Food Culture in Germany Ursula Heinzelmann, 2008-06-30 The grown up Germany of today is able to explore its cultural identity including its food culture For some years now German food has seen a return to regionalism and beloved traditional dishes have been rediscovered and revived counteracting to some extent the effects of globalization and industrialization As well a host of new culinary traditions brought in with new immigrants makes for an exciting food scene Food Culture in Germany written by a native Berliner is destined to become a classic as the best source in English for a thorough and up to date understanding of Germans and their food the history foodstuffs cooking special occasions lifestyle eating habits and diet and health The Historical Overview chapter takes the reader on a culinary tour from ancient times through the Holy Roman Empire to the Lebensraum of Hitler and on to reunification of the two Germanys until today s return to normalcy Chapter 2 Major Foods and Ingredients highlights the classic German staples Chapter 3 Cooking discusses the family and gender dynamics plus cooking techniques and utensils the German kitchen and the professional chef as media figure phenomenon The Typical Meals chapter gives an in depth insider s look at how and what Germans eat today Chapter 5 Eating Out describes the wide range of opportunities for eating out from grabbing Currywurst on the street to lunching in office and school cafeterias to meeting friends for coffee and cake at the Konditorei German holidays and special occasions are elaborated on in the context of more secular and younger influences in Chapter 6 Chapter 7 covers the German diet and the strong interest in health in the country with its holistic roots Food safety a big topic in Europe today is also discussed at length An introduction chronology glossary resource guide selected bibliography and illustrations complete this outstanding resource

Food and Culture Carole Counihan, Penny Van Esterik, Alice Julier, 2018-12-07 This innovative and global best seller helped establish food studies courses throughout the social sciences and humanities when it was first published in 1997 The fourth edition of Food and Culture contains favorite articles from earlier editions and several new pieces on food politics globalism agriculture and race and gender identity Pathways to High-Tech Valleys and Research Triangles Willem Hulsink, J. J. M. Dons, 2008-05-23 About the book The contents of most of the chapters included in this volume were originally presented and discussed during the academic workshop High tech

Valleys and Research Triangles in the East of the Netherlands and elsewhere held on 30 November and 1 December 2005 at the Wageningen International Congress Centre WICC in the Netherlands At that time we had an informal agreement with Rob Bogers series editor of the Wageningen UR Frontis book series that if the quality and quantity of the talks and papers at the seminar would be sufficient and if there was willingness among the potential authors an edited book volume based upon the results of the workshop would be a possibility After the workshop when we had a critical mass of ten chapters and a dedicated group of committed authors the book project was given the green light As editors we realized that there were still a couple of topics and themes missing and when we had found colleagues for these four additional chapters that needed to be written our Frontis book was on the roll Although most of the time it was great fun the whole process of writing reviewing rewriting editing and proofreading took a lot of time much more time than we originally had foreseen We would like to thank all authors of the fourteen chapters of this book for their excellent contributions

Post-structuralist Geography Jonathan Murdoch, 2006 An introduction to post structuralist theory that critically assesses how the concept can be used to study space and place this text communicates a new agenda for the study of human geography

