The Haunting Of Lamb House:

The Haunting of Lamb House Joan Aiken, 1991 Roman The role of "Lamb House" in Joan Aiken's novel "The Haunting of Lamb House" Philipp Röttgers, 2022-04-05 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Bonn Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik und Keltologie course Country Houses and Landscape Gardens language English abstract Haunted houses have become an own genre in literature The Haunting of Lamb House seems a classical haunted house story It is a novel written in 1991 by British author Joan Aiken and it deals with the real existing Lamb House in Rye Sussex First I will give a short overview over the real existing Lamb House in Rye in the neighbourhood of Aiken's birthplace and some information about its inhabitants which might be important for the story In the analysis I will give a definition of the haunted house and the whole genre that deals with haunted houses Then I will go through the story of the novel and point out the impact Lamb House has on its inhabitants and the way the house is presented Afterwards I will have a look at the historic background of the story Aiken has written In the conclusion I will also try to find out if Lamb House in the story represents a haunted house and if the novel fulfils the criteria for being a novel which fits into the genre of the haunted house Ghost Stories by British and American Women Lynette Carpenter, Wendy K. Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person's identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another

An Eye for Genius Kerry Sutherland, A middle aged author declining in popularity An up and coming literary agent with an eye for genius A partnership that would forge a prodigious legacy in American literature Henry James was a middle aged author who had established himself on a transatlantic scale when he employed James Brand Pinker as his literary agent in 1898 The changing preferences of a growing audience of readers along with James's self-defeating practice of shifting from publisher to publisher rather than adhering to the trade courtesy of remaining loyal to one house were making the author's efforts to keep his work in print increasingly difficult bringing Pinker who managed the literary business of over 100 authors including Stephen Crane H G Wells Joseph Conrad and Jack London into the picture made it possible for James to maintain a presence before the reading public to an extent that would have been impossible without the agent's assistance Pinker's involvement was vital to the continuance of James's career as his later works and the New York Edition proved difficult material to place The agent's role as the mediator of conflict between the commercial writer and literary artist positions that James had difficulty reconciling had considerable influence on the shape of James's later career and thus the way in which the author is remembered James's legacy is therefore clearly tied to Pinker's efforts Using correspondence between Pinker James and the primary publishers of James's material from 1898 until Pinker's death in 1922 along with secondary works addressing the agent's endeavors during this period this volume demonstrates the link between Pinker's work and James's continued presence in print both during the author's lifetime and after his death Ageing Masculinities in Irish Literature and Visual Culture Michaela Schrage-Früh, Tony Tracy, 2022-07-14 This book engages with ageing masculinities in Irish literature and visual culture including fiction drama poetry painting and documentary Exploring the shifting representations of older men from the early twentieth century to the present the contributors analyse how a broad range of literary and visual texts construct reinscribe or challenge perceptions of older age In doing so they trace a shift from depictions of authority figures often symbolising patriarchal dominance and oppression to more nuanced complex and heterogeneous explorations of older men's embodied subjectivities and vulnerabilities Exploring artists and writers such as Seán Keating J M Synge Teresa Deevy Marina Carr Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Derek Mahon Kate O'Brien John Banville Colm Tóibín Bernard MacLaverty Mike McCormack Anne Griffin and Claire Keegan the chapters in this book attend to the symbolic as well as social significance of older men in Irish cultural expression Transforming Henry James Anna De Biasio, Anna Despotopoulou, Chrysoula Lascaratou, 2014-09-26 Employing a wide range of interpretive and theoretical approaches this collection brings together distinguished James scholars from four continents to elicit new and exciting readings of a diverse array of James's fiction and non-fiction Through their transformative acts the essays investigate James's life-long engagement with cities places and tourist sites offer theoretically informed readings of his work's textual richness and explore his intricate involvement with social and cultural issues such as gender and sexuality economics friendship and hospitality and visual culture Arranged under rubrics which signal the complex interrelations of Henry James as a historical individual and of the works he authored with a web of social cultural aesthetic and philosophical discourses the contributions collected in this book make a convincing case for the ongoing productivity of James's oeuvre when interrogated from new critical angles and therefore for its enduring centrality to the concerns of literary and cultural studies A Short History of

Fantasy Farah Mendlesohn, Edward James, 2012-06-27 Some of the earliest books ever written including The Epic of Gilgamesh and the Odyssey deal with monsters marvels extraordinary voyages and magic and this genre known as fantasy remained an essential part of European literature through the rise of the modern realist novel Tracing the history of fantasy from the earliest years through to the origins of modern fantasy in the 20th century this account discusses contributions decade by decade from Tolkien's Lord of the Rings trilogy and Lewis's Narnia books in the 1950s to J K Rowling's Harry Potter series It also discusses and explains fantasy's continuing and growing popularity St. James Guide to Horror, Ghost & Gothic Writers David Pringle, 1998 As a companion volume to St James Guide to Fantasy Writers this volume concentrates on those types of fiction which may be labelled as horror novels dark fantasies ghost stories gothic novels tales of terror supernatural fictions occult fantasies black magic stories psychological thrillers tales of unease grand guignol shockers creepy stories shudder pulp fictions contes cruels uncanny stories macabre fictions and weird tales Editor's note p ix
