

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, pinkish-orange clouds. In the foreground, a calm body of water reflects the sky and the surrounding dark, silhouetted mountains. A small figure of a person is visible in the distance, standing on a narrow strip of land or a small boat, possibly fishing. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Our story is the happiest one I know.

The Happiest One:

Kierkegaard's Instant David J. Kangas, 2007-05-31 In Kierkegaard's Instant David J. Kangas reads Kierkegaard to reveal his radical thinking about temporality For Kierkegaard the instant of becoming in which everything changes in the blink of an eye eludes recollection and anticipation It constitutes a beginning always already at work As Kangas shows Kierkegaard's retrieval of the sudden quality of temporality allows him to stage a deep critique of the idealist projects of Fichte Schelling and Hegel By linking Kierkegaard's thought to the tradition of Meister Eckhart Kangas formulates the central problem of these early texts and puts them into contemporary light can thinking hold itself open to the challenges of temporality

Games for Actors and Non-actors Augusto Boal, 2002 This is the classic and best selling book by the founder of Theatre of the Oppressed Augusto Boal It sets out the principles and practice of Boal's revolutionary method The Spiritual Man (1) Watchman Nee, 1992-06-01 For more than seventy years The Spiritual Man Watchman Nee's classic on spiritual growth has helped believers advance in their pursuit of gaining Christ by showing them the way to let the Lord fully gain them According to Nee The most frustrating experience of believers today is that in seeking for progress in the spiritual path they do not find the proper way As a result they grope in darkness being at times high or low lingering around the crossroads year in and year out and having no one to consult for direction The author of this book was such a one For this reason the book emphasizes clear guidance on the proper path Every chapter of this book is for the purpose of directing the believers on the right course Therefore all those who seek after God with an honest heart can go step by step accordingly Almost every chapter begins from the position of the sinner and goes on step by step toward the peak of spiritual life This electronic book is the first of the three volumes of The Spiritual Man Uncovering Rare Disease. Volume 4

Collective, 2025-08-01 The journal Science American Association for the Advancement of Science in collaboration with Fondation Ipsen delivers international science webinars for the general public In 2024 these webinars focused on challenges in rare diseases The Rare Disease Gazette is a magazine that broadcasts these discussions The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1893 Gender and Politics in Eighteenth-Century Sweden Elise M. Dermineur, 2017-07-14 This book retraces the life and experience of Princess Louisa Ulrika of Prussia 1720 1782 who became queen of Sweden with a particular emphasis on her political role and activities As crown princess 1744 1751 queen 1751 1771 and then queen dowager 1771 1782 of Sweden Louisa Ulrika took an active role in political matters From the moment she arrived in Sweden and throughout her life Louisa Ulrika worked tirelessly towards increasing the power of the monarchy Described variously as fierce proud haughty intelligent self-conscious of her due royal prerogatives filled with political ambitions and accused by many of her contemporaries of wanting to restore absolutism she never diverted from her objective to make the Swedish monarchy stronger despite obstacles and adversities As such she embodied the perfect example of a female consort who was in turn a political agent instrument and catalyst More than just a biography this book places Louisa

Ulrika within the wider European context thus shedding light on gender and politics in the early modern period

The Maccabean Martyrs as Saviours of the Jewish People Jan Willem van Henten, 2021-11-22 This volume deals with the presentation of the so called Maccabean martyrs and the elder Razis in 2 and 4 Maccabees discussing the religious the political as well as the philosophical aspects of noble death in these writings It argues that the theme of martyrdom is a very important part of the self image of the Jews as presented by the authors of both works Eleazar the anonymous mother with her seven sons and Razis should therefore be considered heroes of the Jewish people The first part of the book discusses the sources and the second part deals with the descriptions of noble death This section of the book also offers extensive discussions of related non Jewish traditions which highlight the political patriotic dimension of noble death as described in 2 and 4 Maccabees

Socratic Ignorance and Platonic Knowledge in the Dialogues of Plato Sara Ahbel-Rappe,2018-04-25 In this highly original and provocative book Sara Ahbel Rappe argues that the Platonic dialogues contain an esoteric Socrates who signifies a profound commitment to self knowledge and whose appearances in the dialogues are meant to foster the practice of self inquiry According to Ahbel Rappe the elenchus or inner examination and the thesis that virtue is knowledge are tools for a contemplative practice that teaches us how to investigate the mind and its objects directly In other words the Socratic persona of the dialogues represents wisdom which is distinct from and serves as the larger space in which Platonic knowledge ethics epistemology and metaphysics is constructed Ahbel Rappe offers complete readings of the Apology Charmides Alcibiades I Euthyphro Lysis Phaedrus Theaetetus and Parmenides as well as parts of the Republic Her interpretation challenges two common approaches to the figure of Socrates the thesis that the dialogues represent an early Plato who later disavows his reliance on Socratic wisdom and the thesis that Socratic ethics can best be expressed by the construct of eudaimonism or egoism

The Right One Marie Sophie Schwartz,1871

The Quest for the Good Life Øyvind Rabbås,Eyjólfur Kjalar Emilsson,Hallvard Fossheim,Miira Tuominen,2015 How should I live How can I be happy What is happiness really These are perennial questions which in recent times have become the object of diverse kinds of academic research Ancient philosophers placed happiness at the centre of their thought and we can trace the topic through nearly a millennium While the centrality of the notion of happiness in ancient ethics is well known this book is unique in that it focuses directly on this notion as it appears in the ancient texts Fourteen papers by an international team of scholars map the various approaches and conceptions found from the Pre Socratics through Plato Aristotle Hellenistic Philosophy to the Neo Platonists and Augustine in late antiquity While not promising a formula that can guarantee a greater share in happiness to the reader the book addresses questions raised by ancient thinkers that are still of deep concern to many people today Do I have to be a morally good person in order to be happy Are there purely external criteria for happiness such as success according to received social norms or is happiness merely a matter of an internal state of the person How is happiness related to the stages of life and generally to time In this book the reader will find an informed discussion of these and many other questions relating to happiness
