices such as traveling through airports exhibiting art and photography logging on to the Internet and spinning news stories      US Economic Statecraft for Survival, 1933-1991 Alan P. Dobson,2002-04-25 This study explains how US policy makers crafted and used instruments of economics statecraft against states that posed vital threats to the survival of the USA      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003      Political Loyalty and the Nation-State Andrew Linklater,Michael Waller,2004-06 Examines the weakening of the state s ability to order political allegiances of its subjects Is it possible to invest political principles with loyalty and can political loyalty become merely a matter of choice and personal responsibility      Son Preference Navtej K. Purewal,2010-04-01 The preference for male children transcends many societies and cultures making it an issue of local and global dimensions While son preference is not a new phenomenon and has existed historically in many parts of Asia its contemporary expressions illustrate the gendered outcomes of social power relations as they interact and intersect with culture economy and technologies Son Preference brings together key debates on the subject of son preference by assessing existing work in the field and providing new insights through primary research The book covers a broad range of social science discussions and draws upon textual and ethnographic material from India Son Preference will be useful to students scholars activists and anyone interested in the issues surrounding gender inequity sex selection and skewed sex ratios      Mapping Mongolia Paula L.W. Sabloff,2011-06-29 With its small population and low GDP Mongolia is frequently deemed unique or tacked onto various area studies programs Inner Asia Central Asia Northeast Asia or Eurasia This volume is a response to the concern that countries such as Mongolia are marginalized when academia and international diplomacy reconfigure area studies borders in the postsocialist era Would marginalized countries such as Mongolia benefit from a reconfiguration of area studies programs or even from another way of thinking about grouping nations This book uses Mongolia as a case study to critique the area studies methodology and test the efficacy of another grouping methodology the scapes method proposed by Arjun Appadurai Could the application of this approach for tracing individuals social networks by theme finance ethnicity ideology media and technology be applied to nation states or peoples Could it then prevent Mongolia from slipping through the cracks of academia and international diplomacy Experts from ecology genetics archaeology history anthropology and international diplomacy contemplate these issues in their chapters on Mongolia through the ages Their work includes over 30 maps to help situate Mongolia in its geologic geographic economic and cultural matrix By comparing maps of different time periods and intellectual orientations readers can consider for themselves the place of Mongolia in the world community and the relative benefits of these and other grouping methodologies Content of this book s DVD ROM may be found online at this location <http://core.tdar.org/project/376589> Japanese Public Opinion and the War on Terrorism R. Eldridge,2016-03-01 In this volume the contributors argue that the events of 9 11 and the subsequent war on terrorism have had big implications for Japan These events have called into question the assumptions and limits of Japan s war renouncing constitution Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Global Geographies of the Internet Barney Warf,2012-08-01 Today roughly 2 billion people use the internet and its applications have flourished in number and importance This volume will examine the growth and geography of the internet from a political economy perspective Its central motivation is to illustrate that cyberspace does not exist in some aspatial void but is deeply rooted in national and local political and cultural contexts Toward that end it will invoke a few major theorists of cyberspace but apply their perspectives in terms that are accessible to readers with no familiarity with them Beyond summaries of the infrastructure that makes the internet possible and global distributions of users it delves into issues such as the digital divide to emphasize the inequalities that accompany the growth of cyberspace It also addresses internet censorship e commerce and e government issues that have received remarkably little scholarly attention particularly from a spatial perspective Throughout it demonstrates that in cyberspace place matters so that no comprehensive understanding of the internet can be achieved without considering how it is embedded within and in turn changes local institutional and political contexts Thus the book rebuts simplistic death of distance views or those that assert there is or can be a one size fits all cookie cutter model of the internet applicable to all times and places Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Forensic Rhetorics and Satellite Surveillance Marouf Hasian Jr.,2016-07-25 Forensic Rhetorics and Satellite Surveillance The Visualization of War Crimes and Human Rights Violations uses cases studies of satellite surveillance over the skies of Darfur Gaza Bosnia Pakistan and the Mediterranean to provide readers with an overview of some of the technological analytic and political complexities of satellite surveillance imagery usage Marouf Hasian Jr illustrates how our earlier reliance on witness testimony or signal communications in human rights contexts is now being supplemented with forensic evidence from satellites that can be used to document monitor and perhaps even deter human rights violations on the ground Iraq at a Distance Antonius C. G. M. Robben,2010-11-24 The Iraq War has cost innumerable lives caused vast material destruction and inflicted suffering on millions of people Iraq at a Distance What Anthropology Can Teach Us About the War focuses on the plight of the Iraqi people caught since 2003 in the carnage between U S and British troops on one side and on the other Iraqi insurgents militias and foreign al Qaeda operatives The volume is a bold attempt by six distinguished anthropologists to study a war zone too dangerous for fieldwork They break new ground by using their ethnographic imagination as a research tool to analyze the Iraq War through insightful comparisons with previous and current armed conflicts in Cambodia Israel Palestine Northern Ireland Afghanistan and Argentina This innovative approach extends the book s relevance beyond a critical understanding of the devastating war in Iraq More and more parts of the world of long standing ethnographic interest are becoming off limits to researchers because of the war on terror This book serves as a model for the study of other inaccessible regions and it shows that the impossibility of conducting ethnographic fieldwork does not condemn anthropologists to silence Essays analyze the good versus evil framework of the war on terror the deterioration of women s rights in Iraq under fundamentalist coercion the ethnic religious partitioning of Baghdad through the building of security walls the excessive use of force against Iraqi civilians by U S counterinsurgency units and the loss of popular support for U S and British forces in Iraq and Afghanistan after the brutal regimes of the Taliban and Saddam Hussein had been toppled

Privatization and the New Medical Pluralism Anita Chary, Peter Rohloff, 2015-09-17 Privatization and the New Medical Pluralism is the first collection of its kind to explore the contemporary terrain of healthcare in Guatemala through reflective ethnography This volume offers a nuanced portrait of the effects of healthcare privatization for indigenous Maya people who have historically endured numerous disparities in health and healthcare access The collection provides an updated understanding of medical pluralism which concerns not only the tensions and exchanges between ethnomedicine and biomedicine that have historically shaped Maya people s experiences of health but also the multiple competing biomedical institutions that have emerged in a highly privatized market driven environment of care The contributors examine the macro structural and micro level implications of the proliferation of non governmental organizations private fee for service clinics and new pharmaceuticals against the backdrop of a deteriorating public health system In this environment health seekers encounter new challenges and opportunities relationships between the public private and civil sectors transform and new forms of inequality in access to healthcare abound This volume connects these themes to critical studies of global and public health exposing the strictures and apertures of healthcare privatization for marginalized populations in Guatemala
