Smokejumpers of the Civilian Public Service in World War II Robert C. Cottrell, 2014-12-24 This is the story of Civilian Public Service smokejumpers who battled against dangerous winds searing heat and devastating fires from 1943 until 1945 Fewer than 300 World War II conscientious objectors served their country in this fashion operating out of CPS bases in Montana Idaho and Oregon But that small band of men helped to keep alive Forest Service operations in the Pacific Northwest and thus sustained a program to fight potentially crippling fires When the war ended CPS smokejumpers like millions of World War II combat soldiers were ushered out of wartime service Some like many returning GIs encountered difficulties in adjusting to civilian life Nevertheless the one time smokejumpers often went on to make other remarkable contributions to their communities their nation and the world

Planetwalker ,2008 The author recounts his decision after witnessing the devastation of an oil spill to renounce the use of motorized vehicles and take a vow of silence and his subsequent twenty two years of walking and formal education

Dreams of Flight Janet Rose Daly Bednarek, Michael H. Bednarek, 2003 General aviation encompasses all the ways aircraft are used beyond commercial and military flying private flights barnstormers cropdusters and so on Authors Janet and Michael Bednarek have taken on the formidable task of discussing the hundred year history of this broad and diverse field by focusing on the most important figures and organizations in general aviation and the major producers of general aviation aircraft and engines This history examines the many airplanes used in general aviation from early Wright and Curtiss aircraft to the Piper Cub and the Lear Jet The authors trace the careers of birdmen birdwomen barnstormers and others who shaped general aviation from Clyde Cessna and the Stinson family of San Antonio to Olive Ann Beech and Paul Poberezny of Milwaukee They explain how the development of engines influenced the development of aircraft from the E 107 that powered the 1929 Aeronca C 2 the first affordable personal aircraft to the Continental A 40 that powered the Piper Cub and the Pratt and Whitney PT 6 turboprop used on many aircraft after World War II In addition the authors chart the boom and bust cycle of general aviation manufacturers the rising costs and increased regulations that have accompanied a decline in pilots the creation of an influential general aviation lobby in Washington and the growing popularity of type clubs created to maintain aircraft whose average age is twenty eight years This book provides readers with a sense of the scope and richness of the history of general aviation in the United States An epilogue examining the consequences of the terrorist attacks on September 11 2001 provides a cautionary note
