Timeless
Devotional Poetry Elizabeth McCallum Marlow,2020-03-19 This anthology covers thirteen centuries of Christian poetry from the ancient Dream of the Rood to modern poems by T S Eliot and C S Lewis I can think of no one better qualified to assemble an anthology of Christian devotional poetry than Elizabeth Marlow She not only knows this poetry well but has taught it for many years to appreciative students Best of all she loves and serves the Lord to whom the poems in this collection direct the gaze of our souls With this anthology she has given us a tool with which to stir up the embers of our hearts that our love for the triune God might blaze all the brighter I highly recommend this collection Greg Bailey Director of Editorial Crossway Books I am chastened by comments in the preface to this book If we don't read reflect on and enjoy the great wealth of Christian poetry available to us these poetic gems will eventually be consigned to academic libraries and forgotten by the majority of the reading public Apart from reading and singing psalms and hymns I have not been an avid reader of poetry I confess this to my shame and recently I determined to address this appalling shortcoming in my life Elizabeth Marlow's anthology of poetry is the ideal antidote I am excited to recommend this anthology of thirteen centuries of English poetry Just look at the table of contents and your appetite will be whetted So join me in learning to love God better by reading these selections Dr Joseph A Pipa President of Greenville Theological Seminary Professor of Systematic and Homiletical Theology Greenville SC

Transcultural Insights into Contemporary Irish Literature and Society María Amor Barros-del Río, 2024-07-19 Transcultural Insights into Contemporary Irish Literature and Society examines the transcultural patterns that have been enriching Irish literature since the twentieth century and engages with the ongoing dialogue between contemporary Irish literature and society Driven by the growing interest in transcultural studies in the humanities this volume provides an insightful analysis of how Irish literature handles the delicate balance between authenticity and folklore and uniformisation and diversity in an increasingly globalised world Following a diachronic approach the volume includes critical readings of canonical Irish literature as an uncharted exchange of intercultural dialogues The text also explores the external and internal transcultural traits present in recent Irish literature and its engagement with social injustice and activism and discusses location and mobility as vehicles for cultural transfer and the advancement of the women's movement A final section also includes an examination of literary expressions of hybridisation diversity and assimilation to scrutinise negotiations of new transcultural identities In the light of the compiled contributions the volume ends with a revisitation of Irish studies in a world in which national identity has become increasingly problematic This volume presents new insights into the fictional engagement of contemporary Irish literature with political social and economic issues and its efforts to accommodate the local and the global resulting in a reshaping of national collective imaginaries

The Sound Sense of Poetry Peter Robinson, 2018-09-13 What real role can poetry have in the world How are its truths created by the words and sounds chosen by the poet and by the way readers respond to them Acclaimed poet Peter Robinson brings his knowledge of poetic art to the understanding of the reader's contribution in enabling poetry to play its part in life Emphasising the value of individual writers and readers interactions together with such key matters as meter and rhythm voicing and form rhyme and syntax Robinson shows how poems engage in speech performances such as promising justifying excusing and explaining including the telling of truths Illustrated with detailed readings of poems by among others Jonson Marvell Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Tennyson Christina Rossetti Dickinson Kipling Basil Bunting Frank O'Hara Tony Harrison and Denise Riley this book shows how important poetry is as a means to do things with words and make things happen
