Rereading Musicians and Their Audiences Tom Attah, Kirsty Fairclough, Christian Lloyd, 2025-06-12 Using a radical and inclusive definition of the genre this collection explores musicians autobiographies as articulated in print on stage and through various expressive media as a dynamic factor in contemporary culture Popular musicians autobiographies are one of the most important ways that stars create negotiate and perpetuate the realities and myths of their lived experiences for fans Autobiographical creations such as Bruce Springsteen's book Born to Run Kendrick Lamar's lyrics ABBA's virtual Voyage show and the reimaginings of Lennon and McCartney's childhood homes have been both critically acclaimed and lucrative whilst delivering for many fans an apparent insider's understanding of musicians whose work they are invested in Yet such narratives have many other functions beyond thrilling their consumers with a sense of intimacy The pop music autobiographies discussed here variously attempt to rewrite social history to redress gender or racial stereotypes to question received models of fame to validate new genres and scenes to explore complex subjectivities to justify or atone for transgressive behaviour and to critique the music industry Reinventar o social Isabel Caldeira, Maria José Canelo, Gonçalo Cholant, 2021-09-22 Based on an inter American studies perspective the case studies composing this volume look into the definition of the social its traditional configurations and more recent reconfigurations in the wider context of the Americas It also focuses on past and present crisis and social struggles alongside with the answers movements narratives and discourses of resistance they brought about By exploring new territories the present volume aims at contributing to the creation of a new grammar and pedagogy of the social deriving from epistemological and practical perspectives on the Americas This study is interdisciplinary at core intersecting history sociology and criticism on literature film and music PC Magazine, 1989 St. Elsewhere MTM Enterprises, 1983 Saint Elsewhere Joshua Brand, John Falsey, 1981
