Heroic Bill Delvaux,2019-04-02 It's in the movies we see It's in the news we hear It's in the stories we tell Every man is stirred by the heroic From boyhood we search for heroes starting with our fathers But somewhere along the way all our heroes disappoint us And our attempts to be a hero fair no better leaving us confused and unsure Yet the heroic longing never leaves us We want to be that heroic man but we do not know how Jesus does He is the great Hero of all time And He calls men to follow Him As we follow we will quickly realize that the path is surprising He will first lead us into a place of fear and trembling He will lead us into death It is our initiation as men into the new life of the heroic But the death will be followed by a stunning resurrection We will find out our true names before Him and be given a heroic quest for His kingdom And most importantly we will discover the secret of true greatness letting our lives go to serve others In the end we become most heroic in the silence of His presence Here we will feel His love as he remakes us into His heroic image uniting us to Himself

The Hero's Trail Peter C. Mowrey, 2022-06-16 The great American Westerns can be profoundly meaningful when read metaphorically. More than mere shoot 'em up entertainment, they are an essential part of a vibrant, evolving national mythology. Like other versions of the archetypal Hero's Journey, these films are filled with insights about life, love, nature, society, ethics, beauty, and what it means to be human, and are key to understanding American culture. Part film guide, part historical survey, this book explores the mythic and artistic elements in 52 great Westerns, some orthodox, some subversive, from the genre's first half-century. Each film is given detailed critical analysis, from the earliest silent movies to Golden Age classics like Red River (1948), High Noon (1952), and Shane (1953).
