The Teacher Toolkit Guide to Questioning is available now. Littell's Living Age, 1878. Essays on the Active Powers of the Human Mind Thomas Reid, 1819. St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1921. The Canadian Magazine, 1923. Imagining a Nation Ruramisai Charumbira, 2015-09-29. In Imagining a Nation Ruramisai Charumbira analyzes competing narratives of the founding of Rhodesia, Zimbabwe, constructed by political and cultural nationalists, both black and white, since occupation in 1890. The book uses a wide array of sources, including archives, oral histories, and a national monument, to explore the birth of racialized national memories and parallel identities that were in vigorous contention as memory sought to present itself as history. In contrast with current global politics, plagued by divisions of outsider and insider, patriot and traitor, Charumbira invites the reader into the liminal spaces of the region's history and questions the centrality of the nation-state in understanding African or postcolonial history today. Using an interdisciplinary methodology, Charumbira offers a series of case studies, bringing in characters from far-flung places to show that history and memory in and of one small place can have a far-reaching impact in the wider world. The questions raised by these stories go beyond the history of colonized or colonizer in one former colony to illuminate contemporary vexations about what it means to be a citizen, patriot, or member of a nation in an ever-globalizing world. Rather than a history of how the rulers of Rhodesia or Zimbabwe marshaled state power to force citizens to accept a single definition of national memory and identity, Imagining a Nation shows how ordinary people invested in the soft power of individual, social, and collective memories to create and perpetuate exclusionary national myths. Reconsiderations in Southern African History The Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine, 1814. Brothers in the Mekong Delta Godfrey Garner, 2020-04-10. Following the Tet Offensive, a shift in U.S. naval strategy in 1967-1968 saw young men fresh out of high school policing the canals and tributaries of South Vietnam aboard PBRs, patrol boat riverine, unarmored yet heavily armed, and highly maneuverable vessels designed to operate in shallow, weedy waterways. This memoir recounts the experiences of the author and his shipmates as they cruised the Viet Cong

occupied backwaters of the Mekong Delta and their emotional metamorphosis as wartime events shaped the men they would be for the remainder of their lives
