Yonge,2013-06-07 The cry came from the further side where a mountain stream had force enough to struggle through the swamp There were stepping stones across the brook which the boy knew and he made his way from one to the other calling out cheerily to the little figure that he began to discern in the fading light and who answered him with tones evidently girlish O come come shepherd Here I am I am lost and lorn They will reward thee Oh come fast All in good time lassie Haste is no good here I must look to my footing Presently he was by the side of the wanderer and could see that it was a maiden of ten or twelve years old who somehow even in the darkness had not the air of one of the few inhabitants of that wild mountain district Lost art thou maiden he said as he stood beside her where is thine home I am at Greystone Priory replied the girl I went out hawking to day with the Mother Prioress and the rest My pony fell with me when we were riding after a heron No one saw me or heard me and my pony galloped home I saw none of them and I have been wandering miles and miles Oh take me back good lad the Mother Prioress will give thee Tis too far to take thee back to night he said Thou must come with me to Hob Hogward where Doll will give thee supper and bed and we will have thee home in the morning I never lay in a hogward s house she said primly Belike but there be worse spots to be harboured in Here I must carry thee over the burn it gets wider below Nay tis no use trying to leap it in the dark thou wouldst only sink in There The Herd Boy and His Hermit
