Some Old Lovers Ghost:

Some Old Lover's Ghost Judith Lennox, 2015-04-09 History can repeat itself Spanning the twentieth century Some Old Lover's Ghost is a haunting and incredibly poignant love story from acclaimed author Judith Lennox Perfect for fans of Dinah Jefferies and Lucinda Riley Rebecca bruised from an unhappy love affair is flattered to be asked to write the life story of distinguished Dame Tilda Franklin Tilda was born in 1914 and grew up in a remote Fenland village the illegitimate daughter of the local squire and a maid in the Big House It was Tilda's misfortune to fall in love with handsome devil may care Daragh Canavan and to be betrayed by him As Rebecca delves deeper into Tilda's life and as the events of the past send ghostly echoes to the present parallels with her own experience begin to emerge And as she is drawn into a family history of loves and tragedies almost too painful to write about her involvement with the family becomes more overwhelming than she could ever have imagined What readers are saying about Some Old Lover's Ghost Wonderful book couldn't put it down and beautifully written A warm believable story Five stars Some Old Lover's Ghost Judith Lennox, 2000 Poems of John Donne Robin Robbins, 2014-06-06 The Poems of John Donne is one volume paperback edition of the poems of John Donne 1572 1631 based on a comprehensive re evaluation of his work from composition to circulation and reception Donne's output is tremendously varied in style and form and demonstrates his ability to exercise his rhetorical capabilities according to context and occasion This edition aims to present the text of all his known poems from the epigrams songs and satires written for fellow young men about town to the more mature verse epistles and memorial elegies written for his patrons The Longman Annotated English Poets series traditionally aims to present poems in chronological order in this edition however the principle has been observed only within generic sections This organisation reproduces the manner in which Donne's original readers first encountered the poems in the various manuscripts of his elegies and satires that circulated in Donne's lifetime Volume One contains the Epigrams Verse Letters to Friends Love Lyrics Love Elegies and Satires Volume Two contains the religious poems Wedding Celebrations Verse Epistles to Patronesses Commemorations and the Anniversaries The lyrics have been arranged alphabetically for ease of reference and because in all but a few cases precise date of composition is impossible to determine Each poem has extensive editorial commentary designed to put the twenty first century reader in possession of all that is necessary fully to appreciate Donne s work A substantial headnote sets each poem in its historical and literary context while the annotations give detailed guidance on the wealth of classical and religious allusions and give full representation to the literary historical and philosophical culture out of which the poems grew In keeping with the traditions of the series Donne's own text has been modernised in punctuation and spelling except where to do so would alter or disrupt a rhyme John Donne: Man of Flesh and Spirit Edwards David, 2002-08-01 John Donne is best known as a poet of live brilliantly able to recreate a man's experience of emotions and realities But he is also a poet of the spiritual journey His religious poems speak of shame fear and self concious complexity and doubt but his sermons can soar into a word music seldom equalled or can condense theology into epigrams as witty as those which date from his youthful lusts He fascinates because he is a man battered by sex and by God David Edwards has written an extremely readable book which ranges over all Donne's poetry and prose and relates the literature to what is known or probable about his life He takes twentieth century research and criticism into careful account but aims to provide more than a detailed examination of a limited part of the subject He is not sentimental about Donne's faults and limitations and he does not try to sound superior to either the poet or the preacher His aim is to achieve a portrait of a living man a man who both suffered and gloried in his experience of flesh and spirit David L Edwards retired as Provost of Southwark Cathedral in 1994 He was formerly a fellow of All Souls College Oxford Editor of the SCM Press Dean of King s College Cambridge and a Canon of Westminster Abbey and the Speaker's Chaplain in the House of Commons The Eclectic Magazine ,1890 Eclectic
