Prague – Exploring the Novel's Locations Lubor Matěj, 2025-09-29 Discover the places that inspired Dan Brown Prague is a city that never fails to enchant Its hidden corners and stories carved in stone even captivated a world famous author who chose to set the plot of his latest novel here After dozens of titles published in the Mateo Guides series known for original and engaging travel companions we decided to bring you closer to these remarkable locations along with others that complete their unique atmosphere Inside you ll find the stories of saints artists rulers and architects along with a curated TOP 10 of Charles Bridge s baroque statues and the most fascinating sites of Prague Castle We also share tips for alternatives to crowded attractions such as the baroque libraries of Strahov Monastery every bit as impressive as the famous Klementinum Designed for comfortable reading on your phone and enriched with audio commentary in audiovisual editions this guide also features more than 270 stunning photographs revealing hidden or normally inaccessible places Get ready for a unique journey through a city whose magical atmosphere continues to inspire Disclaimer This guide is not officially affiliated with Dan Brown or the publishers of The Secret of Secrets It is an independent title inspired by the novel s storyline A Horror and a Beauty: The World of Peter Ackroyd's London Novels Petr Chalupský, 2016-02-01 Peter Ackroyd is one of the foremost contemporary British London writers He focuses on the capital its history development and identity both in his fiction and non fiction The London of his novels is thus a highly idiosyncratic construct which reflects and derives from its author s ideas about the actual city s nature as well as his concept of the English literary sensibility in general as he outlines them in his lectures and historical and literary studies It is an exceptionally heterogeneous city of enormous diversity and richness of human experience moods and emotion of actions and events and also of the tools through which these are re presented and reenacted According to Ackroyd this heterogeneity mostly originates outside the sites and domains of the established or mainstream cultural production and social norms and conventions particularly in occult practices subversive acts and the plotting of radical individuals or groups criminal and fraudulent activities of various kinds dubious scientific experiments and the popular dramatic forms of ritual and entertainment whose permanent encounters with and contesting of the officially approved and prescribed forms instigate the city s vitalising energy for dynamic change and spiritual renewal This book presents the world of Ackroyd s London novels as a distinct chronotope determined by specific spatial and temporal properties and their mutual interconnectedness Although such a concept of urban space in its essence defies categorisation the book is thematically organised around six defining aspects of the city as Ackroyd identifies them the relationship between its past and present its uncanny manifestations its felonious tendencies its inhabitants psychogeographic and antiquarian strategies its theatricality and its inherently literary character Hang 'Em High Bob Herzberg, 2013-09-11 For more than a century the Western film has proven to be an enduring genre At the dawn of the 20th century in the same years that The Great Train Robbery begat a film genre Owen Wister wrote The Virginian which began a new literary genre From the beginning both literature and film would usually perpetuate the myth of the Old West as a place where justice always triumphed and all concerned except the villains pursued the Law The facts however reflect abuses of due process lynch mobs and hired gunslingers rather than lawmen regularly pursued lawbreakers vengeance rather than justice was often employed and even in courts of law justice didn't always prevail Some films and novels bucked this trend however This book discusses the many Western films as well as the novels they are based on that illustrate distortions of the law in the Old West and the many ways most of them marked by vengeance in which its characters pursued justice Robert Louis Stevenson and the Art of Collaboration

Murfin Audrey Murfin, 2019-08-05 Explores Robert Louis Stevenson's collaborative process Contains new readings of thirteen works by Robert Louis Stevenson including several rarely discussed Sheds light on connections between authorship celebrity the literary marketplace and the creative process Supported by extensive manuscript research This book investigates Stevenson's literary collaborations with family and friends as he travelled Scotland America and the Pacific With critical readings of both major and minor Stevenson texts supported and contextualised by unpublished manuscripts and letters by both Stevenson and those he wrote with this book argues that Stevenson's writings are both a product of and a meditation on collaborative writing Stevenson's self-reflective body of work reimagines late Victorian authorship by examining the ways that authors choose material negotiate the marketplace and ultimately maintain power over their own words or let that power go The Black Border and Fugitive Narration in Black American Literature

Paula von Gleich, 2022-03-07 This book tests the limits of fugitivity as a concept in recent Black feminist and Afro-pessimist thought It follows the conceptual travels of confinement and flight through three major Black writing traditions in North America from the 1840s to the early 21st century Cultural analysis is the basic methodological approach and recent concepts of captivity and fugitivity in Afro-pessimist and Black feminist theory form the theoretical framework

Waverley Novels: Quentin Durward Walter Scott, 1902 The Fiction of History Alexander Lyon Macfie, 2014-08-13 The Fiction of History sets out a number of themes in the relationship between history and fiction emphasising the tensions and dilemmas created in this relationship and examining how various writers have dealt with these In the first part two chapters discuss the philosophy behind the connection between fiction and history whether history is fiction and the distinction between the past and history Part two goes on to discuss the relationship between history and literature using case studies such as Virginia Woolf and Charles Dickens Part three looks at television and film as well as other media through case studies such as the film Welcome to Sarajevo and Soviet and Australian films Part four considers a particular theme that has prominence in both history and literature postcolonial studies focusing on the issues of fictions of nationhood and civilization and the historical novel in postcolonial contexts Finally the fifth section comprises two interviews with novelists Penelope Lively and Adam Thorpe and discusses the ways in which their works explore the nature of history itself Writing Lives Rewriting Times Mapping Womens Responses from South Asia Seetha Vijayakumar Jyothy C R Editors, 2022-06-09 Womens writing from South Asia is incredibly diverse it maps the geographical cultural and social hybridity of their respective countries These authors have not only created their own lives but also have attempted to rewrite the historical time Writing Lives Rewriting Times Mapping Womens Responses from South Asia has ten essays on writers such as Jamila Hashmi Amrita Pritam Shashi Deshpande Jhumpa Lahiri Tehmina Durrani Ambai K R Meera Sujatha Gidla Chaoba Phuritshabam Shreema Ningobam and Soibam Haripriya The nature of homosexual desire in the film Margharita with a straw as well as the role of food as an emotional anchor for diasporic communities in womens food memoirs such as Climbing the Mango Trees A Memoir of a Childhood in India Tiffin and Love Loss and What We Ate A Memoir are also explored in this volume Godey's Lady's Book Louis Antoine Godey, Sarah Josepha Buell Hale, 1859 Includes music The Treatment of Nature in the More Important Novels Between 1740-1798 Irene Mary Stanley Parkell, 1923 Class in Turn-of-the-Century Novels of Gissing, James, Hardy and Wells Christine DeVine, 2017-11-30 This book argues that due to political and ideological shifts in the last decades of the nineteenth century a time when the class system in England was in a state of flux a new depiction of social class was possible in the English novel Late century writers such as Gissing James Hardy and Wells question the middle class Victorian views of class that had dominated the novel for decades By disrupting traditional novelistic conventions these writers reveal the ideology of the historical moment in which those conventions obtained thereby questioning the naturalness of class assumed by earlier middle class Victorian writers The book contextualizes novels by these writers within their historical moment with reference to relevant maps journalism artwork or photography and specific historical events It illuminates the relationship between fiction and history in late nineteenth and early twentieth century fiction and especially the relationship between changing depictions of class and the development of realism Examining the nineteenth century English novel through the lens of social class allows the twenty first century critic and student not only to understand the issues at stake in much Victorian fiction but also to recognize powerful present day vestiges of this social class system
