housed the army's primary war dog training center and served as a major internment camp for German prisoners of war. After 1948 Fort Robinson became a beef research center and is now the state's premier park. Fort Robinson and the American Century 1900-1948 is based on more than twenty years of archival research as well as the personal recollections of the men and women who served at the fort. More than ninety photographs and five maps supplement the narrative.
