Staging Gertrude Stein Absence Culture And The Landscape Of American Alternative Theatre:

Staging Gertrude Stein Leslie Atkins Durham, 2005-10-14 Gertrude Stein's dramatic texts rely on the absence of many landmarks of traditional theater but absence is a very difficult thing to stage Iconoclastic directors and production teams including Virgil Thomson the Living Theatre the Judson Poets Theatre the Santa Fe Opera the Glimmerglass Opera the Wooster Group Robert Wilson Anne Bogart Frank Galati and Heiner Goebbels have ardently roamed Stein's spare dramatic landscapes but even these convention defying artists had to fill some of her absences in order to bring the texts to life on stage Inevitably contemporary culture infiltrates Stein's pristine topography via these extra textual additions transforming it in ways virtually unimaginable when the reader encounters the text on the printed page It is only by mapping the intersections of written text performance text and context that one can gain a full appreciation of what Stein's dramatic writing has meant at various historical moments how she herself has been imagined and how her writing has transformed the landscape of the American alternative theater The Composition of Sense in Gertrude Stein's Landscape Writing Linda Voris, 2016-10-12 This book offers a bold critical method for reading Gertrude Stein's work on its own terms by forgoing conventional explanation and adopting Stein's radical approach to meaning and knowledge Inspired by the immanence of landscape both of Provence where she travelled in the 1920s and the spatial relations of landscape painting Stein presents a new model of meaning whereby making sense is an activity distributed in a text and across successive texts From love poetry to plays and portraiture Linda Voris offers close readings of Stein's most anthologized and less known writing in a case study of a new method of interpretation By practicing Stein's innovative means of making sense Voris reveals the excitement of her discoveries and the startling implications for knowledge identity and intimacy Theater of the Avant-Garde, 1890-1950 Robert Knopf, 2015-01-01 An essential volume for theater artists and students alike this anthology includes the full texts of sixteen important examples of avant garde drama from the most daring and influential artistic movements of the first half of the twentieth century including Symbolism Futurism Expressionism Dada and Surrealism Each play is accompanied by a bio critical introduction by the editor and a critical essay frequently written by the playwright which elaborates on the play's dramatic and aesthetic concerns A new introduction by Robert Knopf and Julia Listengarten contextualizes the plays in light of recent critical developments in avant garde studies By examining the groundbreaking theatrical experiments of Jarry Maeterlinck Strindberg Artaud and others the book foregrounds the avant garde's enduring influence on the development of modern theater Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1930s Anne Fletcher, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major playwrights and their works to receive in depth coverage in this volume include Clifford Odets Waiting for Lefty 1935 Awake and Sing 1935 and Golden Boy 1937 Lillian Hellman The Children s Hour 1934 The Little Foxes 1939 and Days to Come 1936 Langston Hughes Mulatto 1935 Mule Bone 1930 with Zora Neale Hurston and Little Ham 1936 Gertrude Stein Doctor Faustus Lights the Lights 1938 Four Saints in Three Acts written in 1927 published in 1932 and Listen to Me 1936
