The Gospel Without Compromise By Doherty Catherine De Hueck:

Catherine de Hueck Doherty Catherine de Hueck Doherty, 2009 Catherine de Hueck Doherty 1896 1985 a Russian born aristocrat who has recently been proposed for canonization emigrated to North America dedicated her life to promoting the gospel without compromise Her vision combined a deep spirituality with a commitment to social justice One of her early projects was the Harlem based Friendship House which attracted a young Thomas Merton Later with her second husband Eddie Doherty she established Madonna House in Combermere Ontario Though Roman Catholic Catherine drew on her Russian roots and helped popularize the concept of Poustinia the Russian word for desert a place where a person meets God through solitude prayer and fasting These writings drawn from 25 books highlight her distinctive spirituality with its emphasis on the presence of God the practice of prayer a love for the church and a deep apprehension of the social dimension of the gospel Living the Gospel Without Compromise Catherine de Hueck Doherty, Heigberger, Marian, 2002 Recent events in world history are showing that cracks are beginning to form in our modern economic political and technological world In the midst of this people of all kinds be they powerful rulers of nations or the humble poor on the street corner are beginning to awake to the powerful spirituality that has been hidden just below the surface of their daily lives Some are filing into churches in droves while others are muttering quiet prayers as they lie in bed but all are hungering for answers How can we find security Where is all of this leading us In this important book compiled from writings of Catherine Doherty she speaks straight from the heart with wisdom and clarity about the problems facing us in the modern world A Russian refugee who made good and then gave up everything to serve the poor of America Catherine has unique and startling insight into the stark realities of the life of faith from the very rich to the very poor The answers my surprise us by their simplicity but they must begin in ourselves and be incarnated in our own lives before we can expect them to take root and change the world There is concrete help within these pages and solutions which will help us all to make an unequivocal choice to live the gospel without compromise in our lives The Colonial Compromise Miguel A. De La Torre, 2020-12-04 This book explores the different types of compromises Indian people were forced to make and must continue to do so in order to be included in the colonizer's religion and culture The contributors in this collection are in conversation with the contributions made by Tink Tinker an American Indian scholar who is known for his work on Native American liberation theology The contributors engage with the following questions in this book How much of one's identity must be sacrificed in order to belong in the world of the colonizer How much of one's culture requires silencing And more importantly how can the colonized survive when constantly asked and forced to compromise Specifically what is uniquely Indian and gets completely lost in this interaction Scholars of religious studies American studies American Indian studies theology sociology and anthropology will find this book particularly useful Seasons of Love Eleanor Sampeck, 2004 Twenty five years ago an extended family made a return to nature move to the country This magical book is the record of their struggles and growth

The book achieves its vividly realistic tone by covering the family's lived experience from joy to sorrow life and death and lofty to such mundane details as manure for the garden Its pages are populated by four generations unusual in a time when the nuclear family is everything Although the work is supported by sound theological and psychological theory it never lingers too long in these realms but continues the daily drama of one family's risky living of the gospel A Liberation for the Earth A.M. Ranawana,2022-11-30 In the encyclical Laodato Si Pope Francis describes the earth as the new poor opening it up as a place in need of liberation The fate of the poor the marginalised and those on the wrong side of the western colonial project is inextricably tied up with the fate of the planet In A Liberation for the Earth Anupama Ranawana explores the nexus between climate race and the liberative potential of the cross Reflecting on the entanglement between colonialization and the destruction of the planet she considers how this entanglement is played out and resisted within faith based and secular ecological justice movements in Canada Sri Lanka and the United Kingdom Staritsa Donald A. Guglielmi,2017-12-07 The present book is the first work to highlight Catherine Doherty's vocation to spiritual motherhood Drawing upon primary archival sources the author traces Catherine's development as a staritsa or spiritual mother in the Russian Eastern tradition Of particular interest are the chapters dealing with Catherine's exercise of spiritual motherhood for priests and laity alike Previously unpublished letters of spiritual direction between Catherine and her major spiritual directors offer the reader a privileged glimpse into the soul of this servant of God and her spiritual children as she grows in her vocation as staritsa For example in one striking letter Catherine describes how she guided a disillusioned young priest who was struggling with a drinking problem and temptations involving young women and was bordering on despair With clenched teeth I sailed into him first gently almost caressingly calling him back to Christ he once loved then more sternly then quietly He left full of thanks and some hope Understanding World Religions David Whitten Smith,Elizabeth Geraldine Burr,2014-08-21 Understanding World Religions introduces students to major worldviews including Hindu Buddhist Muslim Jewish Christian Native American and Marxist through the lens of justice and peace The second edition has been updated and revised throughout After an introduction to key themes in studying world religion chapters help students explore major traditions today Each chapter takes a similar approach examining several dimensions of each tradition experiential and emotional social and institutional narrative or mythic doctrinal and philosophical practical and ritual and ethical and legal Chapters feature profiles of major peacemakers or groups to bring the traditions to life Profiles range from Gandhi and Martin Luther King to Thich Nhat Hanh and Dorothy Day Further chapters explore liberation theologies active nonviolence and just war theory The second edition features a broader framework than the first edition and includes new material on non religious ethical norms Islamophobia colonial evangelization religion in China and an updated examination of the Israel Palestine conflict Understanding World Religions remains a powerful introduction to major worldviews with an emphasis on practical connections to peace and justice The Furious Longing of God Brennan Manning,2009 The author of the bestselling Ragamuffin Gospel illumines the most powerful force in the universe God's intense love for his children God's Superheroes Mary Bajda.
