Epperson v Arkansas that declared laws forbidding the teaching of evolution as unconstitutional This case is also considered in light of two other court cases decided that decade Engel v Vitale that removed state initiated prayers in the classroom and Abington School District v Schempp that ruled against a daily Bible reading in school How were these cases similar Since evolution had to be taught efforts were made to have evolution and creation taught side by side These efforts brought about two court cases McLean v Arkansas Board of Education and Edwards v Aguillard McLean v Arkansas Board of Education dealt with an Arkansas law and was decided in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas and was limited to that region Edwards v Aguillard was a similar law passed in Louisiana which was appealed all the way to the United States Supreme Court The justices declared the teaching of scientific creationism was religious teaching and thus unconstitutional The final case that is examined in this work is Kitzmiller v Dover Area School District The school board in Dover Pennsylvania wanted to see its students become aware of intelligent design A good deal of this case centered on showing that intelligent design is religious teaching so that the judge could rule against it based on the earlier court cases against a religious view being taught in public schools Fake Evidence closes with a look at some of the view expressed against religion in Kitzmiller v Dover Area School District and the dangers found in those views The book also contains several appendices including one on The Fruits of Evolution
