Stairway Of Surprise Six Steps To A Creative Life:

Stairway of Surprise Michael Lipson, 2002 This book will open your life to the surprising depth of the simple and ordinary For most of us life is often a humdrum course of the same old and the nothing new We may dream about running away to exotic lands or retreating to distant monasteries but the whirligig of life won't let us out of its clutches Stairway of Surprise has become a new classic of anthroposophic spiritual practice Dr Michael Lipson revises Rudolf Steiner's six basic exercises to make them relevant to our lives today With examples drawn from world literature and from his psychotherapy practice Lipson shows how these exercises stretch from common events in daily life to the depths of spiritual experience The path of meditation offered here is experiential from start to finish not something to think only but something to live By practicing these exercises for a few minutes each day we can discover the surprise in the universe which is usually hidden from us by our stale habitual attitudes

CONTENTS Introduction I Thinking II Doing III Feeling IV Loving V Opening VI Thanking

Weekly Meditations Rudolf Steiner, Patsy Scala, 2008-03 The coming of Winter plays an important role in the cycle of nature In this delightfully illustrated story young children can find that for every thing there is a season Winter Awake shows what happens one year when Winter will not wake The tired trees need to rest Their fallen leaves have made a leafy blanket for the sleeping seeds All the woodland creatures try to tell Winter their work is done They scold and mock and urge but Winter will not wake until at last the round red ladybug in her small soft voice whispers something gently in his ear and mighty Winter awakes Ages 5 to 7 years

The Counselor . . . as if Soul and Spirit Matter William Bento, Edmond Knighton, 2015-03-01 In an anthroposophic approach to counseling and psychotherapy we integrate the whole paradigm of spiritual science into the contemporary forms of psychology thereby reformulating a psychology inclusive of body soul and spirit Dr William Bento Executive Director of Anthroposophic Psychology Associates of North America APANA The art of counseling is practiced in many settings An uncle counsels a troubled niece A licensed professional clinical counselor LPCC works in a treatment center for drug addicts A counselor can also be everything in between the two If you consider everyone who mentors another from life coaches to police officers to wedding planners to lawyers to intimate friends counseling includes all of us Whereas mainstream counseling psychology has been moving increasingly toward cognitive and pharmacological approaches this book brings us back to a psychology of soul and spirit Through the guidance of Anthroposophy the becoming human being and Sophia and divine wisdom counselors will rediscover here an approach to people that has the heart of soul and the light of spirit

Parenting with Values Christiane Kutik, 2018-03-29 What do we as parents need to give our children to ensure they grow up to be happy well balanced and resilient people Parenting tutor and mother of two Christiane Kutik tells us that above all children need their parents to give them strong values to help them find their way in life Many of us consider values to be an old fashioned concept but Kutik suggests that by fostering twelve vital values parents can provide their children with all the tools they need to flourish to discover the worth of non material rewards and to have an emotionally enriching life Parenting with Values encourages parents to reflect on which values they want to pass on to their children In twelve short easy to digest chapters Kutik discusses the essential qualities that children need and explains how each one is learned and passed on from parent to child The twelve essential values Kutik identifies are Self esteem Compassion Honesty Respect Sensibility Humour Security Capacity to manage conflict Independence Interest in the world Soulfulness Connection to the natural world This engaging and readable book is filled with practical everyday examples of values in action It will provide inspiration for parents who wish to proactively encourage positive development in their children

Why on Earth? Signe Ecklund Schaefer, 2013-12-01 Life today poses many questions both in our personal lives and in our participation in nature and the broader culture We often focus on the outer needs for social political technological or environmental change However can we really meet the challenges around us without also attending to our inner life and to our own evolving biography as it reflects and informs the outer world This book starts from the premise that each of our lives expresses uniqueness of spiritual intention within the unfolding of universal rhythms and possibilities Can we wake up to the developmental opportunities offered to us through different life phases Are we able to step out of the narrowness of the dualistic nature nurture argument and experience that we are both more than our genetic composition and more than a product of the social and educational influences that have shaped us Can we come to appreciate the learning that our I has received through heredity ethnicity schooling and gender without losing a sense of our true individuality Waking up to our unique self as it grows through interaction with the world and other human beings helps us recognize the significance we all play in one another's biographies and in the unfolding of our larger human story Why on Earth invites us to explore our own meaningful life journey to bring conscious attention to how we go our path so that we may more freely perceive our possibilities and our responsibilities along the way of our personal and shared becoming

Start Now! Rudolf Steiner, 2004 Start Now offers an extensive and representative sample of Steiner's spiritual instructions and meditative practices including meditation instructions mantric verses daily weekly and monthly practices for the development of soul qualities karmic exercises and meditations for working with the dead the angelic hierarchies and our guardian angel

The Stages of Higher Knowledge Rudolf Steiner, 2009-08 What does it mean to be human Human development unfolds in a twofold way On the one hand there is an ever more profound incarnation or inhabitation of the physical body On the other hand there is the increasing discrimination of the individual objects of the world Difficulties and obstacles along this path can lead to so called disabilities K nig's approach to curative education allows us to see these disabilities as meaningful ways of coping with or resolving the various problems that arise in living in a physical body From this point of view disabilities are exaggerated forms of ways we all use to cope with life The point is not only to see the deviations but to see them against the mighty backdrop of a comprehensive child anthropology Being Human presents the outline of just such a comprehensive anthropology Being Human is of value not only to those working in special education but to anyone interested in the dynamics of incarnation and normal development Autobiography Rudolf Steiner, 2006-05 4 lectures Dornach June 28 July 18 1923 CW 350 Truth and striving for truth must taste good to you and lies once you are conscious of them must taste bitter and poisonous You must not only know that human judgments have color but also that printer's ink nowadays is mostly deadly nightshade juice You must be able to experience this in all honesty and rectitude and once you can do so you will be in a state of spiritual transformation Rudolf Steiner What is the relationship between coming to see the secrets of the universe and one's own view of the world How far must one go before finding the higher worlds on the path of natural science Do cosmic forces influence all of humanity What connection do plants have with the human being and the human body In answering these questions Steiner covers a wide range of topics from the development of independent thinking and the ability to think backward to the uses of what seems boring and the reversal of thinking between the physical and spiritual worlds and from the physiology of dreams to living into nature and the spiritual dimension of various foods we eat As always in his lectures to the workers Steiner's style is clear direct and accessible This volume is a translation from German of four lectures from Rhythmen im Kosmos und im Menschenwesen Wie kommt man zum Schauen der geistigen Welt GA 350

Into the Heart's Land Henry Barnes, 2005-08 Henry Barnes the author of A Life for the Spirit brings us a comprehensive view of the roots and development of anthroposophy throughout North America From its seminal beginnings with a few hearty souls in New York City it moved across the prairies to the west coast and beyond to Canada Mexico and Hawaii and took root in the hearts and minds of the new world Here is the story of those adventurous spirits who took responsibility for bringing the work of Rudolf Steiner to North America in the form of study groups agricultural initiatives Waldorf and special education the arts and so much more
