The Guests At The Gate:

Wave of Destruction Erich Krauss, 2006 Four Southeast Asia tsunami survival stories offer insight into the experiences of people who heroically endured devastating odds in their determination to stay alive recounting their painful losses of families friends and homes and their subsequent efforts to rebuild 50 000 first printing

Producing Guanxi Andrew B. Kipnis, 1997 Throughout China the formation of guanxi or social connections involves friends families colleagues and acquaintances in complex networks of social support and sentimental attachment Focusing on this process in one rural north China village Fengjia Andrew Kipnis shows what guanxi production reveals about the evolution of village political economy kinship and gender and local patterns of subjectivity in Dengist China His work offers a detailed description of the communicative actions such as gift giving being a host or guest participating in weddings or funerals that produce manage and deny guanxi in a specific time and place Kipnis also offers a rare comparative analysis of how these practices relate to the varied and variable phenomenon of guanxi throughout China and as it has changed over time Producing Guanxi combines the theory of Pierre Bourdieu and the insights of symbolic anthropology to contest past portrayals of guanxi as either a function of Chinese political economics or an unchanging Confucian social structure In this analysis guanxi emerges as a purposeful human effort that makes use of past cultural logics while generating new ones By exploring the role of sentiment in the creation of self Kipnis critiques recent theories of subjectivity for their narrow focus on language and discourse and contributes to the anthropological discussion of comparative selfhood Navigating a path between mainstream social science and abstract social theory Kipnis presents a more nuanced examination of guanxi than has previously been available and contributes generally to our understanding of relationships and human action

African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek, Annette M. Schmidt, 2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wildness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects

Norwich Cathedral Close

Roberta Gilchrist, 2005 Winner of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Award What explains the layout of the cathedral and its close What ideas and beliefs shaped this familiar landscape Through this pioneering study of the development of the close of Norwich cathedral one of the most important buildings in medieval England from its foundation in 1096 up to c 1700 the author looks at changes in cathedral landscape both sacred and social Using evidence from history archaeology and other disciplines Professor Gilchrist reconstructs both the landscape and buildings of the close and the transformations in their use and meaning over time Much emphasis is placed on the layout and the ways in which buildings and spaces were used and perceived by different groups Patterns observed at Norwich are then placed in the context of other cathedral priories allowing a broader picture to emerge of the development of the English cathedral landscape over six centuries ROBERTA GILCHRIST is Professor of Archaeology at the University of Reading and President of the Society for Medieval Archaeology From 1993 to 2005 she was Archaeologist to Norwich Cathedral She has published extensively on medieval monasticism and social archaeology

MY FATHER WAS A FRENCHMAN

Gareth England, 2023-12-17 MY FATHER

WAS A FRENCHMAN is a collection of mystical short story plays written for marionettes containing a Vaudevillean flair whimsy and Old World flavor The artist uses risqué humor as she transforms adversities unfortunate experiences into fanciful follies This introduction to Urban Magical Realism portrays a juxtaposition between harsh reality and creative imagination revealing serendipitous wonderment in inner city life Gareth England chooses esoteric short story plays for those puppet makers and puppeteers who still create and work with Old World marionettes both in theatre groups and also playwrights for their play performances For England the craft of string puppetry is truly still an artist's treasure

The Unexpected Guest Hania Allen,2023-08-03 It was a quiet day for the funeral

Until the bomb went off Midwinter in Poland and Dania G rška and her brother Marek are in Warsaw attending the funeral of her old piano teacher Jakub Frydman At the graveside is rabbi Salomon Steinberg and several former pupils As the service draws to an end a figure is glimpsed through the mist throwing a wreath into the open grave And as the mourners file out of the cemetery they hear an explosion the grave of Jakub Frydman has been destroyed and the perpetrator the unexpected guest at the graveside has made a clean getaway But who was the intended victim Was it an antisemitic attack but against the old teacher or the rabbi Or was it drugs related and Dania and her investigative journalist brother the targets Now Dania has to trade Dundee for Warsaw to follow up leads on an international drugs syndicate and find a resolution to this most unexpected and deadly of crimes Praise for Hania Allen Nicely nasty in all the right places The story rattles along until bringing the curtain down with an unnerving twist Craig Robertson A fresh new find for crime fans the plot is intriguing the characters are well drawn and the end comes with an unnerving twist Extremely readable Sunday Post Captivating characters and an intriguing plot A great new find for crime fans Lin Anderson Pitch perfect a witty tense crime novel written in a highly readable style Russel D McLean

Emotions across Cultures David Konstan, 2022-06-21 It is now recognized that emotions have a history In this book eleven scholars examine a variety of emotions in ancient China and classical Greece in their historical and social context A general introduction presents the major issues in the analysis of emotions across cultures and over time in a given tradition Subsequent chapters consider how specific emotions evolve and change For example whereas for early Chinese thinkers worry was a moral defect it was later celebrated as a sign that one took responsibility for things In ancient Greece hope did not always focus on a positive outcome and in this respect differed from what we call hope Daring not to do or undaring was itself an emotional value in early China While Aristotle regarded the inability to feel anger as servile the Roman Stoic Seneca rejected anger entirely Hatred and revenge were encouraged at one moment in China and repressed at another Ancient Greek responses to tragedy do not map directly onto modern emotional registers and yet are similar to classical Chinese and Indian descriptions There are differences in the very way emotions are conceived This book will speak to anyone interested in the many ways that human beings feel Intelligence, Creativity and Fantasy Mário S. Ming Kong, Maria do Rosário Monteiro, Maria João Pereira Neto, 2019-09-30 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI INTELLIGENCE CREATIVITY AND FANTASY were compiled with the intent to establish a multidisciplinary platform for the presentation interaction and dissemination of research The aim is also to foster the awareness and discussion on the topics of Harmony and Proportion with a focus on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design Engineering Social and Natural Sciences and their importance and benefits for the sense of both individual and community identity The idea of modernity has been a significant motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts
