China s political and diplomatic involvement in the Hungarian crisis and the influence this crisis had on a series of mysterious policy shifts Negotiated Power in Late Imperial China Jennifer M. Rudolph,2008 Negotiated Power in Late Imperial

China The Zongli Yamen and the Politics of Reform explores the nature and functioning of reform during the nineteenth century of China s Qing dynasty 1644 1911 By analyzing the bureaucratic modes of management that developed around the creation and evolution of the Zongli Yamen or Foreign Office 1861 1901 the book demonstrates the vitality of not only the Chinese State but also the institutional traditions of its Manchu rulers Drawing on precedent and the flexibility of the administrative system in their efforts to manage the conduct of foreign affairs high Qing ministers transformed opportunities for institutional dynamism into the reality of a functioning central Zongli Yamen with a foreign affairs field administration supporting it in the provinces In the process they altered the governmental hierarchy and changed the definition of institutional power in the multi faceted area of foreign affairs and more generally for the Qing bureaucracy As the most significant example of institutional development in China s critical period of the nineteenth century the Zongli Yamen s experience serves as valuable background for understanding reform efforts in late imperial China and beyond

Disarming the Allies of Imperialism Michael G. Murdock, 2006 This study provides a striking new explanation of how China s Nationalist Party GMD defeated its rivals in the revolution of 1922 1929 and helped bring some degree of unification to a country torn by class regional and ideological interests Disarming the Allies of Imperialism argues that inconsistency more than culture ideology or any other factor gave nationalism its unique edge Revolutionary leaders manipulated revolutionaries and non revolutionaries alike to advantage their own positions and seize national power sometimes seeking to protect foreign lives and property and shield Chinese merchants from agitative disruptions sometimes voting to do the opposite Exploiting the symbiotic yet contradictory relationship between state building which sought foreign ties and international recognition and low level agitators committed to confrontational anti imperialist objectives top Guomindang leaders were able to manipulate political circumstances to their own benefit For example party leaders stirred up anti Christian sentiment pitting popular forces against mission schools while simultaneously intervening to rescue these same schools from agitative destruction thus helping missionaries to soften their attitudes toward the revolution and eventually embrace the new order Scholars of modern Chinese history and anyone familiar with the growing literature on nationalism will appreciate this work for its elucidation of a complex historical snarl while undergraduates and scholars outside the China field will find this a useful and accessible study as well
