Funerals in Africa Michael Jindra,Joël Noret,2011-09-01 Across Africa funerals and events remembering the dead have become larger and even more numerous over the years Whereas in the West death is normally a private and family affair in Africa funerals are often the central life cycle event unparalleled in cost and importance for which families harness vast amounts of resources to host lavish events for multitudes of people with ramifications well beyond the event Though officials may try to regulate them the popularity of these events often makes such efforts fruitless and the elites themselves spend tremendously on funerals This volume brings together scholars who have conducted research on funerary events across sub Saharan Africa The contributions offer an in depth understanding of the broad changes and underlying causes in African societies over the years such as changes in religious beliefs social structure urbanization and technological changes and health

Fairman,Duro Ladipo,Tekle Hawariat,Elvania Namukwaya Zirimu,Wole Soyinka,Ama Ata Aidoo,Athol Fugard,Derek Walcott,Michael Gilkes,a Yoruba Masquerade,2023-11-02 The power of theatrical performance is universal but the style and concerns of theatre are specific to individual cultures This volume in the Global Theatre Perspectives series presents a reconstructed ancient performance text four one act indigenous African plays and five modern dramas from various regions of Africa and the Caribbean Diaspora Because these plays span centuries and are the work of artists from diverse cultures readers can see elements that occur across time and space Physicalized ritual direct interaction with spectators improvisation music drumming and metaphorical animal characters help create the theatrical forms in multiple plays Recurring themes include the establishment or challenging of political authority the oppression or corruption of government societal expectations based on gender the complex and transformational nature of identity and the power of dreams Though each play is its own unique entity reading them together allows readers to explore what theatrical elements and cultural concerns are perhaps essentially African The Caribbean plays add further perspective to the questions of what values theatrical and societal are part of African drama how these have influenced the Caribbean aesthetic and what the relationships are between the old and new world Among the creators of the pieces are two Nobel Laureates those who have been exiled or jailed for the political nature of their work and the author of his country's first constitution The volume can serve as the primary text for an intensive semester long investigation of African drama and culture But it is also possible to use this volume along with others in the series as texts for a single course on drama from around the world The global perspectives approach letting works from ancient indigenous and modern times resonate with each other encourages thinking across boundaries and connective human understanding

Voices of the Poor in Africa Elizabeth Allo Isichei, 2004 An ambitious new approach to African studies utilizing indigenous sources to bring back the voices of the native Africans in their own words rather than that of colonizers and foreigners Elizabeth Isichei explores the Atlantic slave trade as reflected in the poetics of rumour and the poetics of memory an approach different from the quantitative and demographic studies which have transformed the subject over the past twenty years To this and to her study of popular consciousness in the colony and postcolony she brings together a wide range of disciplines ethnography art and art history and contemporary literary theory among them to look at the intellectual history of Africa from African rather than European premises The result is a history of popular consciousness which shows the experiences of ordinary people often in protest to an ongoing experience of exploitation Elizabeth Isichei is Professor of Religious Studies Otago University Dunedin New Zealand and author of over a dozen books on African history and religion She holds an Oxford doctorate and a D Litt from the University of Canterbury and is a fellow of the Royal Society N Z

The Palgrave Handbook of Transnational Women's Writing in the Long Nineteenth Century Claire Emilie Martin, Clorinda Donato, 2024-03-14 This handbook explores the rich and as yet understudied field of women's writing during the nation building years that characterized the global politics of the long nineteenth century In the wake of the American and French Revolutions the waning of the Spanish Empire subsequent Latin American uprisings and the Italian Risorgimento nineteenth century women writers cracked wide open the myths of gender race and class that had sustained the ancien régime This volume shows that the transnational networks of women writing about politics sexuality economics and the forging of the modern nation were much broader and more inclusive at a global level than has previously been understood The handbook uniquely foregrounds French Italian Latin American and Spanish women writers focusing on the transnational nature of their relationships and cultural production within a growing body of research that casts an ever wider net in the effort to document women's voices

