Ambiguous Antidotes Hilaire Kallendorf,2017-01-01 In Ambiguous Antidotes Hilaire Kallendorf explores the receptions of Virtues in the realm of moral philosophy and the artistic production it influenced during the Spanish Gold Age Gentle Power Emilia Elisabet Lahti,2023-01-24 A manual for the evolution of everyday leadership based on the Finnish science of sisu from a leading researcher and teacher on the topic Power is fundamental in our lives we express it in every conversation relationship and choice we make All too often we equate force and domination with power while gentleness and compassion are considered soft or weak The destructive nature of this skewed perspective has never been more obvious yet there is reason to hope With Gentle Power Dr Emilia Elisabet Lahti shares an illuminating guide to an emerging shift in the way we define true strength an approach that balances resolve with reason grit with compassion and personal success with service to the collective good Lahti uses the concept of sisu a central philosophy native to Finland as the foundation for her investigation of gentle power At its best she says sisu is a harmonious approach to life itself specifically in how we make decisions relate to one another and navigate times of crisis and peace Drawing from sisu as well as aikido Taoism neuroscience systems intelligence and more she shares an evidence based approach to help you transform the way you manifest power Join her to explore Sisu its history its shadow and the rising global interest in this profound philosophy Leadership and power why toxic myths of power persist and how we can dismantle them The paradox of gentleness how inner resilience and true influence arise from vulnerability empathy and love Self care why gentle power begins with the way we treat ourselves To understand power is to realize that leadership is not just for some selected minority we are all leaders whose choices impact those around us Each of us can play a vital role in the collective transformation that the world is calling for Lahti writes It all starts in our own heart in our own gentle power Here you ll discover a path of wisdom resilience and compassionate strength that will elevate your life and uplift others to take part in a new revolution of human empowerment The Virtues Craig A. Boyd,Kevin Timpe,2021-03-25 From the philosophy of Aristotle and Confucius to

Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae to the paintings of Raphael Botticelli and many more fascination with the virtues has endured and evolved to fit a wide range of cultural religious and philosophical contexts through the centuries This Very Short Introduction introduces readers to the various virtues the moral virtues the intellectual virtues and the theological virtues as well as the capital vices It explores the role of the virtues in moral life their cultivation and how they offer ways of thinking and acting that are alternatives to mere rule following It also considers the relationship of the virtues to our own emotions desires and rational capacities ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

The Belief of an Unwilling to believe Michael Murauer, 2025-07-10 Against all dogmatic ideologies What can a philosophical life orientation look like in our time Why should we favour it over a religious life orientation The future belongs to philosophy not to religions or secular ideologies With this fundamental statement Michael Murauer places himself in the tradition of Enlightenment thinking The philosopher and physician who sees no acceptable alternative to a rational debate on philosophical and especially moral issues is aware that at the end of such a debate there are no absolute truths but well founded value judgements as presented here in a wide range of topics The Belief of an Unwilling to believe constantly balances on the edge between systematic philosophical treatise and personal confession measuring itself against the current state of thought This book attempts to summarise the philosophical criticism of ideologies taking into account the world view developed by modern science while at the same time offering orientation and help for life on the basis of philosophical thought adequate to modernity

I Want to Do Bad Things: Modern Interpretations of Evil, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Far from the confines of black and white evil today is an often complex and ever evolving concept which can be found in all facets of life This book offers a collection of views on the concepts of evil and wickedness from a variety of subjects helping to show the range and scope of this universal concept Chapters begin by exploring the concept of evil from a philosophical perspective attempting to question the very nature of evil itself and what issues help to constitute the subject They continue by discussing evil as it relates to monetary value in terms of capitalism politics and binary code The last two sections focus on evil through the lens of literature and film touching upon a wide range of characters from the villain hero of the Elizabethan era to the modern day antihero featured in twenty first century film

RePresenting Magic, UnDoing Evil: Of Human Inner Light and Darkness Alexandra Cheira, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2012 The chapters assembled in this e Book are a taste of an ongoing discussion on evil and magic which promises to last as long as the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing and while the realisation that magic is believing in yourself if you can do that you can make anything happen does not become a global motto The first group of chapters collected in Part I addresses the ethics and effects of translating magic into literary representations as well as real life current practices of creativity and personal change on the one hand and of the harmful malevolent infliction of pain on a third party on another thus challenging the boundaries of the cultural binary constructions of magic as either good or evil In Part II the second group of chapters examines several philosophical theological historical literary political and pop culture attempts towards understanding different meanings and kinds of evil thus broadening our perception of what evil is and how it has been theorized from Plato to contemporary international politics This is our time our call our responsibility to undo evil by carrying the magical torch of good to the next station so that good as if by magic can also become contagious among the human kind

This Thing of Darkness: Shedding Light on Evil Claudio V. Zanini, Lima Bhuiyan, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Evil has been historically associated to people facts and situations labelled disturbing weird non civilised bizarre or out of standards Many artistic fictional and media representations associate evil to darkness because of its apparent ugliness we tend to make all kinds of efforts so as to hide this thing of darkness which is intrinsic to humanity and social relations Through its chapters this volume sheds light on evil questioning its status quo places origins and pointing out its importance for social balance The discussions and viewpoints rely on approaching evil human wickedness and violence in real and imagined prisons contemporary media representations of the feminine and witches from Salem and Blair alike While movies television series works of literature media coverage public institutions and social relations are analysed evil is approached from different philosophical perspectives theories pertaining to mass media documentary film history anthropology and psychoanalysis

Teaching Virtue Marius Felderhof, Penny Thompson, 2014-11-20 In much of the world religious traditions are seriously valued but in the context of religious plurality this sets educationalists an enormous challenge This book provides a way forward in exploring religious life whilst showing how bridges might be built between diverse religious traditions Teaching Virtue puts engagement with religious life and virtue ethics at the heart of religious education encouraging learning from religion rather than learning about religion The authors focus on eight key virtues examining these for what they can offer of religious value to pupils and teachers Individual chapters put the discussion into context by offering a vision of what religious education in the future could look like the need for responsible religious education a historical review of moral education and an introduction to virtue ethics Lesson plans and examples demonstrate how the virtues may be approached in the classroom making it an invaluable guide for all involved in teaching religious education

The Shadow of Dante in French Renaissance Lyric Alison Baird Lovell, 2020-11-09 This book presents an interpretation of Maurice Scève's lyric sequence Dieu objet de plus haulte vertu Lyon 1544 in literary relation to the Vita nuova Commedia and other works of Dante Alighieri

Dante's subtle influence on Scève is elucidated in depth for the first time augmenting the allusions in Dolce to the Canzoniere of Petrarch. Francesco Petrarca Scève's sequence of dense epigrammatic dizains is considered to be an early example prior to the Pléiade poets of French Renaissance imitation of Petrarch's vernacular poetry in a time when imitatio was an established literary practice signifying the poet's participation in a tradition. While the Canzoniere is an important source for Scève's Dolce, both works are part of a poetic lineage that includes Occitan troubadours Guinizzelli, Cavalcanti, and Dante. The book situates Dante as a relevant predecessor and source for Scève and examines anew the Petrarchan label for Dolce. Compelling poetic affinities emerge between Dante and Scève that do not correlate with Petrarch. Barefoot Disciple Stephen Cherry, 2010-12-02. The rediscovery of genuine passionate humility as a healthy life-giving and community-building virtue capable of transforming our BSE (Blame Someone Else) society.
