THE DEAN OF ST. PAUL'S

THE REV. FREDERICK H. M. MONTAGUE,
DEAN OF ST. PAUL'S

The history of St. Paul's Cathedral is a story of many centuries. It is a story of the growth of the Church in London, and of the influence of the Cathedral upon the city. The Cathedral has been the seat of the Bishop of London since the time of St. Paul the Apostle. It has been the scene of many important events in the history of the Church and the country. The Cathedral has been the home of many great men, and it has been the place where many of the most important decisions of the Church have been made. The Cathedral has been the center of the life of the city for many centuries, and it will continue to be so for many more. The Cathedral is a great work of art, and it is a great source of inspiration to all who see it. It is a great reminder of the power of the Church, and of the influence of the Cathedral upon the city.