Food & Freedom Carlo Petrini, 2015-09-01 Inspiring the global fight to revolutionize the way food is grown distributed and eaten In the almost thirty years since Carlo Petrini began the Slow Food organization he has been constantly engaged in the fight for food justice Beginning first in his native Italy and then expanding all over the world the movement has created a powerful force for change The essential argument of this book is that food is an avenue towards freedom This uplifting and humanistic message is straightforward if people can feed themselves they can be free In other words if people can regain control over access to their food how it is produced by whom and how it is distributed then that can lead to a greater empowerment in all channels of life Whether in the Amazon jungle talking with tribal elders or on rice paddies in rural Indonesia the author engages the reader through the excitement of his journeys and the passion of his mission Here Petrini reports upon some of the success stories that he has observed firsthand From Chiapas to Puglia Morocco to North Carolina he has witnessed the many ways different peoples have dealt with food problems This book allows us to learn from these case studies and lays out models for the future The Carnivore's Manifesto Patrick Martins,2014-06-10 One of The Atlantic s Best Food Books of 2014 fifty ways to be an enlightened carnivore while taking better care of our planet and ourselves from the founder of Slow Food USA We have evolved as meat eaters proclaims Patrick Martins and it s futile to deny it But given the destructive forces of the fast food industry and factory farming we need to make smart informed choices about the food we eat and where it comes from In 50 short chapters Martins cuts through organize zealotry and the misleading jargon of food labeling to outline realistic steps everyone can take to be part of the sustainable food movement With wit and insight and no small amount of provocation The Carnivore s Manifesto is both a revolutionary call to arms and a rollicking good read that will inspire engage and challenge anyone interested in the way we eat today The Handbook of Natural Plant Dyes Sasha Duerr,2011-01-19 Through step by step instructions and color saturated photographs textile designer Sasha Duerr explains the basics of making and using natural plant dye from gathering materials and making the dyes to simple ideas for how to use them from publisher description Lifestyle Brands S. Saviolo,A. Marazza,2012-12-05 What do brands like Apple Diesel Abercrombie Fitch and Virgin have in common and what differentiates them from other brands These brands are able to maintain a relationship with their clients that goes beyond brand loyalty This gives a complete analysis of Lifestyle Brands that inspire guide and motivate beyond product benefits alone Microfoundations of Institutions Patrick Haack,Jost Sieweke,Lauri Wessel,2019-11-25 The notion of microfoundations has received growing interest in neo institutional theory along with an increasing interest in microfoundational research in disciplines such as strategic management and organizational economics Hidden Kitchens Nikki Silva,Davia Nelson,2005-10-21 A volume based on the popular NPR radio series explores how communities come together through food combining popular stories from the show with new interviews photographs and recipes from a wide array of atypical kitchens The Political Language of Food Samuel Boerboom,2015-05-06 The Political Language of Food addresses why the language used in the production marketing selling and consumption of food is inherently political Food language is rarely neutral and is often strategically vague which tends to serve the interests of powerful entities Boerboom and his contributors critique the language of food based messages and examine how such language including idioms tropes euphemisms invented terms etc serves to both mislead and obscure relationships between food and the resulting community health labor and environmental impacts Employing diverse methodologies the contributors examine on a micro level the textual and rhetorical elements of food based language itself The Political Language of Food is both timely and important and will appeal to scholars of media studies political communication and rhetoric The Blackwell Cultural Economy Reader Ash Amin,Nigel Thrift,2008-04-15 This Reader brings together the exciting and innovative work that has appeared in the last 10 years in the growing field of cultural economy Brings together exciting and innovative work from the last ten years in the emerging field of cultural economy Contains a substantial introduction by the editors on the main strands and history of the cultural economy approach Shows how the pursuit of prosperity always involves multiple and hybrid orderings that cannot be reduced to either the terms culture or economy Shows that thinking about cultural economy is both a substantive task and a valuable contribution to knowledge Material is organised around different links in the value chain Geographies of Commodity Chains Alex Hughes, Suzanne Reimer, 2004-07-31 Broad geographical coverage including case studies from North American European and developing studies contexts Timely in view of increased popular and policy interest in the international origins of the commodities we buy and the often hidden environmental and social impacts of their production All chapters make an explicit and clear contribution to theorisations of the commodity chain Covers a wide range of products including food flowers home furnishings and clothing The Taste of Art Silvia Bottinelli, Margherita d'Ayala Valva, 2017-06-01 The Taste of Art offers a sample of scholarly essays that examine the role of food in Western contemporary art practices The contributors are scholars from a range of disciplines including art history philosophy film studies and history As a whole the volume illustrates how artists engage with food as matter and process in order to explore alternative aesthetic strategies and indicate countercultural shifts in society The collection opens by exploring the theoretical intersections of art and food food art s historical root in Futurism and the ways in which food carries gendered meaning in popular film Subsequent sections analyze the ways in which artists challenge mainstream ideas through food in a variety of scenarios Beginning from a focus on the body and subjectivity the authors zoom out to look at the domestic sphere and finally the public sphere Here are essays that study a range of artists including among others Filippo Tommaso Marinetti Daniel Spoerri Dieter Roth Joseph Beuys Al Ruppersberg Alison Knowles Martha Rosler Robin Weltsch Vicki Hodgetts Paul McCarthy Luciano Fabro Carries Mae Weems Peter Fischli and David Weiss Janine Antoni El bieta Jab o ska Liza Lou Tom Marioni Rirkrit Tiravanija Michael Rakowitz and Natalie Jeremijenko Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa John Elder, 2012-10-05 Set aside your Bella Tuscany's and Year in Provinces for a different kind of travel book Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa puts a walking stick in your hand and Marsh's Man and Nature in your knapsack exploring how Italians have managed their natural and cultural heritage in ways that sustain both John Elder's poetic meditations on land and life demonstrate that only by searching beyond our familiar boundaries can we discover better ways of living back at home Marcus Hall author of Earth Repair A Transatlantic History of Environmental Restoration This collaboration between George Perkins Marsh and John Elder between Vermont and Italy between maple and olive is one of the smartest soundest deepest books about the relationship between people and nature that I've ever read It will be a classic Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature Elder's impassioned pilgrimage shows us how to delight in messy wilderness to secure a curative habitation of the world and with Marsh to lend ecological nous to our gravest task knowing ourselves and respecting one another Let the maple seeds and olive stones of Elder's visionary harvest restore to us a reflective and redemptory future from the foreword by David Lowenthal The pivotal figure in Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa is the nineteenth century diplomat and writer George Perkins Marsh generally regarded as America's first environmentalist Like Elder Marsh was a Vermonter and his diplomatic career took him for some years to Italy where witnessing the ecological devastation wrought upon the landscape by runaway deforestation and the plundering of other natural resources he was moved to produce his famous manifesto Man and Nature Marsh drew parallels between the despoiled Italian environment and his home landscape of Vermont warning that the latter was vulnerable to ecological woes of a similar magnitude if not carefully maintained and protected In short his was a prescient voice for stewardship Elder follows in Marsh's footsteps along a trajectory running from Vermont to Italy and at length fetches up at the managed forest of Vallombrosa Punctuated throughout with learned and genial considerations of the poetry of Wordsworth Basho Dante and Frost Elder's narrative takes up issues of sustainability as practiced locally reports on family doings and returns finally as did Marsh's to Vermont where he measures traditional stewardship values against more aggressive conservation oriented measures such as the expansion of wilderness areas John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism
