Ramelli, J.A. McGuckin, Piotr Ashwin-Siejkowski, 2021-12-16 Exploring the key documents authors and themes of Early Christian traditions this volume traces the vital trajectories of emerging distinctive Christian identity in the Graeco Roman world Special attention is given to the coherent growth of Christian faith in connection with worship alongside the crucial transformation of Christian life and doctrine under the Christian Emperors As well as offering a chronological development of the Early Church the book examines the interaction between Christian worship and faith In addition readers interested in systematic theology can refer to chapters on the roots of some significant theological notions in Christian Antiquity also with reference to ancient philosophy Issues addressed include Distinctiveness of the Christian identity during the first centuries Diversity of communities and their theologies Connection between faith and worship Transition from the persecuted minority to triumphant Church with Creeds History of early Christian thought and modern systematic theology A Cultural History of Disability in the Long Nineteenth Century Joyce L. Huff, Martha Stoddard Holmes, 2023-05-17 The long 19th century stretching from the start of the American Revolution in 1776 to the end of World War I in 1918 was a pivotal period in the history of disability for the Western world and the cultures under its imperial sway Industrialization was a major factor in the changing landscape of disability providing new adaptive technologies and means of access while simultaneously contributing to the creation of a mass produced environment hostile to bodies and minds that did not adhere to emerging norms In defining disability medical views which framed disabilities as problems to be solved competed with discourses from such diverse realms as religion entertainment education and literature Disabled writers and activists generated important counternarratives made increasingly available through the spread of print culture An essential resource for researchers scholars and students of history literature culture and education A Cultural History of Disability in the Long Nineteenth Century includes chapters on atypical bodies mobility impairment chronic pain and illness blindness deafness speech dysfluencies learning difficulties and mental health with 37 illustrations drawn from period sources

Encyclopedia of Disability Gary L Albrecht, 2006 Presents current knowledge of and experience with disability across a wide variety of places conditions and cultures to both the general reader and the specialist

Disabilities in Roman Antiquity Christian Laes, Chris Goodey, M. Lynn Rose, 2013-05-30 This is the first volume ever to systematically study the subject of disabilities in the Roman world The contributors examine the topic a capite ad calcem from head to toe Chapters deal with mental and intellectual disability alcoholism visual impairment speech disorders hermaphroditism monstrous births mobility problems osteology and visual representations of disparate bodies The authors fully engage with literary papyrological and epigraphical sources while iconography and osteo archaeology are taken into account Also the late ancient evidence is taken into account Refraining from a radical constructionist standpoint the contributors acknowledge the possibility of discovering significant differences in the way impairment was culturally viewed or assessed

Dis/ability in Mark Lena Michelle Nogosseck-Raithel, 2023-10-04 The gospel of Mark purposefully employs characters with specific and nuanced representations of disability to portray the unique authority the engaging message and the mission of the Markan Jesus Based on hermeneutical insights from Disability Studies this monograph is a contribution to the research of culturally and historically normalized corporeality in the biblical scriptures At the core of the investigation are the healing narratives passages that explicitly deal with a transformation from a described deviant bodily state to a positively valued corporeality Lena Nogosseck Raithel not only analyzes the terminological and historical descriptions of these physical phenomena but also investigates their narrative function for the gospel text The author argues that the images of disability employed are far from accidental Rather they significantly influence the narrative's structure and impact embody its theological claims and characterize its protagonist Jesus With this thorough exegetical analysis Nogosseck Raithel offers a firm historical foundation for anyone interested in the critical interpretation and theological application of the Markan healing narratives
