Island Paradise Melanie A. Murray, 2009. A colonial discourse has perpetuated the literary notion of islands as paradisaical. This study explores how the notions of island paradise have been represented in European literature the oral and literary indigenous traditions of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka a colonial literary influence in these islands and the literary experience after independence in these nations. Persistent themes of colonial narratives foreground the aesthetic and ignore the workforce in a representation of island space as idealized insular and vulnerable to conquest an ideal space for management and control. English landscape has been replicated in islands through literature and in reality the Great House being an ideological symbol of power. Island Paradise The Myth investigates how these entrenched notions of paradise which islands have traditionally represented metonymically are contested in the works of four postcolonial authors Jamaica Kincaid Lawrence Scott Romesh Guneseckera and Jean Arasanayagam from the island nations of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka. It analyzes texts which focus on gardens island space and houses to examine how these motifs are used to re-vision colonial contested sites. This book examines the relationship between landscape and identity and with reference to Homi K Bhabha considers how these writers offer an alternative space for negotiating the ambivalence of hybridity. The Rough Guide to Sri Lanka Gavin Thomas, 2009-10-19. Tamils generally have tried to secure their vision of living within a multi ethnic Sri Lanka not within Tamil Eelam the separatist dream that ended with the civil war in 2009 Exploring Sri Lanka within the deep history of colonial era South Asian plantation diasporas the book argues Up country Tamils form a diaspora next door to their ancestral homeland It moves beyond simplistic Sinhala Tamil binaries and shows how Sri Lanka s ethnic troubles actually have more in common with similar battles that diasporic Indians have faced in Fiji and Trinidad than with Hindu Muslim communalism in neighbouring India Pakistan and Bangladesh Shedding new light on issues of agency citizenship displacement and re placement within the formation of diasporic communities and identities this book demonstrates the ways that culture workers including politicians trade union leaders academics and NGO workers have facilitated the development of a new identity as Up country Tamil It is of interest to academics working in the fields of modern South Asia diaspora violence post conflict nations religion and ethnicity
