Sensations of History James J. Hodge,2019-10-01 A phenomenological investigation into new media artwork and its relationship to history What does it mean to live in an era of emerging digital technologies Are computers really as antihistorical as they often seem Drawing on phenomenology s investigation of time and history Sensations of History uses encounters with new media art to inject more life into these questions making profound contributions to our understanding of the digital age in the larger scope of history Sensations of History combines close textual analysis of experimental new media artworks with in depth discussions of key texts from the philosophical tradition of phenomenology Through this inquiry author James J Hodge argues for the immense significance of new media art in examining just what historical experience means in a digital age His beautiful aphoristic style demystifies complex theories and ideas making perplexing issues feel both graspable and intimate Highlighting underappreciated vibrant work in the fields of digital art and video Sensations of History explores artists like Paul Chan Phil Solomon John F Simon and Barbara Lattanzi Hodge s provocative interpretations which bring these artists into dialogue with well known works are perfect for scholars of cinema media studies art history and literary studies Ultimately Sensations of History presents the compelling case that we are not witnessing the end of history we are instead seeing its rejuvenation in a surprising variety of new media art

Remember God Annie F. Downs,2018-10-02 I know God is loving I know He is good I believe He is big and powerful But sometimes I wonder if He is really kind really deeply always kind Is He Christians love to talk about how God is in control but that s harder to grasp when things aren t going like you thought they would when your life looks quite different than you imagined For centuries God s people have been building altars to Him to remind themselves and the people around them of His work His goodness His kindness Stacks of stones Altars Temples Cathedrals Why Because they believed God and wanted to remember Him In the back of my mind God reminds me that He is the same trustworthy God the One who always finishes the stories he starts And this is my story of wrestling with our God who gives a limp and a blessing A God who is always kind even when my circumstances feel the opposite God is who He says He is He is kinder than you imagine In a world where it is easy to forget who He is we will not We will remember God