Slaves and Slavery in Africa John Ralph Willis, 2005-08-12 First Published in 1986 Slavery in Islamic Africa has been a fascinating subject to which many scholars have referred but of which no detailed monograph has emerged The better part of the essays in these volumes has its ancestry in a conference held at Princeton University during the Summer of 1977 under the title Islamic Africa Slavery and Related Institutions At that international gathering four principal themes dominated discussion the servile estate its genesis and composition the master slave connection and the post servile condition patterns and perspectives of slave trading the legacy of Islamic slavery in Africa to contemporary societies

Politics of Origin in Africa Morten Bøås, Kevin C. Dunn, 2013-02-14 In this revealing new book Bøås and Dunn explore the phenomenon of autochthony literally son of the soil in African politics In contemporary Africa questions concerning origin are currently among the most crucial and contested issues in political life directly relating to the politics of place belonging identity and contested citizenship Thus land claims and autochthony disputes are the hallmark of political crises in many places on the African continent Examining the often complex reasons behind this recent rise of autochthony across a number of high profile case studies including the Democratic Republic of Congo Côte d'Ivoire Liberia and Kenya this is an essential book for anyone wishing to understand the impact of this crucial issue on contemporary African politics and conflicts

Overcoming the Corruption Conundrum in Africa Anzanilufuno Munyai, 2020-01-15 This book adopts a holistic approach to identifying what could be done to surmount the corruption conundrum in the African continent It acknowledges the objective reality of corruption in Africa and identifies primary solutions to the issue The volume takes a socio legal approach in order to reveal the nature and extent of corruption and suggests that solutions can be found simply by interrogating how society reacts to it In conjunction with this the book identifies and critiques constraints in the formation of a definitive definition of corruption As shown here although it is critical for African states to develop anti corruption strategies the solution to the problem requires an understanding of the significance of political will and how the lack thereof has led to the endurance of corruption in Africa

Preparing for the Future of HIV/AIDS in Africa Institute of Medicine, Board on Global Health, Committee on Envisioning a Strategy to Prepare for the Long-Term Burden of HIV/AIDS: African Needs and U.S. Interests, 2011-04-28 HIV/AIDS is a catastrophe globally but nowhere more so than in sub-Saharan Africa which in 2008 accounted for 67 percent of cases worldwide and 91 percent of new infections The Institute of Medicine recommends that the United States and African nations move toward a strategy of shared responsibility such that these nations are empowered to take ownership of their HIV AIDS problem and work to solve it African Literature in French Dorothy S.

Blair,1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards Rewriting the Return of Africa

Anne M. François,2011-08-16 Rewriting The Return to Africa Voices of Francophone Caribbean Women Writers examines the ways Guadeloupean women writers Maryse Condé Simone Schwarz Bart and Myriam Warner Vieyra demystify the theme of the return to Africa as opposed to the its masculinist version by Negritude male writers from the 1930s to 1960s Negritude a cultural and literary movement drew much of its strength from the idea of a mythical or cultural reconnection with the African past allegorized as a mother figure In contrast these women writers of the post colonial era who are to large extent heirs of Negritude differ sharply from their male counterparts in their representation of Africa In their novels the continent is not represented as a propitious mother figure but a disappointing father figure This study argues that these women writers subversion of the metaphorical figure of Africa and its transformation is tied to their gender The women novelists are indeed critical of a female allegorization of the land that is reminiscent of a colonial or nationalist project and a simplistic representation of motherhood that does not reflect the complexities of the Diaspora's relation to origins and identity Unlike the primary male writers of the Negritude movement they carefully gendered the notion of return by choosing female protagonists who made their way back to the Motherland in search of identity I argue that writing is a more suitable space for the female subject seeking identity because it allows her to have a voice and become subject rather than object as that was the case with the Negritude writers The women writers shattering of the image of Mother Africa and subsequently that of Father Africa highlights the complex relationship between Africa and the Diaspora from a female point of view It shifts the identity quest of the characters towards the Caribbean which emerges as the real problematic mother a multi faceted fragmented figure that reflects the constitutive clash that occurred in the archipelago between Europe Africa and the Americas where the issues of race gender class culture ethnicity history and language are very complex Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies,2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all
