The Great Movies IV Roger Ebert, 2020-03-04 Essays from the influential and beloved film critic No one has done as much as Ebert to connect the creators of movies with their consumers Richard Corliss Time Over more than four decades Roger Ebert built a reputation writing reviews for the Chicago Sun Times and later arguing onscreen with rival Chicago Tribune critic Gene Siskel and later Richard Roeper about the movies they loved and loathed But Ebert's wisdom went well beyond a mere thumbs up or thumbs down The Great Movies IV is the fourth and final collection of Roger Ebert's essays comprising sixty two reviews of films ranging from the silent era to the recent past From films like The Cabinet of Caligari and Viridiana that have been considered canonical for decades to movies only recently recognized as masterpieces to Superman The Big Lebowski and Pink Floyd The Wall the pieces gathered here demonstrate the critical acumen seen in Ebert's daily reviews and the more reflective and wide ranging considerations that the longer format allowed him to offer Also included are an insightful foreword by film critic Matt Zoller Seitz editor in chief of the official Roger Ebert website and a touching introduction by Chaz Ebert A fitting capstone to a truly remarkable career The Great Movies IV will introduce newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs Patrice Leconte Lisa Downing, 2004 Lisa Downing's comprehensive study of the films of Patrice Leconte traces lines of continuity and revision through a body of apparently disparate films whose messages often appear both contradictory and controversial Pursuing a close reading of the recurrent themes styles intertexts and techniques which structure Leconte's filmmaking Downing re evaluates Leconte's status as an enigmatic artist offering complex and paradoxical commentary on contemporary questions of sexuality ethics and identity This book is the first full length critical work in English on Leconte's cinema It provides essential reading for both enthusiasts of French cinema and for those fascinated by the relationship between popular culture and theory The Off-Hollywood Film Guide Tom Wiener, 2002-08-13 The Off Hollywood Film Guide cuts through the clutter of the thousands of films currently available on video and DVD by specifically catering to independent and

The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music Keith Potter, Kyle Gann, 2016-03-23 In recent years the music of minimalist composers such as La Monte Young Terry Riley Steve Reich and Philip Glass has increasingly become the subject of important musicological reflection research and debate Scholars have also been turning their attention to the work of lesser known contemporaries such as Phill Niblock and Eliane Radigue or to second and third generation minimalists such as John Adams Louis Andriessen Michael Nyman and William Duckworth whose range of styles may undermine any sense of shared aesthetic approach but whose output is still to a large extent informed by the innovative work of their minimalist predecessors Attempts have also been made by a number of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo Pärt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism's role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject
