Killing Time and Other Stories Joel Townsley Rogers, 2007-11 From THE JURY BOX Jon Breen's critical column in ELLERY QUEEN Mystery Magazine Joel Townsley Rogers Killing Time and Other Stories with introduction and afterword by Alfred Jan Ramble House Six longish pulp stories dating from 1934 to 1947 represent an undervalued writer The title story about a disabled World War II veteran trying to break into mystery writing offers affectionate parody and fair play detection while the magazine version of the classic The Red Right Hand captures its offbeat flavor only slightly less effectively than at full length The outre plots often involve coincidence though not to the fantastical extent of Harry Stephen Keeler whose complete works are offered by Ramble House An indispensable companion is the earlier Rogers collection Night of Horror and Other Stories Ramble House including the much anthologized minor classic The Murderer and a Rogers bibliography compiled by son Tom Rogers expanded by Francis M Nevins And here's what four of America's favorite authors about town have to say about Ramble House's two Joel Townsley Rogers collections NIGHT OF HORROR and KILLING TIME Rogers was the real deal author of a true masterpiece The Red Right Hand and a pulp man who could and did do it all If you want the strong heady thrill of genuine pulp and not the pale imitation that came later latch on to both of these collections immediately Ed Gorman Killing Time collects six pulp novellas by Joel Townsley Rogers including the original version of the classic The Red Right Hand along with a story about a pulp writer and a story with a character named Captain Sparrow whom I like to think is a distant cousin to the famous Pirate of the Caribbean Highly recommended Bill Crider The six tales gathered here are among Joel Townsley Rogers most accomplished pulp magazine contributions of the 30s and 40s cleverly plotted highly atmospheric suspenseful and dripping with menace The original magazine version of his classic crime novel The Red Right Hand and Alfred Jan's insightful analyses of Rogers work are the highlights Killing Time is a must for every connoisseur of vintage crime fiction Bill Pronzini Ramble House has specialized in bringing neglected and sometimes alternative geniuses back into print First came the great Harry Stephen Keeler then the so clever Norman Berrow More recently Ramble House has been sparking the rehabilitation of Joel Townsley Rogers a versatile and prolific author who seemed to be totally forgotten save for one novel The Red Right Hand Killing Time is the second Ramble House collection of Rogers's shorter fiction and every story in it from the 1934 Murder of the Dead Man to the 1947 title story hits with a wallop and a sting Bravo Bravissimo Richard A Lupoff

The Sand Man and Other Stories E.T.A. Hoffmann, 2025-09-22 The Sand man and Other Stories brings together some of E T A Hoffmann's most influential tales where the fantastic and the uncanny intersect with psychological depth The central story The Sandman follows Nathanael a young man haunted since childhood by a terrifying figure associated with the legend of the Sandman As an adult he becomes obsessed with the mysterious Coppola a lens seller whom he believes to be the same menacing figure His fascination with the automaton Olympia whom he mistakes for a living woman ultimately drives him into madness The story is a powerful exploration of fear obsession and the fragile boundary between illusion and reality Other stories in the collection expand Hoffmann's fascination with the uncanny In Councillor Krespel a violin maker's eccentric behavior masks a tragic secret tied to music and love The Mines of Falun recounts the story of a miner lured by supernatural forces beneath the earth torn between worldly love and mystical destiny Each tale blends detailed realism with fantastic elements creating a constant tension between the rational and the irrational The collection is unified by themes of obsession distorted perception and the power of imagination Hoffmann's characters often lose themselves in dreams desires or delusions suggesting that the human mind is as mysterious and unpredictable as the supernatural itself His narrative style both ironic and lyrical invites readers into a world where reality is never stable and where everyday objects or events conceal hidden dangers and meanings E T A Hoffmann 1776-1822 was a German writer composer and jurist recognized as one of the founders of modern fantastic literature His works influenced later authors such as Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens and Franz Kafka In The Sandman and Other Stories Hoffmann demonstrates his mastery in blending psychological insight with Gothic and Romantic elements leaving a legacy of tales that continue to intrigue readers with their complexity and unsettling power

Temples of Desire and other Stories K.R. Chandrahas, 2019-08-12 Temples of Desire and Other Stories have a compelling narrative that takes you through a multitude of intrigues and happenings woven around the very social fibre of countryside India gripping the reader like a vice Sexual promiscuity and permissiveness greed and integrity and blind beliefs are the engines of stimulus that drive the behaviour of the characters of the five short stories from the author's quiver Read on as the realisation dawns that she had become helpless and migratory like a stray chicken in the world of foxes
