

A photograph of a wine bottle and a glass of red wine. The bottle is on the left, slightly out of focus, with a white label. The glass is on the right, filled with red wine, and is in sharp focus. The background is a soft, out-of-focus bokeh of green and yellow lights, suggesting an outdoor setting at night. Reflections of a Wine Merchant Neal I. Rosenthal, 2024-06-04 A purveyor of fine wines takes readers on a guided tour of the wine industry in this biography A warm personal eloquent celebration of the people and places where tradition survives The New York Times Book Review There have been many books about wine but rarely one as absorbing and as wise as this one Rosenthal tells of his travels in France and Italy of his friendships with wine growers and of his own growing understanding of this ancient business that combines both art and commerce He writes so well one can taste the wines he loves Charles Simic US Poet Laureate In the late 1970s Neal I Rosenthal set out to learn everything he could about wine He opened a small wine shop and shortly thereafter a wine importing business Today he is one of the most successful importers of traditionally made wines crafted at limited production family owned vineyards in France and Italy In Reflections of a Wine Merchant Rosenthal shares the experience of learning his trade the friendships the adventures and the challenges of convincing others to love what he loves He introduces us to his growers steeped for generations in the lore of their land who make wines of pronounced character using time honored and unscientific methods of grape growing and vinification We travel with Rosenthal into their homes cellars vineyards and family circles and listen to them muse on their work and speak of their traditions Among this exceptional range of personalities we meet the formidable Madame Jeanne Ferret in the Mconnais the now celebrated Giampiero and Paolo Bea of Umbria the amiable Luigi Ferrando in the foothills of the Alps the humble aristocrat Cyrille Portalis at his ancestral Chateau Pradeaux on the Mediterranean and many others Although each comes from a different background geography and history all are passionate about their land and vocation and are colorfully opinionated in their views We learn how they unveil the subtleties of their individual terroir and discover the mystery of how their wines express not only where they are produced but also the personalities and principles behind them With Rosenthal as our guide we voyage through the great wine regions of France and Italy parse the peculiar mind set of the Burgundians view the dramatic shifts in Bordeaux and confront the obstacles posed by globalized marketing and the media's blunt edged ratings systems We witness from his unique perspective three decades of remarkable controversy hype and change Above all we share the joys and pitfalls for growers and merchants alike of an often enviable business that goes back to the beginnings of civilization and that as Rosenthal deftly explains can connect us with our deepest values
