The Stained Glass Classroom Vicki Payne, 2006 Classroom 15 Peter Laufer, 2020-12-15 A result of an investigative report by tenacious University of Oregon journalism students Classroom 15 tells the story of how the dreams of fourth grade students at the Riverside School Roseburg in rural Oregon timber country were crushed by the prevailing Red Scare McCarthyism state and societal censorship and J Edgar Hoover's FBI The teacher of Classroom 15 known fondly as Mr McFetridge assigned a pen pal project in an effort to take geography lessons outside of the classroom Imagining a place as far from Oregon as they possibly could the students wrote letters to nine and ten year old counterparts in the Soviet Union Janice Boyle the class secretary reached out to Oregon's Congressional representative Charles O Porter seeking assistance connecting with peers in Russia Representative Porter forwarded the letter to the Secretary of State Christian Herter and a week later the students received the shocking and disheartening news that their benign request had been needlessly denied In the wake of McCarthyism the Eisenhower administration subverted the assignment fearing Communist propaganda would infect the innocent minds of eager Oregon schoolchildren The students' plight quickly gained national attention with stories running from the Roseburg News Review to the New York Times The publicity didn't miss the attention of J Edgar Hoover's FBI His agents investigated They traveled to Roseburg collected evidence and took it back to the Bureau's regional headquarters in Portland The public reaction was swift and unrelenting The teacher and the Congressman were attacked by outraged Roseburg citizens the school board and enraged Americans across the country Classroom 15 is all the above and a page turning adventure story told with the voices of the empowered tenacious University of Oregon journalism students who took the nascent story and demonstrated their unwavering devotion to the journalistic process by telling the tale
